

17 MAR 09

Hail Braxton! Thanks for yours of 13 MAR 09. I believe I omitted discussion of your future goals of bringing about change, which occurs automatically, usually instigated by "the powers that be!" So, how would you "get the world's attention" to promote change in the first place? We must consider that the powers that be want the stage for themselves, that is, for their flunkies. Then there is the mob which babbles about everything, like inmates of insane asylums. One voice of reason is easily drowned amid the outcries of insanity & hysteria. Then we must consider the potential audience. I may know as many as 3 people who are even interested in politics, economics & demographics, & in how these factors affect us. The masses want entertainment, not information, as ZOG knows, since that's what we get from the jewsmedia, along with lies posing as information. Many say that they can do nothing about anything & that "god" will decide on matters, or ZOG, as it usually turns out. Meanwhile, they intend to serve ZOG & "god" by going off to its wars & by paying its taxes & interest.

If I consider it percentagewise, a total of 3 Yakimorons interested in anything beyond immediate personal concerns may well apply throughout this land of ZOG. This would make our audience miniscule indeed, unless Goyim perceive changes which make our message relevant to their basic needs, which are mostly material, things, not thoughts; food, not freedom; toys, not truth.

Of course, if we are to tell the Goyim (Gentiles) anything of importance, we must be informed ourselves. We have to know about our problems, & we must also have ideas for their solutions. Rommel said that he did not want to hear complaints, unless the complainer could offer at least 3 solutions to his perceived problem. Since changes are occurring rapidly & drastically, & neither of us is in a position to 'command the world's attention,' our discussion would be one of speculation, if not outright fantasy. We have enough factual items to consider for adding to our stock of intellectual ammo when or if we receive the call for leadership, so I hope I've addressed the relevant item in your previous letter.

You seem to be scared of "hell," because you don't use your critical faculties. Do you mean a jewish, Protestant, Catholic, Moslem, Buddhist, Hindu, Viking, Zoroastrian or some other religious hell? You don't seem to know that Protestants 'must' go to Catholic hell & Catholics 'must' go to Protestant hell. If you espouse any one religion, you 'must' go to all the others' hells. My basis for evaluating their hells is: (1) Is the cult internally consistent, that is, logical, or does it have many contradictions, like Judaism & Christianity? If major contradictions exist, the cult is invalid, just as a courtroom witness' sworn testimony is invalid if contradictory before a jury. (2) Are the proponents of the cult worthy of support? The ones with whom I'm familiar are all connen who sell fear & guilt to the masses, so as to bilk them of their money & labor. I've found even atheists who pimp for jew money. Would you like to buy some fear & guilt? If so, I can offer you a 'great' bargain, along with a deed to The Brooklyn Bridge.

The oath you cited at length was that of The Society of Jesus, alias the Jesuits, who were founded by the jew, Francisco de Loyola, on the alleged behalf of the Roman Catholic Church's Counterreformation against the Lutheran Protestants. The Jesuits are notorious for attempting to justify any means they perceive on behalf of their 'worthy' ends of destroying Protestantism & Protestants, as they strive to destroy Catholicism & Catholics. This goal resulted in The 30 Years' War which devastated White Europe on behalf of two jew cults.

Protestantism split the Cult of Christ-Eaters into Lutherans, who kept Catholic rites, such as communion (Christ-eating) & confession (theological espionage). In Switzerland, the possible jew, Calvin, judaized the Christ-cult further by claiming that the rich were blessed in this life, so they may go to Sky-jew Heaven, but the poor were definitely going to hell. From Calvinism stems Judeo-America's Gospel of Wealth, by which we live to this day. Protestants were even cozier with jews than the Catholics, so Cromwell brought his jewish banker-backers back into Britain with him, resulting in the "British" (Bank of England) Empire, of which the USA is a major branch, as was the Soviet Jewnion. The Jesuits are the 'stealth' minions of the Judeo-Catholic Church, while the "Freemasons" are the not so stealthy minions of the Rothschilds & Protestants. The jew idea of supporting both or all sides in a struggle achieves profits & power for the jews who lend money & leadership to them. In terms of Judaism, it is a mitzvah or divine obligation for jews to get Goyim (Gentiles) killed in vast numbers, & Yahweh really gets his jollies (allegedly) if Goyim can be made to kill Goyim on behalf of jew interests. It is not sufficient to fight, but also to know WHO one is really fighting for. Wars are fought by many people, with many reasons for fighting (in their own minds), but few Goyim ever ask "Cui bono?" who benefits from war?

Contemporary Jewish power demonstrates just who wins!

My mother exposed me to Christianity. My father was raised, also, as Presbyterian. He believed that "a little religion" was 'good' for boys, to scare them into behaving, but too much religion could make a boy queer. Lots of religion was 'good' for women, because it allegedly kept them out of trouble, at least outside church. My mother got us into The Church of England alias Anglicans alias Episcopalians. This church was founded by King Henry 8th of England, who stole priests & property from the Roman Catholic Church, over an issue of royal succession. It is also called The Protestant Episcopal Church, for it tries to compromise, so as to avoid actual religious wars, like those which plagued Europe & plague Northern Ireland today. My parents were Low Church, which was more Protestant, while more Catholic Episcopalians go to High Church, which I visited once in Southern California. I thought I was in a Greek or Russian Orthodox church, with all the gold & icons of saints, virgins, &c. Protestants are more Jewish, in that they do not "worship graven images." Hence, Low Church is distinguished by its lack of such images & statues. Low Church crosses lack the crucified Jesus, since the bare cross proclaims "he rose from the dead." Thus was I exposed to a major culture-cult, but I still thought with my blood, for I was positively disgusted by the ritual of Christ-eating & blood-drinking, which liars-for-hire claim is 'symbolic,' while also claiming it as 'real.' To me, it is really disgusting, symbolic or otherwise: Christian cannibalism.

Contemporary religions are mainly mixed up cocktails of other, older^r religions, many of which incorporate sun worship to greater or lesser degrees. The Christ-cult is rife with sun symbols disguised as "the 12 apostles" (12 months, 12 signs of the zodiac), the cross, symbolic of the 4 seasons; the halo or sun background; sunrise services; solstice rituals such as Yuletide (Christmas) & Easter, complete with Pagan symbols like Yule trees & bunnies; death & resurrection myths. It is well argued that Jesus is one more manifestation of "God the Sun." These doctrines are common to Hinduism & Egyptian theology, in which Set or Night is equivalent to Satan, since Set is the opponent of Ra, the Sun: "Sunset," get it?

A friend of mine, Pastor Miles, was imprisoned by a ZOG agent provocateur's testimony to the effect that Miles set fire to some school buses used for school integration (Africanization). As I understand, the zoggie was a member of his church, so Miles was held responsible for the ZOG's crime of property-destruction. He was mature when he entered ZOG's gulag, & he advised to avoid "playing prison games," which are usually used by the zoggies to create "low-intensity conflict" between prison inmates, usually on racial lines. An acquaintance of mine, Warden Bill Armontrout of MO State Pen, told me in the 1980s that "race & AIDS were the two main problems in the U.S. prison system, & AIDS was catching up, fast." Racial conflict is pleasing to ZOG, for it is really divide & rule. As usual, ZOG is playing with fire, for the instigation of race war in prisons easily spreads into the street, as it has in Mexifornia prisons, where racial segregation is enforced on the pretext of "gang separation." The truth is that Black gangs must be separated from mestizo or spic gangs, who kill Blacks on a quota basis on the streets of Southern California, according to Jewsmedia & my own correspondents. So much for racial slurs. "Yankee Doodle Dandy" was originally a British slur against the American rebels, who adopted the song as their anthem. Your best weapon is laughter. If your opponents see they have annoyed you, then they have won. As for tearing up your yard & 'chemical warfare' therein, I'm reminded of bus vandals who slash the seats they will have to sit on the next day. There must be other ways to have fun, rather than soiling your own nest.

Sun Tzu identified war as an activity which deprives & displaces one group of people, to benefit another. Hence, warfare is ongoing, as long as people compete for sustenance & living space. Moreover, the Jewbook alias bible says to "wage war by deception." That is the motto of the Mossad, with its frequent "false flag" ops which seek to blame real Semites (Arabs) for attacks on perceived U.S. interests. 9-11 has the earmarks of a ZOG-Mossad op, including "dancing Jews" celebrating the planes hitting the Trade Towers, & taking pictures in great exultation. The USA is really a false flag op, aimed at killing off Whites, as it has done throughout its bloody history. As one fellow advised: "Smile, you're behind enemy lines." The USA was ALWAYS a minion of the Rothschilds' New Jew, World Order. I have not read every source you mention, for I could have written most of them, myself, from what you have written about them. I note how similar is the Jesuit Oath to the Mafia Oath, to the Freemasonic Oath, since all 3 groups are founded & run by Jews. I enclose a brief biography in which I recount some of my experiences for your information & entertainment. DOWZ! ORION! P.S.: I coined such terms as ZOG, ORION!, DOWZ!, edjewcation & Jewstice, years ago. JSK
