

27 OCT 09. Dear Tom: Thanks for your insightful letters of 7, 10 & 20 OCT 09. I'm glad to learn that Heretical Press is still in business after the arrests of their "top Thought-criminals," Simon Sheppard & Stephen Whittle alias Luke O'Farrell, in the Zogdom of UK, after their incarceration & deportation from Judeo-America. Obviously, their information that the USA was a 'bastion of freedom' was wrong. I wonder who gave them this misinformation, which caused them to be confined in a California gulag on the orders of "Homeland Security" alias Heimat Sicherheit, which sounds Gestapo-like when translated from English into German, as an indignant woman stated, "What happened to U.S. Security? Since when do we live in 'Homeland?'" She said it sounded "Nazi;" actually it sounds more like the East German Stasi or State Security run by the jew Markus Wolf who later went to work for his jew buddy, Michael Chertoff, along with former KGB chief Primakov. All jews together in "Homeland Security." Such a deal!

As you say, the muds would migrate to Antarctica if they thought they could live off Whites there. We definitely attract our parasites of which the jews are foremost, for they bring in other parasites for their own concealment. Niggers are most visible & obnoxious, so the jews can say, "Who, us? We aren't your problem, Whitey." More jew deception. In Rhodesia I pointed out that the Blacks would be no threat without the jews behind them, & behind us. As I said in an Internet interview, the traitors to Whites have White faces & the traitors to Blacks have Black faces in Africa. In Judeo-America, our enemies can have any color face. The Zionists who serve the jews are the enemies of all 3 human races or species, just like their jew masters.

Indeed, Whites are suffering largely self-inflicted mental paralysis from their ingestion of jew-lies & absurdities. Jew psychologist Erich Fromm wrote "Escape from Freedom," which analyzed Goyim as wanting "freedom FROM & fearing freedom TO." When I first read it, I saw the absurdity in terms of people who wanted freedom from the exertion of walking, but feared the freedom to drive a car. In our case, we gripe about jew-rule, but we fear to rule ourselves, because responsibility comes always with freedom TO. If I'm free to drive a car, I'm responsible for staying on the road & not colliding with other vehicles. Then there is the fearsome prospect of car expenses. Ha! Personally, I enjoy the freedom of walking, as always. Jew-commie Fromm styled most sheeple as "authoritarian personalities" who preferred to follow orders, rather than give them. These are also known as "institutionalized personalities" who lack initiative, like many I saw in the U.S. Army. In the absence of their 'motherly sergeants' they would merely consume food, sex & booze without end, until they ran out of time, money or passed out. Imagine the ordeal of coming to in a cold barracks, to the bark of the sergeant, a case of clap & a horrible hangover! This kind of freedom is also called licence, & does its practitioners no good & much pain. Virtue is another way of saying self-preservation or enlightened self-interest. Whites must learn these lessons, for ignorance is not bliss. Ignorance is death.

I'm oppressed by cathedrals as I am with sky-scraper canyons in cities. In the former, I breathe stale farts & incense. In the latter, noxious car exhausts. Now, that's a holocaust! These are symbols of Judeo-Christian 'civilization,' along with nigger noise & other pollution.

The hypocrisy of pious predators is impressive & humorous, if one enjoys sadistic jokes at others' expense. I recall a writer who described Drake's siege of Havana, Cuba. He stated that Drake's pirates were 'defenders of the faith' who were so compassionate that they killed the Spaniards in order to spare their Catholic souls' sinful existence, possibly so they could occupy a cooler place in hell. Such nice pirates! When heretics were burnt at the stake, they naturally screamed in pain, but the 'believers' were told the screams issued from the devils who resided in the human bodies of the "heretics." How jewish it is to translate human agony into "devils' outcries." If a woman were bound & cast into water in which she drowned, she was deemed innocent of the charge of witchcraft, but if she floated, she was so "evil" that the water rejected her, so she would be burnt at the stake as an undoubted witch. If we are tempted to think ourselves superior to such vile superstition, consider what we do to others in the name of "democracy!" Hey, we're napalming you all for your own good. In Bush we trust. For Obama's jew world ordure we lust. Punishing the innocent on behalf of the guilty & inflicting major pain on the helpless is a "mitzvah" or divine jewish obligation pleasing to Yahweh, so "Onward Christian Soldiers." Eat your Jesus for snacks so your slippery conscience can relax, as you trust in ZOG. If war is a racket, then religion is its father.

Tolkien's father knew lots about the ancient Nordic Eddas, I understand, which knowledge permeates the son's "Lord of the Rings." In my view, "The one ring to rule & in the darkness bind them" is usury alias credit. Will Whites ever have the wisdom & courage to destroy this truly evil weapon? Stay tuned! The jews use the corruption & folly of the present to steal wealth from the future, robbing generations unborn. Thus, usury is slavery. Inflation is theft & deflation is sabotage. Is that too complicated for Goyim to understand? It seems so. It is absurd that Goyim could be so focussed on money, yet so ignorant about it. When I say "Federal Reserve Racket," they recite: "Conspiracy theory!" the Zoggies' stop-thought mantra. I tell them that conspiracy = causation. How can we suffer evil effects without evil causes? Goyim don't know & don't care.

Thanks for relaying Miguel Serrano's predictions re flooding due to rising seas. I read a report that Danish geologists in Antarctica made deep core samples in ancient ice formations. These specimens revealed that Earth has her periods of warming & cooling, long before the advent of so-called humans, so "global-warming" could occur without us & our pollution. Other lifeforms have become extinct, so why not us featherless bipeds? We are all created equal in the eyes of Nature.

I have no sympathy for Winston Churchill, but I tend to echo his description of Russia as "a riddle wrapped in an enigma." How does Russia stand in regard to the jews & their empire of usury? To what degree are the jews still in control of Russia? I read that Russia supplies Israel with oil. Can Russia be enlisted in ZOG's anti-Iran policy? Former Mossadnik Victor Ostrovsky wrote in "By Way of Deception" that Israel's hitlist in The Middle East was, first, Iraq, then Syria or Iran in no particular order. His prediction has so far come true.

I, too, am bemused as to why Whites refuse to defend the land they live on from alien invaders. Land "belongs" only to those who have the guts & gumption to take & hold it. As jew Teddy Roosevelt proclaimed: "Might Makes Right" when it comes to acquisition & possession. To my knowledge, the only race which has ever been flim-flammed out of their lands has been the White Race. The others had to be driven therefrom or planted thereunder.

As you say, the mentality of the Spanish conquistadores was remarkable in their apparent reliance on the equivalent of dime novel fictions like The Fountain of Youth, The 7 Golden Cities of Cibola, the elusive El Dorado, &c. How embarrassing that Columbus declared he had arrived in the East Indies, even mis-naming the people of The Western Hemisphere! I wonder when Whites really discovered his mistake. Apparently, they just ignored it. I'm intrigued that the Spaniards called the Oklahoma panhandle "The Staked Plain" or Llano Estacado. Who drove in the stakes or built the palisade? Perhaps that was their first impression, from a distance, like their joy at seeing the 7 golden cities in the sunset, which turned out to be mud pueblos the next day.

Dr. Oliver addressed the topic of the "mysterious Germans" who lost their nationality & racial loyalty simply by moving into Judeo-America. Hitler said that Germans were "a race of the loins" who lost their souls by dwelling in other countries, whereas the jews were "a race of the mind." As we look around in contemporary Judeo-America, I don't think our internecine sacrifices were "worth it." Our Race we slew for the inner jew, as it were, & we sure did a good job of it, on behalf of ZOG. But the jews still hate us, no matter what we do for them.

As you say, The CONstitution is a fiction, a paper king whose words are subject to talmudic interpretation by the rabbis or Supreme Court Judges. The facts are that a "government of laws" is only as good as the men who enforce them, & a promise written on paper is only as good as the one who makes it. The paper can be first class & the promise worthless. How can we not see the obvious?

Truly, our worst enemies are our own lack of racial consciousness, our/folk community, our egotism, greed, cowardice, stupidity & corruption. No wonder we are losing without a fight. Will worsening conditions bring a White Awakening? I hope so. All the best. DOWZ!
ORION!

P.S.: ZOG wants us to die for "Old Gory," ever since the Founding Felons instigated their bankster-Freemason "Revolution." Can we not wise up to this phoney patriotic racket?

Ota's Talking Point

I have never commented on the various wars that have erupted during the life of this column, although many of them have involved Australian troops.

My reason is that these totally unnecessary conflicts show humanity at its worst – with politicians lying, repulsive journalists spreading the polities' lies, innocents suffering, lives destroyed, capitalists enriching themselves, billions of dollars wasted that could have been put to creative use ... The list could fill a column.

Worst of all, though, is the degradation war inflicts on those who are forced to participate in it.

Back in 1990 a man named Martin Brech wrote a memoir of his role as an American GI guarding German prisoners at the end of WW2. At the time of writing Brech was a professor of Religion and Philosophy at Mercy College in New York. He had nothing to gain from describing what he had seen, and a lot to lose, so I assume his account is truthful.

Here are some extracts from his memoir, describing how basically decent young American men degenerated into self-righteous sadists:

In late March or early April 1945, I was assigned to help guard a POW camp near Andernach along the Rhine. I had four years of high school German, so I was able to talk to the prisoners, although this was forbidden.

Gradually, however, I was used as an interpreter and asked to ferret out the S.S. (I found none.)

In Andernach, between 50,000 and 65,000 prisoners, ranging in age from very young teens to very old men, were crowded together in an open field surrounded by barbed wire. The women were kept in a separate enclosure which I did not see until later. The men I guarded had no tents or other shelter, no blankets and many had no coats. Inadequate numbers of slit trenches were provided for excrement, and so the men lived and slept in the mud and increasing filth during a cold, wet spring. Their misery from exposure alone was evident.

It was even more shocking to see them eating grass, sometimes throwing it into a tin can containing a thin soup. They told me they did this hoping to ease their hunger pains. Soon their emaciation was evident. Dysentery raged and, too weak and crowded to reach the slit trenches, they were increasingly sleeping in excrement. I saw no sign of provision for water, so the thin soup was their food and water for the day. Some days there was bread, less than a slice each. Other days there was nothing.

The sight of so many men desperate for food and water, sickening and dying before our eyes, is indescribable. Even now, I can only think of it momentarily.

We had ample food and supplies that could have been shared more humanely, and we could have offered some medical assistance, but did nothing. Only the dead were quickly and efficiently taken care of: hauled away to mass graves.

My outrage reached the point that I protested to my officers, but I was met with hostility or bland indifference. When pressed, they explained they were under strict orders from "higher up". No officer would dare to systematically do this to over 50,000 prisoners if he felt he was violating general policy and subject to court martial. The term "war criminal" was just beginning to come into fashion.

When I threw [some stolen] food over the barbed wires to the prisoners I was caught and threatened with imprisonment. I repeated the "offence", and one officer threatened to shoot me. I naturally assumed this was a bluff, but I began to have some doubts after I encountered a captain on a hill above the Rhine shooting down at a group of German civilian women with his .45 calibre pistol. When I asked, "Why?" he mumbled, "Target practice," and fired until his pistol was empty.

This is when I more fully realised I was dealing with some cold-blooded killers filled with moralistic hatred. They considered the Germans sub-human and worthy of extermination; another expression of the downward spiral of racism.

The prisoners I spoke to were mostly simple farmers and workingmen, as ignorant, albeit nationalistic, as many of our own troops.

As time went on, many of them lapsed into a Zombie-like state of listlessness. Others, maddened by thirst, tried to escape in a desperate or suicidal fashion, running through open fields in broad daylight towards the Rhine to quench their thirst. They were mowed down.

[Later] I was plunged into even greater horror. Some of our weak and sickly prisoners were being marched off by French soldiers to their camp. The truck we were on first passed another truck picking up bodies along the side of the road, and then came up behind a slowly moving column of men. Temporarily we slowed down and remained behind, perhaps because the driver was as shocked as I was. Whenever a prisoner staggered or dropped back, the French clubbed him to death and then dragged him to the side of the road. For many, this quick death might have been preferable to their prolonged suffering. Even gas would have been more merciful than our murder by neglect in our slow 'killing fields'.

As an interpreter, I was able to prevent some particularly unfortunate arrests. One somewhat amusing incident occurred during a pre-dawn raid we conducted on a town to discover Nazis or arms. An old farmer was being dragged away by some soldiers. I was told he had a "fancy Nazi medal", which they showed to me. Fortunately, I had a chart identifying such medals. He had been awarded it for having five or more children! Perhaps his wife was somewhat relieved to get him "off her back", but I didn't think one of our 'death camps' was a fair punishment for his contribution to Germany. The soldiers agreed and released him to continue his "dirty work".

Famine was spreading amongst German civilians also. It was a common sight to see German women up to their elbows in our garbage cans looking for something edible – that is, when they weren't chased away.

This hunger undoubtedly made many German women more "available", but, despite this, rape was incredibly prevalent and often accompanied by additional violence. I particularly remember a charming eighteen year old girl who had several unsuccessful suitors and was "just friends" with me, who had the side of her face smashed with a rifle butt and was then raped by two GIs. The casual shooting of German civilians also continued, usually by drunken soldiers who would tell of this as something amusing. All too many GIs gave the impression they were like animals released from cages, free to do what they liked because they were dealing with yet a lower species of animal, a reverse racism, inflamed by our propaganda. However, even the French complained to me that our rape and drunken destructive behaviour in their country was excessive. When we had arrived in Le Havre, we had been given booklets instructing us that the Germans had maintained a high standard of behaviour with French civilians who were peaceful, and that we should do the same. In this we failed miserably.

Dear Tom: Many thanks for your letter of 29 SEP 09 & the interesting enclosures. The jew-bankster-Chinese connection looms large, for I understand that jews Geitner & Zoellick are very cozy with the Red Chinese. "Such a deal!" as they say. Recent newspaper reports of illegal immigrants (invaders) from China are surfacing. As for Canada alias China-duh, its doors are open & unguarded. Chinese invaders can disappear in the various Chinese colonies when they cross into the Jew Ass Oy Veh. Yes, they definitely want North America, in addition to Africa.

As you say, Bombardier is a strange name for a maker of streetcars, locomotives & rail passenger coaches. I've ridden in them, & I spoke to a Canadian Railways conductor. I said that the ride was very smooth, similar to a Japanese bullet train. In fact, the trainride from Toronto to Ottawa was much smoother than the Dash-8 commuter flight, which was like riding in a flat-bottomed raft being propelled into oncoming waves. The jew regime in Soviet Canuckistan has declared war on railroads, in favor of air transport. Hence, the Ottawa R.R. station was moved from the center of the city into the outskirts, as if it were an airport.

The conductor told me that Bombardier's passenger trains were based on the Spanish Talgo design, but there were insufficient axles, which caused bearing problems. The Bombardier locomotive was in shop for repairs, so we were pulled by an old model diesel-electric. I suggested that the distance we had to cover between Ottawa & Toronto was about 100 miles. The traintrip was actually quicker than the plane, including transportation between city & airport. Since the 4 4 0 steam locomotives could hit 110 mph, it might be fun to disguise such a steam locomotive to make it look like a rocket. He laughed in agreement.

I've mentioned to other correspondents my idea for variable tractive effort, by means of electromagnetic track brakes held in place just above the rails. This would allow the rail vehicles to be as light as possible, but also stay on the rails via magnetism. The track brakes could also supplant airbrakes, which stop the wheels, but not the train. Track brakes would also reduce wheel-wear, since emergency stops would not flatten the wheels. Without this simple technology, Bombardier must make streetcars of an 'optimum' weight, but even so, some do leave the rails when they hit curves at high speed. Mine would not, as long as the rails stayed in place.

Since the Chinese are called "the jews of Asia," they probably intend their high-speed trains for more than one purpose, such as shifting military forces rapidly. Obabboon wants high-speed rail transport in the USA, which the Chinese will be happy to supply, along with lots of 'passengers' to use it. Funny why they'll all dress the same & carry weapons!

In the biowarfare department, the swine flu does seem to be making inroads in the young & spic population. Obviously, big changes are in the works for us Goy sheeple & White zombies. A correspondent sent me a download about "Oath Keepers" in the U.S. armed forces who claim to abide by the U.S. CONstitution. As one blogger said: "If you claim to uphold the Constitution, why are you in Iraq & Afghanistan wars, in defiance of the Constitution? Let's hear the Goy cheer, loud & clear: DUUH! I deem the alleged minds of Judeo-Americans as beneath contempt, oh zombies of ZOG. As jewsradio said today: "The economy is down, but military recruitment is up." ZOG forces are meet ing their requirements for fresh Goyim at the kosher slaughterhouse, like the Morlocks in "The Time Machine." But youth unemployment is still reported @ 50.2%. Time for a new soap opera: "The Young & the Jobless." These seem to be "End times" for the USA, but not for ZOG, with its new Chinese hosts. Sun Tzu would shake his head in disbelief that we could be so stupid; an enemy unworthy of respect, who uses his weapons on himself, here in enemy territory, under ZOG, i.e. enemy rule.

The only chance the Judeo-Americans had against Chinese numbers ^{was} the technology which we have now given to the Chinese. We merit any dire fate in store for us. "Oath Keepers" appear unaware of the link between the Nuremberg War Crimes (Show) Trials & the Constitution, since dumb Goyim are programmed to think of "war crimes" in terms only of jews. According to U.S. imposed definitions, we are guilty of doing what we hanged Germans & Japanese for after WW II. One war crime was waging "aggressive war." That was interpreted to mean, whoever attacked first was guilty, regardless of their reasons. "Pre-emptive" attacks are therefore war crimes. Israel refuses to submit to war crimes trials, for jews are deemed 'special.' Another name for war crimes trials is "victors' justice." If you lose, this is what may happen, so as to give the victors a moral as well as a military victory. Tribute alias reparations may then be justified morally (propagandistically) in terms of "war guilt." As Smedley Butler said, "War is a racket."

On the biowarfare front, FEDZOGUSA is emphasizing its insistence on mandatory swine flu vaccinations. Health care workers who refuse must wear face masks, or lose their jobs. DOWZ!
