Hail Chris! Many thanks for your letter of 7 MAY 08 & the first results of your Dachau Research Project, the photocopies of which I enclose. I noted the picture of the bodies of the murdered SS guards, who were victims of an Injun massacre, according to author Beuchner, who wrote about the 'liberation' of Dachau in "The Day of the Avenger." Beuchner admits that the American Indian soldiers' SS victims had been instructed by the Red Cross to guard the camp so as to prevent the spread of typhus, & that the SS guards had replaced the original guards. These SS were 'recycled' Hungarian war wounded. Apparently, the Injuns went nuts on seeing "White men" who did not fear them, even when they were disarmed. Two massacres occurred that same day, 3 MAY 1945, which eliminated all SS witnesses to the crime. When General Patton heard of the massacres, he ordered all photos thereof to be destroyed. I'm surprised to see the one you obtained from U.S. Archives. Beuchner kept his, & published them in his book.

It will be interesting if any of your sources mention the "gas chamber" at Dachau, which Jew film director, George Stevens, ordered built for his official Allied propaganda film. I have seen a photo of various U.S. dignitaries visiting the inside of Stevens' "gas chamber," in order to examine the fake showerheads. As far as I understand, Dachau had the only showerroom with fake showerheads stuck in the ceiling. All the other "gas chambers" had real showerheads, since they were indeed showerrooms! Contrary to the current notice inside the fake gas chamber, which admits it was "never used as a gas chamber," the Allied movie made by Jew Stevens claims that many thousands were "gassed" in the fake showerroom-fake gas chamber. The All-lies changed their lies in 1960: Suddenly, all the "Nazi death-camps" were reduced to the current six camps in Poland. The Germans hanged by the Allies for "gassings" outside of Poland were not brought back to life, however.

Sorry, but I've never heard of the groups you mentioned, except for N.S. Kindred, which may have vanished with the death of Joseph Turner (JOSE, as he called himself). Keep up the great work. All the best, as always. ORION!

Dachau: A Holocaust Riddle - by P

In order to understand the war propaganda in the present Middle-East situation, people, whose mental-switch is not permanently in the "OFF" position, should think back to events in WW II which were classed as "war-crimes".

Realizing that there can never be a war without war crimes, it is quite different to be responsible for war crimes which only existed in wartime propaganda but never happened. Are there such things that could happen, but are not true, or are true but never happened? Before anyone calls it ludicrous, here is what a Nobel Peace-Prize Laureate said:

"What are you writing?" the Rebbe asked. "Stories," I said. He wanted to
