

Workers in the State's Prison System Demand a Fair Contract!

Teamsters Shortchanged on State's DOC Contract

Teamsters Local 117: 14675 Interurban Ave. S, Suite 307 • Tukwila, WA 98168 • (206) 441-4860 • www.teamsters117.org

The Teamsters have been strong, longtime supporters of Governor Chris Gregoire. On the issues that matter most to working families - wages, health care, and worker rights - the Governor has built an impressive record.

But the Teamsters at the adult correctional facilities across the State of Washington are feeling shortchanged.

With its "Last, Best and Final" offer, the State put forth a proposal that failed to recognize the stressful working conditions and safety risks facing the hardworking men and women who staff the Washington State prison system.

Workers at the State's correctional facilities had little choice but to vote down the proposal.

Teamsters Local 117's rejection of the State's proposal sends a clear message: The State needs to go back to the drawing board and draft a more equitable proposal that takes into account the safety concerns and unique work environment of prison workers.

Teamster Prison Workers Demand:

- a fair and equitable compensation package that helps working families keep pace with rising fuel and food prices
- parity increases across all institutions
- a pledge from the State not to engage in take-it-or-leave-it "pattern bargaining"

"Every day we put our lives on the line. The State needs to offer an economic package that reflects the stressful working conditions and the safety risks we run while working in a prison environment."

Dan Wistie
Correctional Officer, WCC

"As a prison worker, I have been both a witness and a victim to episodes of extreme violence. Two years ago, I had an inmate throw a liquid substance at me, believed to have been urine."

"For months, I worried about exposure to infectious disease, not to mention the fear and emotional distress involved."

Susan Plouff,
Admin. Assistant, MCC

"I'm a strong supporter of Governor Gregoire, but the State has to understand: The hardworking men and women at DOC deserve a contract that accounts for the dangers we face every day when we go to work."

Dear Tom: Many thanks for your cogent thoughts of 24 & 25 SEP 08. Yes, those who believe that ZOG does not exist, or that this planned crisis shows that the Zionist World Disorder is "crumbling" would have said the same thing about the planned Depression of 1929 to 1939, with the equally planned Second World War or Jew harvest. When we ask "Cui bono?" we can see that the Goy majority are bearing the costs of minority Jew power & profit. If we believe, as do the Jews, that the job of Goyim is to pay & suffer, then we could agree that "ZOG's in its place, & all's right with the world."

The mad Jew dogs of Israel have announced their "Samson Option" of nuking the world, if they don't get what they want. As you say, a horrible end may be better than an endless horror; a big bang, rather than progressive putrefaction, but that is not up to us.

In regard to what is good for Whites, I see that Form must follow Function. The hypocrite, Jefferson, could talk from both sides of his Freemasonic mouth. When he wrote that "all men are created equal," he was lying, of course. On another page, he wrote to a correspondent that there is a "natural aristocracy." Aristocracy means rule by the best, which I take to mean merit, rather than family. Hitler knew this fact, so he set up the National Political Academies or NAPOLAs with the goal of recruiting a new generation of leaders: Boys & girls with good minds, bodies & character. I know one fellow who was kicked out, for "lack of character," & his subsequent behavior certainly justified his dismissal. Hitler knew the defects of nepotism & cronyism, so he did not behave as Napoleon by appointing his relatives to posts in which they could demonstrate their incompetence. Selection of NAPOLA candidates resembled the procedure used in the USA for selecting West Point candidates, in which leaders of communities would recommend that a boy or girl would be fit for admission, regardless of the child's class or social standing of his family. Real leaders are not restricted to any particular social class, as we have seen throughout history. National Socialism was participatory. If one saw a problem, he was invited to complain to the Party administration, & if he had good ideas, he might be put in charge of solving that problem. Rommel said that he wanted any man with a complaint to see him, with proposals for at least 3 solutions to the alleged problem. In the U.S. Army, my sergeant said of the troops: "If they aren't griping, they aren't happy." He didn't care to hear the soldiers' complaints, nor their proposed solutions. For him, soldiers' statements were all "B.S.," & he said so. The Chinese noted in Korea that leadership in the U.S. military had little correlation with rank, so Form did not follow Function very well. In the German Army of World War I, I understand that the men elected their combat leaders at the front, so they could do their jobs without being killed unnecessarily. The Chinese captors of U.S. troops observed that the number of potential leaders, regardless of rank, was about 1 out of 20.

Our ZOG works efficiently to co-opt & corrupt our potential leaders, so our best often do their worst to their own race. Here is where character is absent. In fact, the agents of ZOG are chosen because of their evil qualities & their degeneracy, as illustrated by membership in The Skull & Bones fraternity. It is worthy of note that evil has no time for vice. To my knowledge, the evil Bernard Baruch, who presided over 5 U.S. presidents, was healthy & vigorous, with no debilitating vices, as was Meyer Lansky of the Mafia. In contrast, the would-be evil Satanist, Crowley, was more of a clown, due to his self-preoccupations, perversions & heroin addiction. His evil he kept largely to himself.

Obviously, a 'society' of atomized individuals is not really a society, for real societies have community & communities have natural leaders. The Judeo-American propaganda of "rugged individualism" is kosher baloney for the Goyim, for teams win over individual "all-stars." The Jews prove that!

Yes, the guaranteed outcome of ZOG's economic pandering to the rich will be rampant inflation. If the zogbuck becomes as worthless as money created out of nothing can be, & food becomes scarce, the USA could be the scene of a terminal race riot. Indeed, The CONstitution is a phony basis for a government, just as the Freemasonic Founding Felons intended it to be. As a professor said: "There are no big secrets," so it looks as if the Jews have chosen the Chinese as their next hosts. As you say, China wants land more than it wants zogbucks or Jew I.O.U.s. Meanwhile, Whitey sleeps on. Strength through Joy to you. DOWZ! ORION!
