

The concept of "the good" as depicted in The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, around 1896, likely composed by Zionist founder, Theodor Herzl. In Judaism, "good" emanates from evil. Such a deal. Such a sham!

In all that has so far been reported by me to you, I have endeavoured to depict with care the secret of what is coming, of what is past, and of what is going on now, rushing into the flood of the great events coming already in the near future, the secret of our relations to the goyim and of financial operations. On this subject there remains still a little for me to add.

In our hands is the greatest power of our day—gold: in two days we can procure from our storehouses any quantity we may please.

Surely there is no need to seek further proof that our rule is predestined by God? Surely we shall not fail with such wealth to prove that all that evil which for so many centuries we have had to commit has served at the end of ends the cause of true well-being—the bringing of everything into order? Though it be even by the exercise of some violence, yet all the same it will be established. We shall contrive to prove that we are benefactors who have restored to the rent and mangled earth the true good and also freedom of the person, and therewith we shall enable it to be enjoyed in peace and quiet, with proper dignity of relations, on the condition, of course, of strict observance of the laws established by us. We shall make plain therewith that freedom does not consist in dissipation and in the right of unbridled license any more than the dignity and force of a man do not consist in the right of everyone to promulgate destructive principles in the nature of freedom of conscience, equality and the like, that freedom of the person in no wise consists in the right to agitate oneself and others by abominable speeches before disorderly mobs, and that true freedom consists in the inviolability of the person who honourably and strictly observes all the laws of life in common, that human dignity is wrapped up in consciousness of the rights and also of the absence of rights of each, and not wholly and solely in fantastic imaginings about the subject of one's ego.

Our authority will be glorious because it will be all-powerful, will rule and guide, and not muddle along after leaders and orators shrieking themselves hoarse with senseless words which they call great principles and which are nothing else, to speak honestly, but utopian. . . . Our authority will be the crown of order, and in that is included the whole happiness of man. The aureole of this authority will inspire a mystical bowing of the knee before it and a reverent fear before it of all the peoples. True force makes no terms with any right, not even with that of God: none dare come near to it so as to take so much as a span from it away.

Protocol No. 23

Reduction of the manufacture of articles of luxury. Small master production. Unemployment. Prohibition of drunkenness. Killing out of the old society and its resurrection in a new form. The chosen one of God.

That the peoples may become accustomed to obedience it is

30 MAY 2010

Hail Clinton: Many thanks for yours of 26 May 2010. I always appreciate your letters. Anti-jew sentiment began a long time ago, whenever jews occupied a host people's country. "Anti-Semitism" is incorrect, like so many words jews use, for a Semite is an Arab. Ashkenazi jews never were Arabs, & race does not equal religion. Non-Arabs follow Semitic religions like Judaism, Christianity & Islam, but that does not make them into Arabs. The true anti-Semite is one who kills Arabs, which qualifies the jews as the foremost anti-Semites.

In Russia, before jew-Communism, nationalism was included with Pan-Slavism, with the Tsar seen as potential leader of the Slavs. Jews were not Slavs, so they were excluded from Russian nationalism. Other nationalities were subjects of the Russian Empire, as were the Khazars, i.e. Askenazim, which they became after they converted to Judaism around 700 A.D. Russian nationalists, to my knowledge, supported the Tsars, who were seen as leaders of the Russians & the other Slavic peoples.

As I recall, Tsar Alexander II offended the jew banksters by supporting Lincoln's USA in the Civil War, by sending units of the Russian Atlantic & Pacific fleets to protect U.S. territory from foreign invaders, such as the French. If a jew did not assassinate Alexander II, it was the jews who wanted it done, & they were the chief beneficiaries, just as the jew Federal Reserve profitted from the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in 1964, when they took over all U.S. paper money. The Russians knew who had killed their Tsar, so they would logically take revenge on the jews. Against whom was the uprising in Russia? Not against the Tsar nor his successor, to my knowledge.

Russian nationalism consisted, as I understand, of the Russian people, their Tsar & their Russian or Greek Orthodox Church, whose headquarters was formerly in Constantinople, before the Turkish invasion of Byzantine Greece. Thus did Russian nationalism want to retake Constantinople & also the Dardanelles which connected the Mediterranean with the Black Sea. Russian nationalists also wanted a warm water seaport for year-round shipping. These had been Russian objectives in The Crimean War & the First World War. As far as I know, they remain as Russian goals today, after jew-Communism. Good luck to them!

The Zionist movement was supported by the Rothschild banksters who funded Theodor Herzl's book, "The Jewish State." Basel, Switzerland, was a jew-bankster country, so it was a good place to hold the first Zionist World Conference, where The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion were allegedly read &/or handed out. Yes, world Zionism is still around, with few variations in name, if any. Palestine was under the Turkish Empire, so Swiss law did not apply where the jews intended to go.

Jews argue that The Protocols were "a forgery." Well, then, a forgery of what original document? A counterfeit dollar bill is a forgery, since it is made to look like a real dollar bill, but in order to have a forgery, there must have been a dollar bill in the first place. So where are the 'real' Protocols? I think they were published as they appear today. Henry Ford spent lots of real money to research their truthfulness, & he concluded that "They fit" the facts of present & past. Yes, they do, & we ignore them at our peril, for they are a recipe for what the jews will do to us, if we let them, which we are doing right now. The Protocols reveal to us WHO is doing us wrong, HOW they are doing it & WHY they are doing it to us. How much more do we need to know?

Other jews claim that there was no author's name on The Protocols, so they are "invalid." I see no author's name on my telephone directory, so it may be a "forgery," but all the numbers so far match the names I look up. How does accuracy occur in a "forged work of fiction?" Anyone who does historical research can determine that The Protocols are neither fiction, nor a forgery, since they fit the facts.

Henry Ford was attempting to convert the jews into Christians, as one of his hobbies, so he & his wife were unpleasantly surprised at the jews' terrorism. Maybe Henry thought the jews were not so serious in their plans. Surprise, indeed! Well, the jews took over The Ford Foundation, so they have the last laugh on Ford & his heirs. It takes ruthless determination to thwart ruthless & determined opponents. Ford had neither. Too bad for the Goyim (Gentiles) of the USA. I understand that Ford gave away complete sets of "The International Jew" with every car he sold. I guess the stupid Goyim used the books for seat cushions. I've never met anyone of that generation who admits to reading The Protocols, so Ford was casting the proverbial pearls before swine, without realizing the risk he was taking. At least those of us with brains can appreciate his effort, if not his motives.

Colleagues of mine have informed me that Ford's car company was in bad shape during the jew depression, so he made a deal with the jews: He would not support Lindbergh for president if the jews would take over his Model A assembly line. Such a patriot. NOT. ORION! 