

EXPOSING AN ECCLESIASTICAL EXTORTION RACKET by E. Thomson

There are no big secrets, for they are 'hidden' in plain sight, like the Federal Reserve Racket, or an elephant in a telephone booth. Such items cannot be dismissed as 'conspiracies', for they are policies which are conducted in the open. The victims of these rackets are generally called Goyim, who'd rather not see such scams because of their greatness, which scares the wee, timorous beasties. All rackets require the co-operation of their victims for the benefit of a criminal minority. Thus it is with the old Satan/Yahweh scam.

As we know, Satan is the source of all evil, although he was created by Yahweh, who was 'all-knowing', & thus knew what Satan would do before he did it. In criminal law, Yahweh would be found guilty of creating "all evil", just as it does for one who pays another to commit murder on his behalf. Yes, Yahweh would be held responsible for what he did, unless his lawyer could prove that he was insane, which is adequately supported by words & deeds attributed to Yahweh in The Old Testament. Satan & Yahweh are just as much partners as the fabled Adam & Eve. Jesus ben Yahweh is odd man or god out, since he served as a jewish scape-goat during his fabled life on Earth, & he promises 'redemption' only in the alleged after-life. Thus it is in this jewish mythology that Satan & Yahweh are demonic deities of the here & now. Officially, Jesus is absent from earthly affairs, pending his fabled 'return', so he is 'out to lunch' for purposes of the here & now. That leaves us with Satan/Yahweh on Earth.

It is almost impossible to get Goyim to attend to anything beyond their immediate physical needs of consuming & excreting, but Hurricane Katrina (rhymes with Latrina) did get the attention of some. The preachers-for-profit were notably focussed on the material needs of the survivors, rather than their spiritual needs for understanding the disaster in terms of jewish mythology. Isn't this odd on the part of creatures who otherwise love to tell us not to worry about our wallets, but how we shall fare in the fabled 'afterlife', depending on the amount of zogbucks we give them?

To my knowledge, only one preacher in the disaster area mentioned "God's will" in terms of the hurricane & its victims. Perhaps the dead were all 'raptured'. Obituaries allege that so & so was now "in heaven, with Jesus (ben Yahweh)", so death is allegedly "good", regardless of cause. The alleged presence of Satan is hypocritically deleted in these proceedings, for preachers used to prate that Satan was always around, to lead us to hell, & that the chances of hell were much greater than the chances of heaven, as Yahweh wills it. In other words, Yahweh, who is "all good", prefers that the majority of his creatures join up with Satan, who is "all bad" & "The source of all evil." Biblical bamboozlers are themselves befuddled about Hurricane Katrina: was she "good" or "evil", or maybe a combination of both, as in the combination of Satan & Yahweh? In other words, the hurricane occurred as divine or diabolic will, & maybe both. Since Yahweh, the alleged creator of everything, has his own mythical scheme or scam for all events which occur in past, present & future, the selfish prayers of those who claim to believe in this mythology are, in effect, SINS of blasphemy, by willfully seeking to undo Satan/Yahweh's will. "Ignorance of the law is no excuse."

The kosher conundrum in this religious extortion racket is also obvious: If "good" is the opposite of "evil", then how can evil result from good? The Zoroastrians did not seek to abuse language, as did the jews, since their theology claims that "good" (Ormazd) & "evil" (Ahriman) came into existence on their own, neither being created by the other. In this religion, Ormazd created Man to help him, so humans were not the products of "original sin", as alleged in jew scripture. Few jewish rackets can do without their "guilt-trips", based on real or imagined "sins", as well as their "holocausts" or ritual sacrifices of real or imagined people. The real sacrifices are the Gentile (Goy) "animals" & the fake sacrifices are The Children of The Father of Lies, as befits them.

The message of Judeo-Christianity is perverse, as well as the behavior which stems therefrom. Any belief which sacrifices the innocent on behalf of the guilty is indeed perverse, if not perverted, including the forgiveness of evil-doers. The secular manifestations of this kosher cult are seen in our present policy of coddling 'certain' criminals, who are deemed most in need of tender, loving care, instead of immediate execution, allegedly because of their alleged impairments, as in young, dumb &/or insane. Thus it is that I advise all bible-bangers to pray FOR Satan to their god, Yahweh, since Satan would 'need' tender, loving care most of all. Why pray for little evil-doers, when one can pray for the alleged source of all evil? If all evil in this world is caused by Satan, then there is only one for whom all prayers should be dedicated. Were Yahweh willing to grant suffering humanity this prayer, then he & his creature, Satan, could kiss & make up, & hang up their ecclesiastical extortion racket!
