

THE ZOG'S CHILDREN by Eric Thomson. Living as I do in a polywog, mulatto, sambo, mestizo, anti-White area, next to a big Amerasian-mestizo "Nation" or Reservation, I am truly experiencing the ZOG's version of an "All-American city". Ostensible Whites (O.W.s) here are typical anti-White lemmings, who think nothing of selling their futures and those of their children for a moment of relative peace or a few zogbucks toward their hand-to-mouth, debt-slaves' existence. Their lives are fraught with hurry, worry and chaos, with a tawdry cast of wives, ex-wives, girlfriends, boyfriends, ex-husbands et al., along with the gaggles of motley brats, which are the by-product of their mindless couplings. As I gather from observing this typical cross-section of North American society, these children, whom I call ZOG-tots, can be of any chronological age, but for now, I shall merely address those who are legally minors. The ZOG-tot is a menace to himself, to others, to his society and above all, a menace to his parents or parent. He is the child of parents who are themselves children. He is often of mixed race, resembling neither of his biological parents, who are neither willing nor able to provide him with desirable examples to emulate. Perhaps this is why he emulates the bad examples, and adopts the ooga-booga values of the worst Blacks, which consist of noisy, nasty promiscuity and predation. The jewsmedia of education, entertainment and information constantly promote these values and lifestyles. In ZOG indoctrination centers, which are euphemised as "day-care centers" or "schools", the ZOG-tot associates with bullies, gang-bangers, disease-spreaders and dope-pushers, while he receives his disinformation from his so-called teachers. Most children soon become properly dysfunctional in this dysfunctional society, so their own parents learn to fear them, their friends, their diseases and, most of all, the constant threat that they will denounce their parents to the ZOG, which programs them with suitable nomenclature for their prosecution. "Child-abuse" is a catchall term which covers a spectrum of complaints running from gentle chiding to drawing and quartering. Under ZOG, the parent has 100% responsibility for the child, and zero authority, which is deemed "child-abuse". Since the jews are stirring up this mess, we can foresee the outcome here, based on what they achieved in Russia, from 1917 to the present. The kosher commissars of the soviet regime believed that Goy families were a threat to their new, jew state. Parents might contradict the jew-bolsheviks' indoctrination and 'one-world' propaganda at home. The jew solution was to smash the home and remove the children from their parents, as soon as possible. In Russia, their scheme of family-destruction was compulsory. Here, the victims comply voluntarily, but the results are quite the same: the children are alienated from their parents, just as Jesus desired, for he declared that he'd come to turn "father against son", etc. After all, bolshevism borrowed much of its platform from Marx, who borrowed it from Christianity. Jews preached atheism and collectivism to their Goy subjects, but they retained their rights to religion, family and property under the soviet system, just as Bakunin the anarchist foresaw. The destruction of Russian family life which was the outcome of war and bolshevik policies produced roving rabbles of promiscuous, diseased, predatory children, which the bolsheviks themselves had to round up and shoot, so they could achieve their systematic exploitation of their productive Goy victims and subjects. The jew recipe has never varied, although the results are not always to the jews' liking: they are congenital terrorists. Thus did the Russian Goyim experience first the terrors of chaos, then the systematic regime of terror under bolshevik rule. Rule-by-terror was first enunciated by the jew, "Lenin", then implemented by the jew, "Stalin", who was the model for Orwell's Big Brother. "Lenin" said that The Terror was necessary because the Russian Goyim were "damned wantless people". If want could not make them work, then fear and the whip would. Here in North America, the Goyim work, to the jews' delight, because they want everything, even things they have no time to use or enjoy! Although the motivations for the Russian Goyim and the North American Goyim are different, the results are much the same: a growing tax burden and a growing prison population, and 'best' of all, a growing personal and public debt! The outcome of jew misrule over Russia is squalor, crime and poverty. In North America, the Goyim have only their toys to distract them from the growing squalor, crime and poverty here.

Thus it is that the ZOG-tot, of whatever age, is a decadent savage who is utterly dependent on White Civilization for his survival, but who is utterly ignorant, arrogantly ignorant of that fact!
