Hail Michael! Congratulations on your continuing efforts to recover your property from the zoggies. As I see the situation, your zoggies are involved in their subhuman version of One Upmanship, in an attempt to establish their machismo in your eyes. They reveal the invalidity of their own case by the fact that they let you have the property in the first place.

Being Asiatic in their ethos, whether they know it or not, your zoggies basically want you to kowtow, symbolically touching your forehead to the ground before them, thus signifying to them your abject loss of self-respect. They want your spirit to be broken, & they want you to show it by external means, to wit: Letting them take your property, as they wish, without protest. This is pretty much what the ZOG is up to at Guantanamo.

But let's consider what ZOG might do if it were Aryan in orientation: Why not use respect as a tool for rehabilitation, rather than using disrespect as a club against the persons being 'rehabilitated?' In my estimation, a person who can do the crime is mature enough & sane enough to do the time. Plato discussed the unreasonableness of making worse persons by way of punishment. ZOG has never made up its collective mind on rehabilitation versus punishment. Kosher Moslem countries feature chopping off the hands of thieves. This is certainly punishment, but does it prevent the use of the remaining hands to steal anew? Is society better off with a bunch of handless workers?

Why not use the gulags to teach offenders that they have made mistakes, & that they need to perceive the error of their ways, so as to redeem their previous status in society? Of course, this may be impossible with such diversity as we now experience in society, in which one man's right is another's wrong, & Babel looms before us on the near horizon.

Then, too, there are outright anti-socials who are fundamentally at war against society. By making such men kowtow, do the authorities 'correct' or 'rehabilitate' such offenders? In Black culture, prison life is a rite of passage from childhood, into adult status, here in this Land of ZOG.

ZOG's Evil Empire is sick unto death, with the largest prison population in the world & no end in sight. ZOG breeds anti-social elements with its jewish ethos & its Afro-centric values, which guarantee the production of anti-social, unskilled, uneducated members of society. Now that ZOG has gone global, so as to exploit foreign workers for less pay, the greater percentage of the U.S. population is superfluous, & has therefore been earmarked for extinction by our Rockefeller think-tanks or stink-tanks. I do not say so. THEY have said so.

Why are we kept around at such expense, in or out of the gulags? As I see it, we all serve ZOG as consumers, at present. We used to produce things to consume ourselves, & to export for ZOG's profit, but no longer. It used to be said of the USA that we had both the means to produce for a world market & our own market with which to consume our production. Hence, we did not need to conquer foreign markets, like the little European countries, neither for raw materials, nor for consumption. Now China has the best of both worlds. Were the Chinese workers paid better wages, they could consume what they make, & the world market could take a hike, but China is ruled by the same class of predators as rule over us, so exploitation continues, on behalf of Chinese world conquest. We cannot doubt the obvious, unless we ignore such facts as Chinese influence & numbers increasing in Africa, as well as the Western Hemisphere, notably Canada.

For what it's worth, you & your zoggies might consider the context of the gulag games you play, for it is unlikely that this status quo will continue within our lifetimes, just as it is unlikely that the USA will exist as a political/demographic/economic entity very much longer. Our ZOG has already changed the USA economically & demographically, so it takes only the wave of its wand to declare that we now live in The North American Union, a mere extension of ZOG's pre-existing empire. A worthless zogbuck alias dollar will propel Judeo Americans to accept the new sheenie scam: the amero, the currency of the NAU. Who could ask for anything more? Certainly not us Goy sheeple.

Meanwhile, the jewsmedia beat the drums of war with Iran, which they assume is just a matter of time, until Israel plays "Onward Christian Soldiers." Then, in we go, like good Goy sheeple, as our Christian brainwashing has taught us. Baah! We sure live in exciting times. All the best. DOWZ! ORION!
