Genocracy

Should we assist the break up of Britain?

To sincere patriots of Western civilisation in "Britain".

You say your not "Anti-Irish" .

The problem is if you say "Ulster stays British" your taking an inherently anti-Irish position and contradicting yourself.

Best to be neutral and condemn both sides in Ulster. What use have the Loyalists ever been anyway?

Its not even useful as a tactic to pretend to support them , even to the slightest degree.

Equality for all White ethnic groups ,self-determination and territorial justice for all.

In a word GENOCRACY.

We demand self determination for all Whites collectively and also separately as ethnic groups , cutting across present borders.

There are many injust situations across Europe.

These are a legacy of Zog , we should destroy Zog and not let ourselves be distracted by them.

We want control of the Western world back from Jewish supremacists and their collaborators . All power to the cultural guardians of the Western civilisation.

This should be the position for all White nationalist groups everywhere.

There are plenty of Brits in Ireland , here to escape multiculturalism.Nationalism in Britain is going nowhere. The BNP is signed on to the system's dole racism, hatred of muslims. That will never go anywhere.Come over to Ireland and help me instead.

Hollywood has used the Irish thing to sculpt the British self image to Zog's liking, "oh ye can be bigoted towards the Germans but don't go off like those Russians and thinking because ye won the war yer pe , oh no etc".

I think its a historical mistake that the British parties took sides in the Ulster conflict .

Its a difficult thing , like the German Polish question and many others.

Maybe that "mistake" was planned. Maybe the British "White nationalists" were manipulated to be some of the shocktroops of ZOG and make fools of themselves on the Ulster issue in the same way as the BNP is now transparently being manipulated on the Muslim issue.

Territorial irredentism and ethnic self-determination are too different issues but we often see them mixed hypocritically.

Sinn Fein for example plead the injustice of denial of self-determination for the Irish in Ulster. Then in a non-sequitur they jump to a 32 county Ireland.

Similarly the Unionist case is hand wavy. They don't want to be in the mickey mouse southern neocolonialist state, fine , but why the need to force half the population to be British against their will?

White Nationalism is the cure. But it has to be pure White Nationalism.

Petty state xenophobia isn't White nationalism.

Ireland left the "Union" a while back but has gone and joined another Union with Britain , the EU.

That is true, the Irish are forced to be British against their will. If the Irish are British then "British" does not describe a nationality .

Its rather a mini-imperial identity.

Issues like Ulster , Corsica etc will need to be resolved

AFTERWARDS.

Some kind of conference when we have POWER.

Most of Europe hates British people . They consider the English to have pig manners. Sorry but its true.

Nobody really outside of Ulster can tell the difference between one side or the other.

Its a fact that Britain gave up all her empire except for the bits where Whites were affected. The Falklands etc.

It would be best for the British PEOPLES for Britain to be broken up as it would weaken the ZOG , which relies militarily on the English speaking countries.

Austria is German, Alsace are German, Holland is more German than Scotland is English.

Lets redraw the map of Europe afterwards .

Inter-White conflict is something that is sponsored by enemy agents. Thats why Sinn Fein are PC .

I'd advise anyone who wants to help build nationalism in the British Isles to move to Ireland and help me build my party here.

If the Ulster Scots ask for self determination , then that would be within White Nationalism ideologically.

Asking to dominate other Whites isn't .

Similarly the Irish have a territorial demand. A compromise they could make would be for the return of the majority Irish areas of Ulster and that any Ulster state would be outside of Britain.

It makes a farce of Irish "independence " that there is such Britzog military power on the island.

Its a mistake to conflate the genuine feeling of the Irish people about Ulster with the Sinn Fein subversion of the situation.

We use terms like "British " or "Irish" but these are basically euphenisms for White in whatever satrapy of ZOG we find ourselves in.

Don't take the badges too seriously and don't let them be used as covers for infiltration .

We see also the likes of Johnjewtree pretending to take the ZOGIrish side to gain the support of our patriotards.

This is a common thing. The Zog creates chaos and then profits from it , using it to split its victims further.

Both Britain and Ireland are politically dead . Power does not operate on this level anymore.

We're living in an era of the crackpot racial ideology of Multiculturalism.

The media uses the old dead identities to label anything White but is quick enough to use the term White itself whenever it can to inflict guilt or whatever in its psywar.

Our own cowards hide behind the old petty state form one minute , "humanity" the next. Any excuse to avoid their real political identity. Politics is activity in relation to power.

Ireland's not independent today .It's being used as bait to lure poor eastern European countries into the EU. When that use is over the factories will decamp to there or China.

Ireland's economy is only growing in the sense that a pig being reared for slaughter is growing .

Bertie is a vile zogling. He sneers at the public with every word.

The golden rule is "DON'T SPLIT THE WHITE RACE".

The weaker the British state is the stronger the British peoples are.

So why the pretense? Why the double think ?

Down with the UNION, down with the Queen and down with ZOG.

Also Britain has been responsible for so many wars in the last few centuries that the rest of us want some p and q . If Germany can be broken up, if Prussia wiped off the map then the end of the union with Scotland and Ireland isn't too much to ask for, thanks.

Can a British nationalist be a White nationalist at all? considering that Britain has been one of the worst enemies the White race has ever had?

Will anyone show me a royal family tree? Eric Thomson is always on about Jews in the royal family tree, mentions something about the Lyons tea family .

Is it Britannia or Brith'annia? Jordan Maxwell says in all seriousness what I said as a joke .That the word Britain is derived from Bnai'Brith.

The Scots want out. There are the fake nationalists there ,the SNP , they perform a similar function to Sinn Fein : diverting real national feeling , that could be a danger to the system, away from politically real goals .

Scottish separatism is a card that should be played by the real opposition .

Our aim should be real progress against the system , not telling patriotards what they want to hear.

Forget your 32 county Ireland, forget your Union.

To worry about such trivia today is to betray your nations.

To propagate such to recruit patriotards is only spreading blightwingism.

Fantacists have never been any use defending the nation against the real political threats of the day . Patriotards bring use nothing but patriotardism and blightwingism.

Puncture the systems ideology and don't pay attention to this accursed modrnist BNP and all its strange fish like Andy Robertson.

Its one thing Fini's party talking nonsense about the Jews. Italians are flexible. They will change their line tomorrow, everyone of them knows its BS. Britain has more collective guilt , it was largely responsible for the Jewish order being foisted on the world and this philosemite stuff won't wash.

I propose the ORION constellation on a blue field as the flag for all Whites and the principle of self-determination for all White ethnic groups be adopted as universal precepts among the various resistance groups .

The banality of evil

Pat Kenny and RTE represent the banality of evil. Evil is boring , retarded.

Everyone complains that there is nothing on TV . Well one of these days there will be plenty on TV.

I walked into my local post office to send a letter to Russia this morning. What do I see? A nigress!
She didn't even know how to put the correct postage on the letters.

I sometimes get text messages from supporters when something particularly egregious is on RTE.

This morning they had some woman demanding public funds to educate her autistic child.

Apparently autism is linked to having babies by old men. Again the ancient Greeks and their wisdom shines out. The Spartans encouraged married women to have sex with younger men. The children were thought healthier.

They didn't have science to tell them why this was good, but they had healthy instincts.

Our sick women consider it ok to abort healthy babies and to further burden society by demanding that their rejects have special attention. They don't understand the system, can't intellectualise what is going on, but these sick women know what they can and can't do as surely as if the code was written into their neurons in C++.

Our civilisation has been debased, even before the 20th century. Spengler considered Western civilisation to be something different from the Classical.

Every "citizen" imagines they are semite in chief and can order the rest around. This is not something we found in the classical, which was easy going.

The semitic memes must be purged from our civilisation, if we can still call it that. We see so many old people abandoned and left lonely in their old age.

We need complete renaissance. Total truth.

They say that in politics that honesty is a weakness. Then let's embrace this kind of weakness.

The masses can only appreciate totality. Be totally different and the mass mind will register you.

I have a different theory of the mass mind than the BNP.

I don't believe we will be able to outstrip the Neojews.

I saw an American army general on the TV this morning sounding like a Talmud scholar about the Saddam execution. "He was under our total control but not in our legal custody" etc.

This American was a gentile but culturally he was radiating Jewish memes.

This is his political identity , he is a Neojew , regardless of his Dna.

The mass mind sees big contrasts only. It was through this that it absorbed big lies. It sees the Negro is different for example. It accepts that as input. What it does with that input depends on the controller. The mass mind is like a computer in ways.

Remember money is theft. Theft of wealth . The Fed distorts the entire world economy.

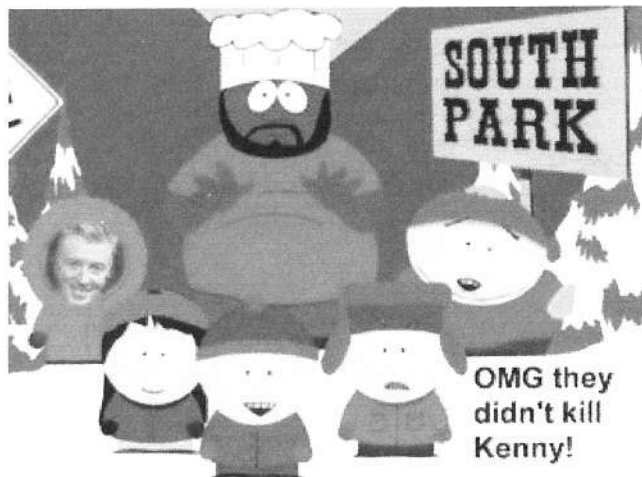

Here is a flag I designed.

ORION.

<http://portland.indymedia.org/en/2006/11/349934.shtml>

"During an appearance in late October on Ireland's Pat Kenny radio show, a popular national program broadcast daily on Ireland's RTE Radio, we were asked as the opening question if Israel could be compared to Nazi Germany. Not across the board, we said, but there are certainly some aspects of Israel's policy toward the Palestinians that bear a clear resemblance to the Nazis' oppression. Do you mean the wall, Kenny prompted, and we agreed, describing the ghettoization and other effects of this monstrosity. Before we could elaborate on other Nazi-like features of Israel's policies, Kenny moved on to another question. Within minutes, while we were still on the air, a producer handed Kenny a note, which we later learned was a request from the newly arrived Israeli ambassador to Ireland to appear on the show, by himself. Several days later, on the air by himself, the ambassador pronounced us and our comparisons of Israeli and Nazi policies "outrageous." "

I noticed that as I read left wing sites , although the Irish indymedia is dominated by bigoted fanatics who do not believe in free speech. It shows the surprising direct imput of Zionists into Rte's propaganda.

Recently Pat Kenny has had some trouble from a lunatic called Paul Stokes. Sadly this man is not a rational dissident but another of the rising percentage of insane. Pat and his filthy RTE are waging psywar against the people resulting in many deranged and depressed people.

As ye sow so shall ye reap.

Would the Poles or the Russians put up with a Pat Kenny?
He is paid about a million to spew his multiculti garbage out over the airwaves.

Racial Equality

Listen to me now and listen to me good.
I despise these "modernisers " who are taking the immigration issue and delivering it gift wrapped to the Zionist racial hate propaganda machine.
We are about racial interest not racial hatred as our enemies claim.

"Racial equality", "Multiculturalism" these are propaganda terms.

Token poor Whites are thrown to the Nonwhites so that they will let themselves be exploited by the elite.
The Bourgeoise , lets call our inverts by that term, are happy to throw the lower class of Whites into the furnace of a political engine.
We are consuming part of our own tribe as fuel.
First into this propaganda holocaust are the intellectuals, the inventors , the people who made civilisation in the first place.

Those of us who are the cultural guardians, the natural elite , of the West, and indeed the world are called Nazis , a strawman argument, and subjected to a bombardment of adhomineum.
The masses don't even know what the word adhomineum means but they understand in their hearts that they fear the media.

The racemixing does not deliver any equality to the nonwhites . It does not improve their situation, no it makes the general lot of humanity worse.
