

CONSPIRATORIAL COMMENTARY by E. Thomson

Jewsmedia pundits prate about "conspiracy theories", their jargon for "Politically Incorrect" points of view concerning little known and generally available information. It boils down in practice to mean anything our Zionist Occupation Government disagrees with, just as "hate" is anything jews hate for Gentiles to say or write.

"Conspiracy" is variously defined as (1) a combination of persons for an evil purpose; a plot. (2) A combination or union of persons or things for a single purpose or end; harmonious action. Therefore, the pre-kosher meaning of "conspiracy" involves teamwork on behalf of evil ends, rather than good ones. A conspiracy is therefore like a racket which harms a large number of people on behalf of a small group.

To claim that conspiracies do not exist is intriguing, for it is like saying that synonyms for "conspiracy" do not exist, either, that is, combinations of certain people for certain purposes. Let us imagine a world without conspiracies!

The foremost proponents of conspiracy theories, Abraham Lincoln and Franklin Delano Roosevelt, were just joking when they claimed that conspiracies exist to "make things happen the way they do."

Charles Thomson's design for The Great Seal of the United States was just a decorative emblem, which suited his peculiar personal tastes, without any particular meaning at all. My Latin is virtually nil, but it seems to me that "Novus ordo seclorum" would mean "New World Order" and not "New Order of the Ages", for "seclorum" appears derived from worldly or secular, rather than time, as in "tempus fugit" (time flies). My Webster's dictionary defines "saeculum" as meaning "a race, age, the world." If we wish to ranspose those synonyms, we would have in translation from Latin to English: "New Race Order" or "New Age Order". Charles Thomson's contemporary and fellow Freemason, Thomas Jefferson, touted the creation of a 'new American (mestizo) race' by miscegenation with America's Asiatic aboriginals alias "Indians". Thus "New Race Order" may be more accurate as to the founders' intentions, along with their importation of multitudes of Blacks into North America. But, as we live in a world without conspiracies, we must consider written words as mere designs on paper, put there for pastimes by idle slave-owners who loved to doodle in Yankee fashion. Since there are no conspiracies, The Great Seal of the United States had no meaning, hidden or otherwise. The same can be said of the Stars & Stripes, which was a primitive form of decoration in a world without much in the way of entertainment.

In a conspiracy-free world, wars and other human conflicts are just random collisions of blind blunderers without motives or identities, for those attributes would smack of conspiracies.

In economics, as well as politics, there are no hierarchies, no plans, no budgets, no orders, but a multitude of random occurrences. When I told my jew economics professor at Berkeley that there must be a cause and effect relationship in human affairs, like the creation of money, just as there are cause and effect relationships in the physical sciences, he shrieked that I was "advocating conspiracy theories". That taught me what to think about "conspiracies", which do not exist in human affairs, except in the case of Nazis who were, according to Raul Hilberg, able to have a conspiracy to commit hebicide with "no orders, no plans, no budget", which was achieved by "an incredible meeting of minds of a far-flung bureaucracy," as Hilberg testified during a Toronto thought-crime trial. The Nazis were also able to break the laws of chemistry and physics in their daily activities, according to other jew 'eyewitnesses'. Nazis excepted, human affairs are random effects without causes by human volition. World events are a chaotic clockwork of mindless motion, and even to suggest that a deity created it all is to advocate another causal conspiracy theory!

In a conspiracy-free world, there are no secrets, for all of us have equal access to knowledge and information. This means that all espionage agencies operate under conspiracy delusions, for secrets also connote conspiracies. This allows us to conclude, in this conspiracy-free world, that only those who believe in conspiracies can become part of them, in this best of all possible worlds. DOWZ! & ORION!

A spiritual message: Religions are divisive only if people take them seriously!

28 APR 08

Hail Gregory! Many thanks for your letter & enclosures of 24 APR 08. The exposure of the "Jehovah's Witness" fraud reminded me of the Joseph Smith Mormon Fraud. Thomas Jefferson wrote honestly of Christinsanity that "one had either to be a fool or a fraud to be a Christian." That was one of the few honest statements he ever made. Judaism is a tribal mythology with no more authenticity than Grimm's Fairy Tales, but with less consistency, as we note with the bloopers in Genesis; the lie of Exodus; the jews' belated switch from a god & goddess to a single demonic deity, Yahweh, who battled against the ½ fish god, Dagon, & created Satan for his own amusement.

Jesus claimed to be the son of Yahweh, whose followers believe that he has no son. Contemporary theologians claim that words attributed to Jesus were stolen from Buddha. Obviously, Jesus is very different from his alleged father, Yahweh, who was a vindictive old jew, who never forgives anything, whereas Jesus asks Yahweh to forgive those who allegedly crucified him, thereby accepting the perpetrators' guilt upon himself, as a scapegoat, according to Judaism/Cabalism. A scapegoat cannot be a messiah, by the way.

There is an obvious absurdity in combining Old & New Testaments, which describe two different gods. This absurdity is intended to paralyze the minds of the Goyim with oxymoronic rubbish. A current absurdity is the simultaneous touting of "global-warming" in a "new ice age," so the Goyim can believe in "warming-freezing." Orwell called such absurdity "Double-think." The Red jew, Herbert Marcuse, called it "cognitive-dissonance," which he was fond of using. He enjoyed talking about "repressive tolerance," if only to see the Goyim in his audience wobble their heads in incomprehension, as I observed. I didn't bother to stay for his whole presentation, since I can recognize kosher b.s. immediately. In polite circles it is called "nonsense." "Lenin" alias Vladimir Illych Ulyanov, another Red jew, abandoned Marxism ("From each according to his ability, to each according to his need") in favor of the opposite: "Those who do not work shall not eat!" With typical jewish effrontery, he dubbed this contradiction "Marxism-Leninism."

When Jesus allegedly says that he comes not to destroy the law, but to fulfill it, this would be as if Hitler had said that he had come to "fulfill Marxism." Nonsense!

History describes various ways of 'purifying' Judaism, so as to produce 'True Judaism.' On one hand, various sects of jews emerged, such as Pharisees, Sadducees & Essenes; on the other, new sects emerged, claiming to be the 'really pure jews,' such as the Christians & later, the Moslems. Each new sect pretends to be the old one, but 'purified,' & this racket continues today, especially in the insane asylum called the USA. Martin Luther wanted to 'restore' Christianity by killing Whites; the Puritans claimed to be building a 'new Jerusalem,' but they only made it to the Salem witch-trials, before getting into the Black slave trade. After all, jews had slaves, so that was 'kosher' with Christians, until The American Civil War. The Christians' first slaves were White.

The cult known variously as "British Israel," "Israel Identity" &/or "Christian Identity" was funded by the Rothschilds before World War I to split the White Race into "Tribes of Israel." Germans who remained in Germany became "Judahites," & Germans who'd crossed The English Channel became "Israelites." That's when Britain's House of Hannover became Windsor & the Battenbergs became Mountbattens. Presto, changeo! Absurdo.

Many thanks, also, for sending Mailer's "Immodest Proposals;" much appreciated. He raises a good question: How can Americans be protected from themselves? Answer: They can not, nor should they be protected. If they could learn to think, they could protect themselves, like any organisms worthy of survival. Those who behave like cattle (Goyim) die like cattle.

Our ZOG is notorious for its imposition of debt-slavery on the Goyim. Thanks for mentioning the 'restitution' racket, which seems universal in ZOG-gulag Land. I know one ex-prisoner who is struggling to pay off his gulag-debt on his minimum-wage jobs. So far, he has barely been able to keep up with the interest accruing on the debt, every time he falls behind. What a way to spend one's youth! College graduates face a similar situation with large debts before they enter the work force. In today's job market there is no guarantee that they can pay off these initial debts, before they accrue new ones for transportation, housing, &c. Under such circumstances, one might just as well remain in prison, unless one prefers living on the streets with filth, cold & hunger. ZOG knows! I seem to recall that one's time served constituted "paying one's debt to society," but now a sum of zogbucks is added to the punishment. Such a deal! as the rabbi would say. Vegas or Victorville. ORION!
