

24 MAR 09

Hail Adam! Thanks for your letter of 18 MAR 09. I don't recall anyone named "Balck" in connection with the SS. According to my research, the Waffen SS fought bravely, until the surrender of Germany on 8 MAY 45. I'd wonder why Hitler would (allegedly) accept the word of one informant as to the loyalty of the Waffen SS. Nor have I heard or read that they were ordered to remove any regimental insignia. Perhaps I am uninformed, for I've never heard of any "Balck Report," nor of such a Hitler order.

We can understand how stress affects human behavior, along with greed, fear & gullibility, often based on wishful-thinking. We see such behavior in the current economic crisis, here in the Jewnited States, on behalf of the New (jew) World Order. Hence, I've heard of acts of treason alleged to members of The Third Reich in regard to Hitler. One of the notorious incidents was the 1944 assassination attempt against Hitler, as enacted by Stauffenberg. In 1945, Himmler showed up at Allied H.Q. in Wehrmacht fatigues, allegedly to do a deal, which failed, resulting in Himmler's suicide. I've seen a picture of his body at the scene of the alleged incident.

The Judeo-Allies spread a rumor that the Western Allies were going to continue the war against their Eastern Allies, the Soviet Jewnion. This would be bizarre, since West & East ZOGs were branches of the same Zionist-bankster racket. But, wishful-thinking prevailed, & Himmler, Montgomery & Patton apparently believed that World War II would continue against the USSR, once Hitler were removed as leader of Germany. The British had made such lying offers to German representatives before 1940, during the period known as the Sitzkrieg or Sitdown War, in which war had been declared in Europe, but very little fighting occurred. The simple reason was that the Goyim (Gentiles) did not want another war, but the jews had planned for World War II at their Versailles Conferences following World War I. Churchill was their war-monkey/puppet, so when he became British prime minister, the war heated up.

Top-kick kikes like Baruch, Kaufmann, Nizer & most of all, Hans Morgenthau Jr. declared their intentions of exterminating the German people before the USA got into the war in 1941. See if you can get such programs for genocide as: "Germany Must Perish!" by Kauffmann (sp?), "Germany is our Problem," by Morgenthau, FDR's Secretary of Treasury, & "What to do with Germany," by Nizer. "Germany Must Perish!" got a list of kudos from major jewsmedia in the USA: "Yes, let's kill all the Krauts!" Dr. Goebbels read that little book on the radio, but the German sheeple always believe their enemies' lies, rather than the truth told by their leaders, as they did in both world wars. Most sheeple have very small minds, so they are incapable of conceiving great things. "How absurd," they thought. "Why would the jews want to kill us? Besides, there are (now) so many of us." And now there are not. Time for the Goy cheer: DUUH!

Nietzsche was a tool of the jews, under the influence of his jew mistress, Salome, & the further assistance of his syphilis. Nietzsche believed that the masses are cattle, as compared with the elite thinkers, who need not show any loyalty to the majority, nor need the majority show them any loyalty. This splits Aryan society, just as the jews write in their Protocols Of Zion. Nietzsche was not a German Nationalist, like Wagner. Check out "Nietzsche contra Wagner," by Nietzsche, in which he belittles Wagner & even calls himself "an Israelite." Nietzsche coined the term, Uebermensch or Superman as the vanguard of human evolution. I understand that Treitschke was the German Nationalist whom the SS would be most likely to read.

The Waffen SS were also known as "Hitler's Foreign Legion," for Waffen SS units were often comprised of Belgians, or Scandinavians, or Dutch, or Croats, &c. There was even an Indian SS, The Leaping Tiger Division, & a British St. George Division. One British writer said of the Waffen SS that "It was easy to say that they joined the Germans when they were believed to be on the winning side, but members joined the Waffen SS when things looked bad for Germany, & they fought so well." I call such men truly brave, for they fought on the right side, rather than the winning side. In Scandinavia, another name for Germans is the guardians of the West. That's why the jews (Asians) wanted to destroy all the Germans.

The Morgenthau Genocide Plan was begun in Zionist Occupied Germany, first with mass-starvation & forced abortions + de-industrialization. The jew banksters were thirsting for German blood, but, as usual, they chose to make German slaves instead, by forcing them to pay extortion money, goods & labor to the bandit state of Israel, as they do today. Funny thing is, the USA 'won' World War II, but we must also pay tribute to Israel. Thus are we no better, in jew eyes, than the Germans. We're all Goyim (two-legged cattle) for them.

All the best. ORION!
