

21 Jewlie 08

Hail Brian! Many thanks for your letter of 16 Jewlie 08, & the informative photos of Intrigue in the Alleys. I'm impressed at the number of sheeple who positively do not want to save Ireland, for the Irish. Ethno-masochism must be epidemic. I could understand if niggers or wogs were tearing down your posters, but not Irish thugs. Here in the Jew-nited States, fliers & posters attract mostly non-Whites. Few Ostensible Whites seem able to read anything off a wall, for they are indoctrinated to read from TV or laptop screens. Outside their kosher channels, nothing else computes.

You note what makes a White Nationalist different from a White Supremacist: That inferior Whites are unworthy of being White Nationalists. I lived under White Supremacy in Africa, & there were Ostensible Whites (not jews) of whom I was ashamed. A superior Black is certainly preferable to an inferior White, in my experience. As Kipling wrote: "You're a better man than I am, Gunga Din." My politically incorrect grandmother who was born in North Carolina told me that there were beings she knew as White Trash, & that Blacks knew the difference. She'd tell me to take my toys from the front yard, to "make it look as if White folks lived there." Was she a Confederate spy? Her brandishing of the rollingpin precluded further inquiry. When I asked her, casually, if she boiled bricks for salt at the siege of Vicksburg, she was notably silent. Mysteries are made of this.

I note that a change of address is in the works. Ideally, your abode should be as mobile as your means of communication, but it would be appropriate if you had a human network reliable enough to receive your mail & other items which can't be transmitted via the airwaves of cyberspace.

As you say, if we had our own university, we could busy our students in jewsmedia analysis, but if we had our own university, we'd be able to study other things, since the jewsmedia would be out of the picture, by then. The existence of a White university would preclude the existence of the ZOG & vice versa.

Thanks for your observations on contemporary Russia, in regard to the jewish presence. I strongly suspected that the Khazars would not depart from such an oil-rich region. Jews remain jews, despite all the wishful-thinkers who want to believe the contrary. We can con ourselves into thinking that there are "good jews" & "bad jews," exactly as the Nazis did in regard to the Zionist jews. Goyim desperately want to turn jews into "Russians," as so many did under Stalin alias Djugashvili alias Jewson. But, they always remain jews, who use our wishful-thinking against us.

I wish Simon Sheppard all the best in his endeavor to gain his freedom from Britzog, but I fear that the Jewnited States may do a "Zündel" on him, by forking him over to another Zogland, for 'trial' as a word-criminal in a talmudic thought-crime court run by kosher kangaroos. Please keep me informed of his adventures, & please convey to him my best wishes, as always. I've had the exile experience, so I can sympathize with him, for I've lived out of my pockets, & from a suitcase, not knowing where I'd be, nor what I'd be doing, from day to day. Certainly, I faced dire possibilities, but they didn't occur, so my exiles were comfortable, if inconvenient, for the most part. I never had to swim icy rivers, nor crawl under boobytrapped barbwire.

In his "Road to Wiggan Pier," which I recommend, Orwell wrote of young females' foolish attraction to young men who were unfit to be husbands, let alone fathers. Your description of the jewsmedia indoctrination of females into obnoxious sluts is scary. I can certainly imagine being in the presence of such a harpy, who'd magically turn any home into hell. Now you know why I've not been careless in choosing a mate, for I know the penalties one incurs for a fleeting pleasure. Not only have I been wise, but also very lucky. I guess if one has all the luck, he needs no wisdom. What, me worry? I still look both ways before crossing a street, for the exercise of caution seems to improve one's fate. You take care. Strength through Joy. ORION!

P.S.: NFR jewsradio reported that lots of (jew) oligarchs who ripped off Russia under the drunk,  Such a deal! Yeltsin, are living high on the hog in Britain.
