

GENDER DISCRIMINATION IN HIGHER 'EDJEWICATION'? by E. Thomson

This toxic tidbit appeared on NPR jewsradio on 11-11-09, rather than ZOG'S favorite date of 9-11, but it merits our attention. A feminist organization alleges that federal funding based on pro-female discrimination in colleges be curtailed if colleges are found to discriminate in favor of "less-qualified" male admissions, despite the apparent preponderance of female students therein.

As I listened, I wondered who these less-qualified college males might be. As I understand, males are admitted on "athletic scholarships," with dubious academic qualifications, so college sports teams may be competitive & lucrative, toward entertainment for the Goyim. "Affirmative action" racial quotas are known to discriminate in favor of less-qualified mestizos & Blacks, about which many Asians & even some Whites have complained. I guess the feds object to discrimination which favors males of all colors, rather than females of same.

The feminist spokesbitch opined that college admissions officials may think that a few male students amid a majority of females would somehow feel disadvantaged in their learning. This raises the heresy that males are different from females in some way! "Sexism" enters the picture. Oy veh! Hey, zoggies, can't you keep your lies straight?

It may seem funny, but I never thought about the gender content of my college classes, since my subjects were not labelled "For Females only," or "For Males only." Physics was gender-neutral; history & anthropology had their male & female stars & villains. But I was too interested in my subjects to do a gender census of my classmates. Sorry! I leave it to feminists to accuse others of "Sexism." I am a male White Nationalist, but I recognize accomplishments on the part of females & non-Whites when such occur. After all, the greatest female film director of the 20th century was Leni Riefenstahl, so I even recognize achievements by Nazi females. How's that for being broad-minded?

The kosher conundrum I see in ZOG's talmudic logic is zoggies' insistence that we are all "equal," but some are "more equal" than others; that men & women are different, so they must be treated the same, but with notable exceptions. On many fronts we see special rights touted as "equal rights," so the losers won't feel victimized, or they will be precluded from saying they are victims.

Under ZOG we now have privileged ("protected") groups who may not be discriminated against as they exercise their privileges of discrimination against other groups. If I hit a Black in self-defense, I may be guilty of a "hatecrime," but if a Black hits me, he is unlikely to be charged with such a neo-offense. Whatever happened to assault & battery? This is another example of ZOG's absurdity & hypocrisy: "Race is a non-issue" unless we choose to make it so, depending on the race of those involved in an incident.

Cognitive dissonance is a major weapon in psy-ops alias psychological warfare, as Orwell noted in "1984," in which the dictatorship of Big Brother demands that all subjects agree to such slogans as "War is Peace," "Freedom is Slavery," &c., or face prosecution for thought-crime, as in most Zionist Occupied countries today.

Today, I heard again Obama's lie that religions do not preach violence. Only 'twisted' extremists do that in the name of their religions. I guess Obama never read The Old Testament of the jew-book, with all its righteous tales of deception, conquest & murder. I guess the preaching of violence is denied all cults except for that of the jews & their stooges' use of guns to impose "democracy." Again, we see our Zionist rulers' lies, absurdities & hypocrisy, if we still have eyes & ears to perceive them in their blatant evidence.

Some Goyim do see the contradictions in their Old Testament beliefs & their worship of Zionism, for the Zionists promote abortion & homosexuality. Yet, they believe that the jews are "God's chosen people." Poor bemused, befuddled Goyim, adrift in a sea of absurdity, as they drown in the quicksand of dishonesty & corruption, like the biblical Egyptians. When our jew parasites alight on their new hosts, they will whine about their "American slavery."

Why should they invent new rackets when the old ones still work?

Zoggies like Clinton & Obama tout themselves as "agents of change." They don't tell the Goy sheeple that change occurs automatically, & that some changes are better or worse than others. Of course, they would never tell the truth, that they are agents of change for the worse, as they so obviously are. With all its absurdities meant to bemuse us, & its contending parties & politicians, ZOG has one primary goal: Death to Whites. As simple as it is our fundamental question remains: To be or not to be, Whitey. Our Race Is Our Nation! Down with ZOG!
