

26 FEB 10

Hail David! Many thanks for your letter & enclosures of 19 FEB 10. What a gulag adventure you've had. Clearly, your zoggies are trying to justify their paychecks in 'make-work' projects. If they were 'proper' Black culture proponents, they'd accuse you of broadcasting long-range telepathic voodoo hexes, but your description of their 'reasoning' sounds much the same: Basically nuts.

I encountered one voodoo case in Salisbury, Rhodesia, when I worked in The Central Deeds Registry. One of the employees complained that a witchdoctor had put a hex on his house, so he could not employ any Black servants nor garden boys. He invited me to visit his spacious premises in downtown Salisbury (now Harare). It was a large, single storey house on a large lot, which demanded lots of labor for upkeep. I offered to mow his lawns for a case of beer, & I noted the many Black heads popping up above the surrounding walls, in appreciation of the owner's "White gardenboy." The owner told me that he'd hired a private detective to determine who had hired the witchdoctor to hex his place, but obtained no results. After my completion of the lawnmowing, I continued with the consumption of the beer remaining, & announced to him that the motive for the hexing was obvious, & that he should have suspected what I did. I asked him to stand in his garden. Then I asked him to look north, south, east & west, & tell me what he saw. "Highrises," he said. "There's your motive," I said. "Someone wants your property, so they paid for the hex in order to deprive you of household help, so as to reduce the value of your property. My guess is that the one who makes an offer to buy your property is likely the one who paid for the hex." I should have said, "Elementary, my dear Watson." As in Jewish cabalism, there are no ethics in voodoo: Whatever you want, you pay for, no matter how trivial or mischievous. It's much like thieves who pray to Jesus Malverde in Mexico, the patron saint of thieves & drug-traffickers.

Although writer L. Harrison states that Haitians' voodoo beliefs render them dysfunctional, as in Black Africa, thereby denigrating Black culture, he seems unaware of voodoo inroads into so-called Christian culture throughout Latin America & Afro-America. Christ-eaters were prone to adopt pre-Christian gods into their religion as "saints," so they could attract more members into their ever-morphing cult, along with pre-Christian rites & observances, like the sunrise services, & "St. Sol." The same has occurred with voodoo, whose gods (loas) are seen as "saints." Hence, the popular religion of Latin America, including Brazil, is "Santeria" or "Condumblé," in which voodoo gods & voodoo rituals are incorporated into "Christianity."

Harrison's belief that culture is transferable amongst races bears little credence, for I have lived in tribal Africa where "single parent" (female) families are the rule, & women do the useful work. So it is in much of Afro-America, where a Black male lives off the women he can coerce. Hence, Black African polygamy & male supremacy have survived over 400 years in Judeo-America. Blacks' traditions of externalizing blessings & blame to "the man," the master or tribal chief remain in Judeo-America as in Black Africa, as a means of justifying indolence & irresponsibility. I also noted the missing word in Black culture: "Why?" My Black soldiers did not understand why I wanted them to clean their rifles. I explained to them that a plugged barrel would cause the weapon to blow up in the shooter's face. But that warning was not comprehended. What my Blacks understood was "Dirty rifle = Double-timing around the fort at high-port in the hot sun." Hence, my troops learned to clean their rifle barrels so I was able to see the bright African sun shining through when I inspected the barrels of their Lee Enfields before they went out on patrol every morning. As a White soldier, all I & my mates needed to know was Why we should keep our rifles clean in terms of safety & function, rather than avoidance of pain & exertion for failure to do so! Knowing WHY was sufficient, so further coercion was unnecessary. Never, in any military service, have I been "gigged" for a dirty, unserviceable weapon, upon which my life might have depended. So much for warm-fuzzy memories.

I agreed with the theory of "political correctness" in regard to the permissive treatment of Fort Hood jihadist Major Hasan, but I received a download & correspondence which indicated a kosher conspiracy, which is becoming evident in Europe: The Jews are largely responsible for the Moslem invasion of our living space, as they brag in ads for their Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society & their American Jewish World Service on NPR jewsradio. In short, they are importing the very group Jews see as their "perpetual enemy" whom we are supposed to fight at home & in their countries, on behalf of Israel. I understand from European contacts that the Zionists are funding & urging pro-White groups to stand up against Moslem invaders in terms of Jews' old policy of "Let's you & him fight." One writer argues that Hasan was 'programmed' by FEDZOGUSA to "do his thing" at Fort Hood, to create the Jews' desired dissension in the ranks of ZOG's imperial legions. Whites should let the Moslems attack the Jews, so we can defend ourselves from both jews & Moslems on our home turf. The jews are our foremost enemies, so they must be combatted in any case. In this manner, we may use the jews' multi-culturalism/multi-racialism against them. That's known as "jew jitsu."

Wayne is mentally deficient in many ways, since he lacks the ability to think his ideas through. At first, he allegedly sought to save the White Race via his religion, with the inclusion of "salvation through space-colonization." But now, it's "space colonization Über Alles," with race in last place or no place. I recognize his abandonment of the goal which united us, so we have nothing more in common. Maybe he's working for the ZOG, on which he depends in anti-White Canada alias China-duh. I told him that CANZOG only needs to interpret his output as pro-White, even if Whites are not mentioned, for him to be charged with thought crime & taken out of circulation. Perhaps he dare not admit this fact to himself, as I suspect, for I know Canadian law quite well, as well as CANZOG's extra-legal machinations, from my time in Canada.

In my experience, Whites who are alienated from pride in their race are lost to our cause & to theirs. Zoggies need no "justification" for condemning those whom they dislike, for any reason. In Soviet Canada, "hate" is anything jews hate, & those deemed as "hatemongers" get no fair shake in the court of jewsmedia, nor in the court of law, as I've witnessed. May Wayne rest in peace by ceasing his babble. In his case, silence conceals his folly, but his words reveal him for the fool he is.

Yes, Buchanan foolishly equates "Western Civilization" with Christinsanity, which the Christian mestizos are busily destroying in their invasion of our former livingospace. Our civilization, such as it is, depends on race, not religion.

The jew, Saul of Tarsus alias St. Paul, wanted to topple the Roman Empire with his version of bolshevism + a sky-jew. Constantine used it to militarize the Christians in terms of "the divine right of kings." Hence, his legions believed that they fought for "Christian Rome," in contradiction to Jesus, who would fight for nothing, as shown by his own alleged example! What bloody absurdity. As you say, Rome achieved its greatness before Christinsanity, not after.

Now we see ZOG's legions fighting to impose "democracy" overseas, which our Founding Felons vigorously denounced as "mob-rule" in their Federalist Papers, so we are fighting to impose a fiction on others which we never had for ourselves. This proves we are no more intelligent than the Christian legions of decadent Rome, whom we recognize as utter dupes & fools. It is fitting that our Founding Felons aped Rome with the U.S. Senate & the alleged Republic (of the Rich) as described by Tacitus. No wonder the fasces appears on some federal buildings: The symbol of Rome's brutality & tyranny, on behalf of the jews' Novus Ordo Seclorum. We may not be a democracy, but we sure are a hypocrisy, a jewish one at that.

Sorry, but I know the music of the Horst Wessel Song, & cannot think of any English tune similar to it. The words of the White Power Hymn are metered so as to correspond exactly with the notes & rhythm. I can sing it, but that would necessitate a telephone call, which your zoggies would probably forbid.

"Sex vs. Civilization" is much more cogent than "Why Civilizations Self-Destruct," for it addresses human evolution & means of possible improvement via eugenics, which Wayne rejects. Pendell posits two types of humanoids: Problem-Solvers & Problem-Makers. When Nature is nice, Problem-Makers outbreed Problem-Solvers & man deteriorates. When Nature is nasty, Problem-Solvers tend to survive, & Problem-Makers perish. Problem-Solvers create civilizations, which solve so many problems that Problem-Makers can survive & multiply, until they destroy civilization by sheer weight of their numbers & incompetence. Jews are parasites & predators, hence Problem-Makers, as are mud-peoples presently invading our livingospace. Pendell proposes paying Problem-Makers NOT to reproduce, as I understand to be Scandinavian policy in the 1930s. In other words, "Sex vs. Civilization" tells us why "Civilizations Self-Destruct," which describes the progress of self-destruction, rather than its causes.

Wayne's rejection of eugenics is on par with his rejection of race as important survival factors, on any planet which he may inhabit. Thus, Wayne is hopeless, but not serious. I therefore think he should argue with his previous statements, rather than with ours. By talking to himself, he'd save lots of postage, & by writing to us, he reveals the resounding lack of interest his 'religion' receives from his readership on the Internet. Haitians are definitely Problem-Makers who have ruined their country, & are coming to ruin ours, in the name of Christinsanity. Strength through Joy to you. ORION!
