

25 JUN 08

Dear Tom: Many thanks for your letters of FEB & MAY 08. You never need to feel obliged to write on a schedule, but with all the economic & weather calamities in the jewsmedia, I was wondering if you'd been forced to hop a freight out of town, or if you got washed away or blown away by floods & tornadoes.

As always, your insightful observations succinctly describe what & who ails us, while the Goyim sleep on under the spell of the jewsmedia. It's as if someone were to combine the truthful fictions of "1984," "Fahrenheit 451," "They Live" & "The Matrix" all in one feature. Why does Hebrewood dare to publicize such revealing topics of destructive, dictatorial & alien conspiracies? Because ZOG's cabala requires it: For evil to succeed, it must be made manifest to its intended victims. By so doing, the criminals can shift the guilt onto the shoulders of their victims. If you've never heard of this concept, then you never learned much about our jew oppressors, for that's what makes them tick. Are they wrong? Well, suppose I were to offer you a cup of poison with the words: "Here's your poison. Drink up." If you drink it, am I guilty for your death?

When my relative, Charles Thomson, sketched the Judeo-Satanic-Freemasonic device known as "The Great Seal of the USA," which every Goy sheep sees on the back of the $1 bill, since 33° Mason FDR ordered it printed thereon, as I recall, the Goy victims accept NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM, New WORLD Order. This means that we support the USA whose ancient intention has always been to conquer the world. Obviously, conquest is necessary to impose any "world order." In conclusion, all of us agree to support world conquest on behalf of our ZOG, a very unpatriotic form of patriotism. Am I any less guilty in the service of our ZOG? Only to the degree that I try to tell totally guilty Goyim what they have agreed to, without their comprehension. You see, the jews' cabalistic commandments do not require them to explain their intentions to their victims, but only to show them a symbol or statement of their intent, even in a foreign language such as Latin. "Ignorance of the law is no excuse," even if Goyim believe that "ignorance is bliss." Our ignorance has paved the road to our present political, demographic & economic destination of disaster, much as the arrogant ignorance of The Titanic's captain propelled it to disastrous destiny. If joblessness, homelessness & poverty be 'bliss', what a happy bunch of fools we must be! Let's hear the Goy cheer: DUUH! In jew logic, their victims are 'guilty,' not the perpetrators & profiteers of the crimes, since the victims have been warned openly &/or deviously. Ignore a stop sign & see what happens. Goyim wander around with their eyes open, but their brains not in gear. Most don't even want to see stop signs, but stopped they will be, unfortunately.

In "They Live," the reluctant hero puts on some 'special' sunglasses which allow him to see the jewlike aliens & their subliminal propaganda. With his unaided vision he sees "IN GOD WE TRUST" on the back of the $1 bill. But with the glasses, he sees the aliens' message: "THIS IS YOUR GOD." How true! Did we need to see this message to understand the role of the jews' money in our lives? Isn't it obvious? Yet, what is obvious goes unseen or uncomprehended by the Goy sheeple. "Theirs not to reason why."

Is there, perhaps, a Scottish motive in my wishing for knowledge? Well, it makes life much less expensive, & much more interesting. I've been in oriental bazaars with all manner of merchandise & mendacity, but I see in our mundane march upon The Talmudic Treadmill to Oblivion glimpses of a magical world worthy of any Conan the Barbarian movie, minus the expensive swords & fur costumes, of course. Goyim, as in "The Matrix," exist in a world of illusions, of magical spells. The fact that the spells produce concrete outcomes makes them no less magical, but moreso. Imagine giving a man a piece of paper, so he will go off to die in Iraq or Afghanistan, for "democracy," a mythical critter, especially in the USA. If such magic did not produce so much pain & suffering, on behalf of evil, it would be grotesquely comical, if one has a sadistic sense of humor. I do not enjoy such 'humor,' however, for I've never laughed at others' expense, & I always worried that the circus acrobats might fall & hurt themselves, merely for our feckless entertainment. Soldiers are paid to die, if necessary, so they should know their job description & that their pay is sufficient for their purposes. As a former soldier, I only wondered what my masters thought I should die for, so I was an open-eyed Goy whom the jews could say: "He can see!" as did the aliens in "They Live."

Your present job description reveals that Blacks were never "cheap labor." Why your job is not done in China remains a mystery. I think it would be cheaper to pay the Blacks to stay away from work, rather than pay them to foul up production. In Black misruled South Africa, the situation is much worse, since Blacks are now in mismanagement positions, &

Whites are leaving for greener pastures, far far away. The Black mismanagers basically steal their pay, & the Black 'workers' basically steal whatever isn't fastened down &/or goof off during working hours. The White man's infrastructure crumbles rapidly, under such conditions, so the Black Burden weighs ever heavier on African society.

Our regional jewsmedia omit, as far as I know, much or any information on the Chinese role in Africa. My African sources have no such 'sheenie sensitivities,' however, for they clearly point out the Chinese role in backing Robert Mugabe of Zimbabwe (fittingly named for an Arab ruins therein). Mugabe drove out his own people in various effective ways, all in the name of resisting "Western Colonialism." He does not care to admit that he is front man for Eastern Colonialism which does not need Blacks for anything: Neither for labor, nor for management. Like so many Ostensible Whites, Black rulers have sold out to alien paymasters, against their people's interests. Hence, I cannot fault Mugabe in particular, as compared to Bush. Mugabe's people are starving much faster than are Bush's Goyim. That's the only difference. It is apparent that all the wailing about "poor, oppressed, suffering Black Africans" stems from judeo-capitalist sources which resent the increasing Chinese dominance in African trade & resources, similar to British imperial resentment of other Europeans' imperial inroads in Africa. Kipling would be current if his books were written in Mandarin & edited to show "China" & "Chinese," wherever "Britain" & "British" appeared. The issues of the past continue or resume, albeit with new actors. Why not remake "The 4 Feathers" with Chinese actors? I say, old chap! Kipling's "Great Game" continues, & it's just as dirty as ever.

Aside from violent crime, noise is non-Whites' major multi-cultural manifestation. Blacks must be particularly hard of hearing, judging by the noxious decibel levels they bring into their environment, with mestizos (Anglo & Hispanic) running a fairly close second. Perhaps Blacks deem their noise as 'music,' but mestizos use their decibels as sonic assault. Passing 'mestizo-mobiles' specialize in syncopated thuds of low frequency & high volume, sufficient to rattle windows & cause plaster dust to fall from ceilings. We dumb honkeys seem not to enjoy such a barrage, especially around 3:00 a.m. Actually, the mestizo marauders are marking their territory, as I understand from their 'culture.' That's why they 'tag' many places with their gang graffiti, as we see all over Brownest Yakima. Aside from the ugliness of such markings on one's dwelling, the display of one gang's graffiti can invite attack from competing mestizo gangs, who are known to fire at houses in their drive-by routines. Last night, I heard gunfire &/or fireworks (both illegal) going off nearby in my barrio (neighborhood). I don't know of any celebration for the 24th of June on the Mexican calendar, so I guess it was just a private party &/or an excuse to disturb the sleeping Gringos at 2:00 a.m. Descartes said, "I think, therefore I am," but non-Whites believe: "I be noisy, derefo' Ahz be it am," or sounds to dat effec'. The real motive appears to be: "If it offend Whitey, it be all right." When I was a working honkey, I used to switch off offending apartments' electricity when my non-White neighbors' noise interrupted my precious few hours of sleep. Now I live where the noise is entirely external, rather than internal, so the problem is partly solved. The Final Solution is to reduce the proximity of diversity so as to diminish the frequency of perversity. Mestizos are not so tolerant when their sleep is interrupted, in my long experience. If I were a vengeful person, I'd enjoy driving through the sleeping barrio in an armored Humvee, with loudspeakers playing "How Dry I am," &c. from my boomboxes. The lights would sure go on, but I could not hear the outcries of the sonic victims. Pobrecitos! Not being a danky, I get no pleasure from disturbing others' sleep, any more than I enjoy my own sleep-deprivation. My intention is to enjoy the last vestiges of our declining civilization as it fades into darkness & chaos, after which it is likely to become very, very quiet. One grumpy geezer complained about the morning crow chorus nearby. I said, "Be glad they are not peacocks."

I marvel at how long Whitey's infrastructure & artifacts have survived this jew era of malign neglect. As those happy Nazis would say: Strength through Joy! DOWZ! ORION!
