

NAZIS, ASHKE-NAZIS, ZIO-NAZIS, JUST DIFFERENT SIDES OF THE SAME COIN
THE POLICY OF THE NEW STATE (OF ISRAEL) WILL BE NATIONAL SOCIALISM -TEODOR
HERZL. 1896

JEWES THAT SUPPORTED ADOLF THE GREAT

Adolf with his Jewish friend, Emile Maurice, in prison. Emile founded the Nazi-SS and became SS member 2. Adolf was member 1.

Yitzhak Shamir, (Israeli Prime Minister). Former deputy leader of the NMO, (Israeli Freedom Movement) that offered to join the war on the Nazi side.

Gertrude Stein, Jewish Nobel Laureate Novelist, nominated Adolf for the Nobel Peace Prize.

Avraham Stern. Leader of the NMO, (Israeli Freedom Movement) that offered to join the war on the Nazi side.

"We are Judeo-Nazis, and why not? If your nice, civilized parents, rather than writing books about their love for humanity had instead come to Israel and killed six million Arabs, what would have happened? Sure, two or three nasty pages would have been written in the history books, and we would have been called all sorts of names, but we would be here today as a people of 25 million! What you don't seem to understand is that the dirty work of Zionism is not finished yet, far from it!"

—Ariel Sharon, 1982

To commemorate the visit in 1934 of Baron Leopold Iiz Edler von Mildenstein of the SS Goebbels had a medal struck with one side the Swastika and the other side the Zionist Star of David. Mildenstein six months to Palestine was the subject of a massive 12 parts scene in the leading Nazi propaganda or gan Dier Angriff!

30 Jewlie 09

Hail Leif! Many thanks for your letter of 27 Jewlie 09 & the great enclosures. Thanks also for the info on the Hitler photo discovery as reported on www.time.com. I don't think Hitler would pose for a photo in an SS uniform since the Schutzstaffel or Protection Staff was to protect Hitler. Why would President Obama pose in Secret Service garb? That S.S. is for his protection also. Of course, with digital photography one could put Hitler into any uniform, animate him & have him shake hands with a digitalized, animated Lincoln!

My friend, Leon Degrelle, with whom I corresponded when he was in Spain, was promoted by Himmler on 2 May 1945, you say. Germany surrendered on 8 May 1945: 6 days later. That would explain why the promotion didn't make it into the official record, nor was a number recorded for it. My friend, General Remer, told me he was promoted by Hitler on the phone after the 1944 assassination attempt by the traitor, Stauffenberg, but Remer's promotion was official since there was time to enter it into German records. On 2 May 1945, such a promotion might not have been recorded, for lack of time. The 1940s was a time of telephones, telegrams, radio messages, stenographers & typists. Had there been digital technology then, Himmler could have promoted Degrelle via I-pod & text message. How would electronic records hold up in a total war? We may live to find out.

It seems to me that making "Cyberbullying" a crime abolishes the 1st Amendment Right of free speech & press. Freedom of expression is guaranteed to offend someone, sometime, so we may only have the 'freedom' to keep our mouths shut. Such a deal! This 'freedom' already exists in Soviet Canuckistan alias Canada alias China-duh. "Hate" is whatever jews hate. In some states, such as California alias Mexifornia, a statement or posture may be deemed a threat to the perceiver's wellbeing. If I reach into my coat pocket & say, "I'm gonna fix you real good," you may be forgiven if you react as if I were going for a gun. My words & gesture constitute Assault. Were I to pull out a gun & shoot at you, that would be Assault & Battery under CA law. If someone texts or E-mails a threat to another, the recipient may consider that message as assault, so there is a thin line between Freedom of Speech & the crime of assault, depending on the eyes & ears of the beholder.

Currently, 2 advocates of violence against judges & elected officials are in ZOG's gulags: Bill White & Hal Turner. Violence advocate Harold Covington is still outside, to my knowledge, but we should know that it is illegal to advocate violence against government & its officials. ZOG has a long history of using agent provocateurs, i.e. ZOG agents, to advocate violence, as with the Liberty City Six, who listened to an FBI agent posing as "Al Qaida." By not turning the FBI agent into the FBI, the listeners were grabbed, thrown into the gulag, tortured & now may or may not be "fit for trial." I don't know how the case concluded, if it ever did.

At present, it is neither 'cute' nor astute to cultivate an image of illegality, for ZOG may interpret such pretensions as fact. "Honest, Officer, it's just a fake gun!" In reality, the dummy wouldn't get a chance to say that, for his display of a fake gun would get him shot on the spot. In Jew Yawk Shitty, as some pronounce it, a man was shot dead by cops because he reached for his wallet to show them his I. D. Wrong move! The cops were embarrassed, but their target didn't know that, since he was dead.

As an adult, I never write things which I would not say to a person's face. I don't urge others to do anything I wouldn't do. Nor do I use words in lieu of weapons or actions, if the latter are appropriate. Were I a blightwinger, I might, for example, write about eating instead of doing it. Words have their purpose, but they can't substitute for eating! Nor is action, any action, appropriate at all times. The blightwingers say, "At least he DID something," but my question is: "For whom?" Who benefitted from the action? Usually ZOG does. The von Brunns of this world must learn to think before they act, so ZOG doesn't get the benefit from their actions. I know I'm asking too much of the blightwing, but wouldn't it be great if they could think, for a change?

The confusion created by "Brüder schweigen" is that those words are taken from the SS song, as I recall: "Wenn alle Brüder schweigen, dann bleiben wir doch treu..." (If all brothers shut up, then we remain loyal...). As you say, it makes no sense in German when taken out of context, nor when it is translated into English. The Silent Brotherhood would be "Der verschwiegener Brüderschaft."

Lone wolfism can work, only if there is general agreement on policy. Since there is no agreement, individual anarchy results in dysfunctional target-selection & timing. We need to ask, always, "Is this good for Whites?" instead of the blightwing's "me-me-me" priority. That's why we need education, above all, in order to win. As you say, Strength through Joy! ORION!

Eric