"HOMO AMERICANUS: Child of the Postmodern Age" by Tomislav Sunic, 2007 (ISBN 1-4196-5984-7)

Former Croatian diplomat, Tomislav Sunic puts forward his views on the development of today's American. Whilst Croatian in origin, Sunic has had extensive experience in the United States having received a doctorate in political science at the University of California and also at one time holding an American professorship.

America is the least homogenous nation in the Western hemisphere both racially and in terms of the lifestyles of its citizens. This makes generalizations difficult although not impossible.

While political scientists and historians proclaim that racial or ethnic differences are not innate, and are the product of nurture and education, biologists and geneticists will reject this. Nevertheless the liberal dogma of equality has not yet lost its credibility and politicians and professors who question it can find their careers restricted or truncated.

This sets up a sort of functionalism whereby those who take an unconventional approach can be stigmatized as racists and fascists. American liberalism promotes democracy while at the same time it takes a repressive and undemocratic stance when its own orthodoxies are challenged.

To become masters of the modern Americanised discourse the liberals and leftists had to remove any authors from the library shelves who they considered too right, racist or otherwise opposed to their views. A true democrat would be expected to at least respect the right of all across the political spectrum to be heard.

Those who question the constant commemoration of the Jewish Holocaust are generally treated like heretics. In fact Professor Kevin MacDonald has described the "veneration of the Holocaust as the central moral icon of the entire civilization". To a certain extent those who question multiracial or multicultural policies are also vilified.

Nevertheless do those who purport to accept or even support the current situation really accept it or just pretend to? Sunic makes a comparison with the old Soviet Union where those who in public supported, or even played a part in running the system, often laughed about its contradictions in private.

Similarly, although Americans have always stressed the notion of liberty and the principles of Jeffersonian democracy, certain historians have pointed out that the country's founding fathers were as much motivated by economic and capitalist motives. Sunic believes postmodern Americans are so focused on the amassment of commodities that they are becoming perishable commodities themselves.

In fact Homo economicus can be used as a synonym for Homo Americanus. As one writer pointed out some time ago "the dominant influence in the making of America has been overwhelmingly bourgeois, and the population has been selected by the requirements of the capitalist regime". Survival of the fittest in America applies not to the fittest in arts or politics, but the fittest in capitalist commerce.

What is the future of America? Sunic foresees the possibility of a return to segregation and the Balkanisation of America along ethnic and racial lines. In a market democracy Americans cannot be expected to develop an organic and fraternal relationship with each other. He sees such a relationship as feasible only in a racially homogenous society or a sharply segregated one with each group pursuing its own destiny. The omnipotent market in America strengthens the desire of citizens to act as free economic agents with no spiritual bonds to each other, nor any sense of the common good or historical community.

Americanism, like communism, may only function in the future as a basic form of survivalism in which inter-racial wars will be the norm.

Only change of mind can save Our Kind, so as to cause a change of behavior. Werner Sombart wrote in his study of Jews & capitalism that "The USA is the distilled essence of Judaism." The USA is a study in entropy. E.T.

8-8-08. Hail Joseph! Many thanks for your letter of 2 AUG 08, & the essay, "The Light within Us," which I shall send to THOR INK. Please don't feel bad for being duped by the Zudniks, as Zündel-dupes & conwomen such as his jewish wife are called. I worked with The Zud for 15 years, so I know him better than all the liars & scribblers who think they have something to say about him. Of course, he should not be imprisoned in the Zionist Occupation Government gulag for what he said & wrote. He should be executed by a firing squad for betraying the cause & the people who thought he was sincere. Forgiving such behavior is not appropriate, for that would justify what he did against the Cause. Forgetting is even less appropriate, for Zündel should serve as a lesson to those of us who are too quick to trust a conman who says "WE," when he's really out for "ME."

Judeo-American individualism to the contrary, we do not exist as lone, isolated, self-sufficient beings, since we depend on others who we may never see for our food, clothing, shelter, water & power. Man is a member of his community, whether he likes it or not, so our personal convictions & conscience relate not merely to ourselves, but to others.

If a lone individual wants to destroy himself, that's fine with me, but if others depend upon him, he is wrong to let addictions govern his life. The captain of the oil tanker Exxon Valdez got drunk as his ship got underway. Because he was irresponsible, the ship ran aground & spilled tons of crude oil into valuable coastal waters & beaches, where it killed equally valuable wildlife. The clean up cost was atrocious, for many miles down the coast. The lesson seems to be that we need others to live, so our concerns must be beyond ourselves, for our own good. If we value our Cause above all, then we can cast off our debilitating addictions, just as we can avoid addictions in the first place.

The jew commie who used the alias of "Lenin" complained that the poor Russians did not revolt because their religion was "the opiate of the masses." Now, he would say that opiates have become "The religion of the masses." That's what follows from living only for oneself & for the moment. Back in the 1960s I saw the hippie movement lose its political energy because of drugs, which served to debilitate & distract the hippies from working to change the Judeo-Capitalist system. The jews were split amongst those who wanted "revolution now" & those who preferred the Goyim to relax into passive political irrelevance. Obviously, the relaxation jews won, since they have the money. The young commie-kikes had their fun at playing Dr. Zhivago & Ten Days that Shook the World, after which they became sheenie stock-brokers, banksters & salesmen, whereas the other Reds called themselves "neo-conservatives," & occupy important posts in our Zionist Occupation Government (ZOG) in the Bush regime. After conning us into Iraq & Afghanistan, some of the top kick kikes moved on to make new mischief. Such a deal!

It seems that you are waging a successful struggle against the inner jew, which we all must do, to one degree or another. Of course, it is not easy to battle our inner jew if we are Christians who are taught that the jews are their god's chosen people; that we are born in sin; that we are sheep, &c. The jews invented Christianity to cripple us psychologically. Jews become men at puberty, but we Goyim (soulless cattle) remain sheep, dogs, children, &c. We also remain sinners who are ever in need of forgiveness. And, yes, we are isolated individuals, whereas jews are righteous members of their community, even if it is the Mafia, which is jewish, in Italy, America or Russia, as well as in all countries.

Fascism was best described by Mussolini as "the corporate state," which would be as if Exxon became the U.S. government, which it practically is, as we can see from the oil price gouging. The word, fascism, comes from the Roman fasces, the bundle of rods around an ax handle, the symbol of Roman authority, since the rods & straps were to beat unwilling subjects & the ax was to behead them. Fascism was non-racial, as was Roman imperialism under its republic of the rich. Fascism had judeo-capitalist origins, as did Communism. Fascism was imperialistic, hence multi-national, whereas National Socialism was national & did not seek to incorporate racial aliens into NS territory. I lived 2 years in Fascist Spain, under its jew dictator, Franco.

In Britain, the judeo-capitalists displaced White workers by importing labor from Pakistan. The Skinhead movement was formed to battle the job-thieves, but it soon degenerated into drugs, booze & self-indulgent anarchy. In the USA, skinheads are known as "prison preppies." It's sad, but Gentiles often mistake self-indulgence for political relevance. If drugs & booze pertained to politics (people-power) then we might see an Alcoholics Unanimous Party which would put the Replicrats & Demmicans to shame. Ha! I saw a great bumper sticker today: "Republicans want man to exploit man. Democrats want the opposite." Strength through Joy to you. ORION!
