

SOME SNIPPETS OF ZOG-ZAPPERS' TIDBITS by E.T.

DUMB-DA-DUMB-DUMB! The latest rumor has it that a certain buxom, brainless bimba wants all Americans to enjoy their "Mammorial Day Week End". But that's not as consistently stupid as FEDZOGUSA's recent foot-in-mouth attacks regarding Iraq & Afghanistan et al. I call it "The Monty Python Denial Syndrome." Blunder #1 has been the ZOG's lack of censorship in regard to matters which seriously damage the ZOG's image & credibility, such as the Abu Ghraib photos & now, the tales of Koran-desecration. Blunder #2 is the lame denials which amount to admissions of guilt, & merely serve to support the previous admissions, such as we have seen in regard to both incidents. Osama bin Laden could not even wish for the damage the ZOG inflicts upon itself, for ZOG has done him much better than he could do himself. The results of the above-mentioned blunders not only discredit the ZOG & its American stooges, but they inflame Moslems & others who were already angry about ZOG-doings in their living-space. In regard to the Abu Ghraib photos, had ZOG been doing a proper job in its commission of evil, it would have stopped the picture-taking in the prison which it allegedly controlled. Once the pictures were public, ZOG should have said they were "faked", which is easily done with modern digital technology. No mercenary minions or zoglings should have been scape-goated, for the scenes depicted "never happened." But the ZOG is extremely stupid, folks. This means it can be defeated, even with its own strength. Further, the ZOG is basically a conspiracy, which is prone to disruption on the part of the diverse opinions & interests of those who largely go along with ZOG-policies. Those who live from diversity may well die of it.

The desecration of the Koran at Guantanamo, as conveyed by Jewsworld, sounds similar to a Holohoax tale, in which a Koran was allegedly flushed down a toilet. If the book, which is about the size of a bible, as I recall, were put in any ordinary toilet, it could not pass down the drainpipe, & if it did, it would certainly plug the toilet. If it were shredded first, it might pass through the plumbing without incident, but even that would take care on the part of the flusher. In poker, there are Royal Flushes, but at Guantanamo, there was supposedly one Holy Flush. Since ZOG denies the Holy Flush, but admits 'lesser' desecrations of The Koran, its enemies will not be assuaged. Dumb-da-dumb-dumb.

Jewradio is not all bad. On May 27th, 05, NPR admitted that Israel supplies China with military goodies, which FEDZOGUSA objects to, because of ZOG's growing animosity against the Chinese claim to Taiwan, &c. Methinks 'our' ZOG has too many irons in the fire, so we are most likely to get burned. In that case, will our version of Nero start taking fiddle lessons? Stay tuned! DOWZ! & ORION!

U.S.A.: The Land of Litigation: With the arrival of thousands of real Indians, that is folks from India, what copyright will the fake "Indians" so dubbed by Columbus have to their bogus "Indian" title? Will they admit their true identity as Amerásians? Moreover, Indians from India whose offspring are born in the U.S.A. would also be "natives", as are any people born on this continent. I am, after all, "a Native American", but I am not Indian nor "Indian", as the case may be. So sue me, but don't Siou x me! E.T.
