Bilderberg Successes Equal Danger for U.S.

By James P. Tucker, Jr.

The Obama administration took a giant step toward world government November 19 when an American diplomat signaled the United States will recognize the International Criminal Court. Doing so would mean surrendering significant national sovereignty to a court that could imprison Americans against the will of the U.S. Supreme Court.

It is a major goal of Bilderberg, a secret organization of international financiers and political leaders led by banker David Rockefeller and the Rothschilds of Europe and Britain. U.S. "war crimes ambassador" Stephen Rapp became the first American to speak before the 110-nation Assembly of State Parties, which oversees the court's work and budget. He also held several bilateral meetings during his visit to The Hague.

Rapp, in a speech to the assembly, said the U.S. is committed to ending immunity for crimes against humanity. Such "crimes" include "hate speech," defined as words that may offend somebody, so global Thought Police could yank Americans off the street and try them in Copenhagen for exercising their First Amendment rights. The United Nations recently passed resolutions that would make "defaming" Islam a globally criminal act.

Meanwhile, on October 21, the new U.S. ambassador to Canada again reassured Canadians that President Obama's denunciation of the North America Free Trade Agreement during his campaign was merely political posturing and that he is committed to the agreement. NAFTA, which binds Mexico, the United States and Canada into a single, "borderless" community, is to expand, under Bilderberg dictates, throughout the Western Hemisphere and become the "American Union," similar to the European Union.

"Fundamentally, our view of NAFTA is that it is working very well," Ambassador David Jacobson told the Canadian American Business Council in Montreal. "It is working very well for all sides." He said Obama is a "strong believer" in free (as opposed to fair) trade.

Soon after the election, Obama's economic adviser, Austan Goolsbee, assured Georges Rioux, the Canadian consul-general in Chicago, that the president-elect's comments were just "political posturing," according to a memo written by a Canadian official who attended the meeting.

Bilderberg owns Obama. Obama received his orders at the spring meeting of Bilderberg in 2008. Bilderberg first met under that name in 1954 and high officials of the White House, the departments of State, Treasury, Commerce, Defense and others attend on a promise of absolute secrecy.

When the environment surfaced as a major issue in the 1990s, Bilderberg joined in, landing many huge contracts throughout Europe and North America, and perpetuated the myth of "global warming." (The Earth has actually cooled down in recent years, part of a normal cycle.) So Obama obediently announced on November 25 that he would attend a climate summit in Copenhagen. The motive was clearly explained by Christopher at pajamas media.com:

"This is what they did—the climate 'scientists' on whose unsupported word the world's classe politique proposes to set up an unelected global government this December in Copenhagen, with vast and unprecedented powers to control all formerly free markets, to tax wealthy nations and all their financial transactions to regulate the economic and environmental affairs of all nations, and to confiscate and extinguish all patent and intellectual property rights."

The draft to be considered in Copenhagen (paragraph 38, Annex 1) calls for a UN-created government responsible for taxation, enforcement and redistribution. The UN would administer a "world government possessing the authority to regulate and tax the American economy," wrote Jeffrey T. Kuhner, president of the Edmund Burke Institute. "The treaty is a sword aimed at the heart of our national sovereignty." ★

Since 1975 he has won widespread recognition, here and abroad, for his pursuit of on-the-scene stories reporting the intrigues of global power blocs such as the Bilderberg Group. Tucker is the author of Jim Tucker's Bilderberg Diary: One Man's 25-Year Battle to Shine the Light on the World Shadow Government. Bound in an attractive full-color softcover and containing 272 pages—loaded with photos, many never published before—the book recounts Tucker's experiences over the last quarter century at Bilderberg meetings. $25 from AFP. Hail Stevie! Many thanks for your letter of 27 April. By the dates of mailing & your receipt of my letters, it does seem that your zoggies are slow readers. Well, the more readers, the merrier, I say, as long as they finally do deliver them.

Brownest Yakima has been celebrating Mexican Reconquest alias their Cinco de Mayo (May 5th) festival, with lots of 'music,' speeches & a big, traffic-blocking parade of militant mestizos. That's their way of letting us Gringos know who's in charge now, but I already knew that, since my arrival here was like my arrival in any other Mexican town. ZOG's fix is in, on behalf of the Zionist Banksters' "North American Union," funded by the U.S. tax-payers, as if they can pay anything more than they are already paying! There's no way they can do that, Jose.

The Brits' jargon for instalment plan buying is "on the never-never." I don't know if that means they think they can have something & never pay for it. In reality, it means they will be paying for something & never own it. Judeo-American sheeple seem to believe that ZOG's policy of 'paying' for everything with money jews create out of nothing, & which accrues massive debt on every dollar, backed by the tax-payers, can continue forever, along with exportation of jobs to China & importation of jobless aliens to take the jobs that are left. But what happens when parasites are rewarded & productive people are penalized? The value of money is based on confidence, or trust, so just as productivity cannot be infinite on this finite planet, neither can the supply of money, especially if that money represents only the need of the borrower & the greed of the lender, which makes it a con-game. Ideally & realistically, money should represent productivity, as a means of exchange. Bankster inflation & deflation attack the money supply, so as to rob the productive workers, as occurs here, & which has become particularly severe in Greece, where people are expected to pay the banksters for their successful swindles, by lowering their already low standard of living. This bankster policy sparked the so-called "American Revolution," which wound up as a banksters' revolution & remains so today, under ZOG.

A correspondent informs me that he saw large numbers of Hammer & Sickle flags amongst the Greek protestors, which indicates that the Goy sheeple have fallen into the jews' "right-left" trap of assuming that Judeo-Communism is the antidote to Judeo-Capitalism, when it's just the left or righthand of the same beast, as our Republican & Democratic parties, so there is no real opposition to bankster policies. Amerigoyim should learn from their experience of voting for "peace candidates" like Woodrow Wilson & Franklin Roosevelt, who spoke of peace & worked for war, which economist Werner Sombart defines as "the jews' harvests." I recall President Lyndon Johnson promising NOT to escalate the Vietnam War, "contrary" to that "warmonger candidate" Goldwater, so it was jew Johnson versus jew Goldwater. Johnson increased U.S. involvement in Indochina, just as Goldwater advocated, minus the use of nuclear weapons. ZOG's latest "peace candidate," Obama, is continuing Bush's disastrous wars on behalf of Israel, much to the dismay of the Goy voters, who never seem to learn. Well, how can they, if they refuse to see who's in the driver's seat of government? The jew money mafia, for whom their government stooges toil.

It's funny that the jews who said Hitler was jewish trip up on their own lies, for if Hitler were jewish, then a jew would be responsible for the "Holocaust." Thus, jews should pay "reparations" to jews, rather than Germans & Americans. Of course, Christian mythology claims that the jews condemned Jesus & the Romans slew him on the cross, so no matter what jews do, "Goyim" must pay & bear the guilt. How interesting & how absurd! Jews' religions are basically "guilt-trips" aimed at exploiting their believers.

Congratulations on your knowledge of the jewsmedia, who are best avoided, as you say, for they will do THEIR best to show you in the worst possible light.

Yes, the "Christian Militia" appears to be victims of their own folly & some pro-ZOG finks. Will our ZOG help them to "meet their Jesus" sooner than they intended? Stay tuned.

I was gratified to receive a download from <http://www.realoathkeepers.org> in the form of a short book by Adam Austin entitled "Subverted Nation's Basic Training for Revolutionaries." He included lots of information on the jews' role & their intentions of exterminating the White Race on this planet, with all means at their disposal, including their chief weapon: Deception. The author summed up much of what I've learned over decades, from many sources, so it was good to see it included in one fairly brief work, from someone other than myself.

I'm glad to learn that your loved ones on the homefront are as well as can be in this current jew depression.

I did not know Eugene Terreblanche personally, but I heard he got his inspiration from 2 sources: Bible & bottle, neither of which serves Our Race. Strength through Joy. ORION!
