Dear Mr. Linder:

March 22 of this year marks the 91st anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. by the Israeli Mossad. Enclosed is an article by Ronce Sterling and also the Jewish take on this ugly deed, "Frontline" (Yiddline), 12 Feb. 1991.

Yiddline's production 12 Feb., 1991 showed Babb's casket being carried out of a Catholic Church after funeral rites, with a large crucifix on top of it; but when the Jews repeated this production months later that part was omitted. It would be nice if you marked this anniversary for your readers.

Also, Jas. Petras published Zionism, Militarism and the decline in U.S. Power, in 2008, and said (p46) that a Blue Ribbon Congressional Panel investigated the Israeli attack on the USS Liberty, 40 years after it happened, and found Israel guilty of a deliberate brazen act. He adds that no print or broadcast mention of the Israeli action occurred. How is that for demonstrating absolute power?

Did you pick up anything on this panel?

Best regards,
HJR
