"HOMO AMERICANUS: Child of the Postmodern Age" by Tomislav Sunic, 2007 (ISBN 1-4196-5984-7)

Former Croatian diplomat, Tomislav Sunic puts forward his views on the development of today's American. Whilst Croatian in origin, Sunic has had extensive experience in the United States having received a doctorate in political science at the University of California and also at one time holding an American professorship.

America is the least homogenous nation in the Western hemisphere both racially and in terms of the lifestyles of its citizens. This makes generalizations difficult although not impossible.

While political scientists and historians proclaim that racial or ethnic differences are not innate, and are the product of nurture and education, biologists and geneticists will reject this. Nevertheless the liberal dogma of equality has not yet lost its credibility and politicians and professors who question it can find their careers restricted or truncated.

This sets up a sort of functionalism whereby those who take an unconventional approach can be stigmatized as racists and fascists. American liberalism promotes democracy while at the same time it takes a repressive and undemocratic stance when its own orthodoxies are challenged.

To become masters of the modern Americanised discourse the liberals and leftists had to remove any authors from the library shelves who they considered too right, racist or otherwise opposed to their views. A true democrat would be expected to at least respect the right of all across the political spectrum to be heard.

Those who question the constant commemoration of the Jewish Holocaust are generally treated like heretics. In fact Professor Kevin MacDonald has described the "veneration of the White Guilt / Holocaust as the central moral icon of the entire civilization". To a certain extent those who question multiracial or multicultural policies are also vilified.

Nevertheless do those who purport to accept or even support the current situation really accept it or just pretend to? Sunic makes a comparison with the old Soviet Union where those who in public supported, or even played a part in running the system, often laughed about its contradictions in private.

Similarly, although Americans have always stressed the notion of liberty and the principles of Jeffersonian democracy, certain historians have pointed out that the country's founding fathers were as much motivated by economic and capitalist motives. Sunic believes postmodern Americans are so focused on the amassment of commodities that they are becoming perishable commodities themselves.

In fact Homo economicus can be used as a synonym for Homo Americanus. As one writer pointed out some time ago "the dominant influence in the making of America has been overwhelmingly bourgeois, and the population has been selected by the requirements of the capitalist regime". Survival of the fittest in America applies not to the fittest in arts or politics, but the fittest in capitalist commerce.

What is the future of America? Sunic foresees the possibility of a return to segregation and the Balkanisation of America along ethnic and racial lines. In a market democracy Americans cannot be expected to develop an organic and fraternal relationship with each other. He sees such a relationship as feasible only in a racially homogenous society or a sharply segregated one with each group pursuing its own destiny. The omnipotent market in America strengthens the desire of citizens to act as free economic agents with no spiritual bonds to each other, nor any sense of the common good or historical community.

Americanism, like communism, may only function in the future as a basic form of survivalism in which inter-racial wars will be the norm.

Only change of mind can save Our Kind, so as to cause a change of behavior. Werner Sombart wrote in his study of Jews & capitalism that "The USA is the distilled essence of Judaism." The USA is a study in entropy. E.T.

Dear Tom: Thanks for yours of 10 FEB 10. We've seen many changes in our lifetimes, as you noted. When I was a kid in school, the British Empire still covered much of the globe, which was colored red. Big companies were occupied by "organization men," which were seemingly permanent, like AT & T, in which one could spend his entire working life. As you say, we now experience bouts of temporary employment. In my case, since my return to Judeo-America, employers come & go, usually overseas, & so-called benefits are "gone with these winds of change." I thought I was on part-time, minimum-wage employment as a social outsider, but I later met people with ostensibly marketable skills who also worked as 'private contractors' for firms who 'out-sourced' their employees. "Globalism," i.e. international capitalism, has made permanent employment less frequent than we experienced in the 20th century, here in Us-real. As I mentioned previously, the last such job I had informed me how other Goyim lived, by working at 3 part-time jobs: 2 to pay for car expenses & 1 to pay for the workers' living expenses & those of their families. Their lives were like "Mission Impossible," life by the stopwatch, & any accident or illness was a disaster. One 'no-show' meant no job, as we were told. As my luck would have it, my last job left for India when I turned 62, making me old enough to collect Social Security. Jewsmedia report that many people now turning 62 are collecting S.S., which burdens an already overloaded system. Solution: ZOG will borrow more $ to cause more inflation. As one old cartoon went: Uncle Sam in a tattered suit says to Obama "You say I'm in this trouble because I spent money I didn't have. Now you say you'll get me out of trouble by spending more money we don't have." Yes, deficits are made of this, but we don't care, 'cause we'll pass it onto our great, great, great grandchildren. The hebes sacrificed children to Molech or Moloch, but they'll have us sacrifice children yet unborn as slaves to their bankster Moloch. "Such a deal!" as jews like to say.

Yes, the Jewnited States were rotten at the roots, but the Founding Felons took care to profit from their crimes against Our Race in their lifetimes, as all Freemasonic Rothschild stooges do, on the principle of devil take the hindmost alias The American Way. I recall H.L. Mencken stating that "Every American lives for the day in which he can steal something." I wonder how long a society based on "me-me-me" can stick together, with all the Ponzi/Madoffs boring like talmudic termites in the woodwork, & the Rothschild/Bernankes chopping away at the economic structure with axes of usury & 'monetized debt.' Perhaps World War III will relieve the Goyim from their anxiety & 'depression.' There's nothing like terror to relieve tedium, as a motherly sergeant used to say.

I enclose 2 recent prison skinhead letters from alleged Whites who serve to correlate skinheadism with prison 'careers.' In a statistics course we were told that "correlation is not causation," so what is the causal connection? Are young criminals adopting skinheadism as a fashion statement, or is skinheadism a chosen lifestyle of criminal pursuits? As I say, ALL skinheads I've ever known were either in prison or enroute thereto, ZOG love 'em, for they can't be raising White families from inside the ZOG-gulags. "DUH" seems an appropriate 'amen' to that observation. Lemmings are said to be 'groupies' who like to do the same thing together, similar to skinheads. Niggers deem prison to be 'a rite of passage' into adulthood, so do White skinheads have similar values? Togetherness of this nature has a steep price.

Although I see myself as a social animal, I suspect that I was a bit more of an individualist than the normal run of Goy sheeple, for I was always aware of my own inner values, likes & dislikes. I needed no one to tell me what those were. In general, I distrusted the majority whose behavior I recognized as usually self-defeating & counter-productive, if not outright destructive. Going into debt & becoming booze & dope addicts I put into those categories, as well as attempting to "keep up with the Joneses." My arresting FBI agents told me I was a "deviant" (not a "deviate" or pervert). To them, an individualist was someone who'd gone off the kosher rails which Judeo-American slavery had built for me. Had I been a "deviate" or pervert, the FBI might have offered me a job so I could 'play' with Clyde Tolson & J. Edgar Hoover, the not so closetted faggots, who are by no means scarce in The District of Corruption, as you probably know from even the jewsmedia. Some knowledgeable writers allege that Freemasonry & faggotry are brothers since the Knights Templars brought usury & buggery back to Europe from the Crusades. Not only are Freemasons "inglorious bastards," but they are usurious buggers who stooge for the Rothschilds, since their beginnings.

All U.S. holidays are indeed "days of infamy" in terms of anti-White policies.

DOWZ! ORION!
