

2) P.S.: Thanks for the story on Hemingway. An extra copy is always appreciated, for it reminded me why I grew to dislike him. In my opinion, the best critique of him was by a contemporary: "Hemingway wanted to prove, to himself, that he was more 'macho' than Gertrude Stein." Ouch! I knew a mestizo Hemingway wannabe, who was not much of a writer, but he more than made up for it in his drinking. I've known two men who wanted to BE someone they admired. Not only is this impossible, I deem it unwholesome.

In the case of actors, they must understand where their own character is, & where the character they play resides. Peter Sellers, the Jew, said he could play so many personalities because he didn't know who he was, as I've heard other Jews say of themselves. Most Jews I knew in college were searching for their identities. My reaction was, "What's the matter, did you lose your birth certificate?" Being a Goy, there was just no way I could appreciate the tragedy of the Jews.

Ghost Prisoners Will Haunt George W. Bush Legacy

By Mike Finch

An estimated 27,000 "ghost prisoners" are currently being held in secret prisons around the world, including ships that have been re-fitted as prison hulks, according to recent reports.

"When you look at Guantanamo Bay, 270 [prisoners], roughly... [are] in Guantanamo, but according to the most recent official figures, the United States is currently holding 27,000 secret prisoners around the world," Clive Stafford Smith said to DemocracyNow! in a May 19 interview. "99 percent of these folk are not in Guantanamo Bay."

Smith is a lawyer for 30 of the Guantanamo prisoners, and author of Eight O'clock Ferry to the Windward Side: Seeking Justice in Guantanamo Bay. He spoke before Congress on May 20 regarding the prisoners, and works for the UK charity known as Reprieve.

Several known prisons exist in Morocco, Afghanistan, Djibouti, and Iraq. Popular thought was that the prisons in Iraq were for Iraqi war prisoners, but Smith asserted that prisoners are being brought in from other nations so that "annoying people like you—I mean the media—and also annoying people like me—lawyers—away from the prisoners so they can't get any sort of legal rights," Smith said.

The Bush administration said they have not tortured suspected terrorists, but rather used "alternative" interrogation methods that are "tough but legal," a 2006 CNN report said. Smith described one such alternative method: "All they have on him is evidence that they extracted from him after taking him to Morocco and torturing him with a razor blade to his genitals."

Smith said that his organization identified 32 prison ships, though the U.S. and Britain deny that ships converted into prisons are used in the Indian Ocean to hold people.

"We've got pictures of them in Lisbon Harbor," Smith said, "And this is a huge concern, because the world focus is on Guantanamo Bay, which actually is a diversionary tactic in the whole war on terror or whatever you would like to call it."

Bagram prison in Afghanistan, a prison that made the news in 2002 when two detainees were killed from wounds inflicted during torture, holds an estimated 680 prisoners.

May 17 the U.S. announced plans to build a 40-acre prison extension to the Bagram facility that will hold up to 1,100 prisoners. The bill for the new prison is estimated at $60 million. ★

Dear Phil: Many thanks for your letter of 9-9-08 & enclosures. Chapman's use of jargon & abbreviations make his text hard to follow. My Gestalt is that things ain't goin' great for the Goyim. He alleges that the poor, foolish Illuminati have got themselves sucked into a 'black hole' of finances. To assume that our bankster rulers have made an error in their rip-off of our economy seems to give them inadequate credit for their predatory expertise. The thing to realize is that the jew banksters alias Illuminati have created a world of symbolic wealth, based on debt. They know such paper profits are symbolic, so we should watch what they do, not what they say. The suckers who got into the subprime mortgage racket are seeing their houses foreclosed & sold at rock bottom prices, after the suckers thought that the only way housing prices could go was up. Such business/theft cycles are engineered, & therefore predictable. Otherwise the jew banksters wouldn't be in business.

Goyim are 'edjewcated' to think that politics & economics have no connection. That's why they are taught as separate subjects in Goy indoctrination centers, alias schools. There is no separation between politics & economics, any more than the left half of one's body should be studied separately from the right. Those top kick kikes of banksterdom designed the system, so they know how it works, & they can predict with certainty its operations & outcomes. As FDR observed: "Things don't just happen the way they do. They are MADE to happen as they do. If the USA is growing weaker & poorer in the faces of China & Russia, then this result is what the jews planned for, all along. To think otherwise would be to view wars & depressions as 'mistakes.' The only mistake was our willing participation in these jewish enterprises, as victims & dupes. Hence, the only fools in this crooked game are us, not the kike crooks who have the game-plan.

The jews use their control of symbolic wealth in order to control real wealth: The essential commodities we need to live. Consider the price (symbolic) of gasoline (an essential commodity for most sheeple). Consider the price of food & the decreasing value of our wages. The mechanism of inflation allows the jew to steal the fruits of our labor, since he effectively pays us for 4 hours, when we have worked 8 hours.

W.C. Fields said, "You can't cheat an honest man," & H.L. Mencken said, "Every American lives for the day he can steal something." The subprime mortgage scam snared lots of suckers who effectively thought they were getting a 'good deal' on buying The Brooklyn Bridge. Some suckers don't see a Ponzie Scheme when they participate in one, but other suckers know what it is, & think they know how to get the better of it. Either way, the crooks win. I've seen 'bubbles' grow & burst over the years. Would I participate in one? After all, sheep were made for fleecing & slaughter. To participate, I'd have to have sufficient wealth, & since I don't like to gamble, I'd need a secure source of inside information, so I'd know when to buy & when to sell. Naturally, these positions are already occupied by the jews. When I asked my mom if we ever lost any money in the Depression of the 1930s, she said, "We didn't have any money to lose, in the first place." So wisdom was not required in our investment strategy. If one is already broke, he can't gamble, & he can't lose. Such a deal!

This brings me to consider what Daniel Deville's real intentions may be. Ever since I received letters & publications from him, we have been promoting two different causes. Mine is people. His is land. To me, he denies that he is promoting some sort of land scheme, but his words never vary: Land, land, land. My words continue to promote Nationalism first, land later. I suspect that he has a hidden agenda, for he wants to engage in a real estate business when he gets out of the ZOG-gulag, according to his letters to me. It is obvious from his statements that land-sales & acquisitions take precedence over National Ideology. My letter to Daniel of 9-9-08 refers. Hence, I don't trust him. I still wonder what he did to reside in his gulag, in which all prisoners are "innocent." That's what they're likely to tell you.

I guess commuting from Idaho to Indiana on a regular basis is not on, so you'll have to relocate there, indefinitely, as you say. All I need is your new mailing address, when you have one. Who knows what informative items you'll find at your aunt's place. Good hunting!

Your analysis of Palin is on target. Is she/jewish? Names which end in "in" are often kosher. According to jewsmedia reports, she wants a 'holy war' against "Islamic extremists," that is, Moslems who believe in their religion, in practice, rather than lip service, like Christians. I shun hospitals, since they are sources of infection. All the best. DOWZ! ORION!
