VNN'S ALEX LINDER ARRESTED!

Protest Against Brutal Black-on-White Murders Leads To Civil Disobedience

Vanguard News Network publisher Alex Linder was arrested May 25, 2007, and charged with disorderly conduct, assault, resisting arrest, and vandalism after he refused to allow the Knoxville, Tennessee police to limit the location of a planned demonstration against black on white racial violence.

Carrying a sign reading "Diversity = Death" and announcing his website, VNNForum.com, Linder struggled with police officers who came to arrest him after he engaged in a planned act of civil disobedience by crossing police lines.

While Tennessee and Knoxville law do not require white activists to seek a permit before holding a demonstration, Knoxville police, fearing "violence" from Jewish-financed communist counter demonstrators, erected barriers and metal detectors and attempted to compel Linder to pass through them. Such measures are illegal and un-Constitutional in some jurisdictions, while legal and Constitutional in others, due to a split in the US Appeals Courts that has not been rectified by a Supreme Court decision.

Linder had refused to seek a permit for this rally or cooperate with Knoxville authorities in organizing it, pointing out that Jewish and anti-white groups are not subject to the same restrictions on speech and activities.

Linder's arrest and the subsequent ANSWP action against columnist Leonard Pitts of the Miami Herald (see page 4) forced a Chicago Tribune article on the Christian / Newsome murders.

A second rally in Knoxville that featured queer "white" activist Jamie Kelso of Stormfront, was called to divert attention from Linder's efforts, but was boycotted by the ANSWP.

OREGON ANSWP GETS ATTENTION

American National Socialist Workers Party members in Portland, Oregon drew attention June 18 by dropping banners over interstate highways, like the one above, hung from the Marquam Bridge on Interstate-5 over the Willamette River.

The banner attracted much discussion from anti-racist bloggers, who said it was "intimidating".

The ANSWP has been growing quickly on the West Coast, attracting 69 activists in California, Oregon and Washington, though recruitment of state leaders and formal unit organizations has been slow.

RACE ENEMIES WORRIED IN IL, KY

Literature drops targeting enemies of the white race garnered attention in Peoria, Illinois and Louisville, Kentucky this month as our state units picked out a mouthy college professor and a corrupt local council-woman for targeted flier campaigns.

In Peoria, Bradley University professor and DailyKos.com's Ollie Nanyes was the subject of a literature drop, leading to a three page attack on our local organizers by the Peoria Times-Observer.

In Louisville, local City Councilwoman Vicki Welch was the target of hundreds of fliers dropped in her district protesting the relocation of subsidized housing projects into an all white neighborhood.

Both drew local television attention.

REHABILITATION THROUGH LABOR

NATIONAL SOCIALISM VS PARASITISM

A defining characteristic of National Socialism was its radically normal approach to social and economic problems. Nowhere was this more evident than in the system of prison labor camps -- modeled on those in the United States but much less brutal in their conditions than those contemporary in America -- that were instituted in Germany to correct the system of prison abuses that had become prevalent under the Weimar Republic and the old monarchy. While Jews persist in pursuing fantasies of "death camps" and "slave labor", the truth is that the Germans were much more moderate in their execution of political dissidents than the Jewish Soviet Union and much more tolerant in their use of inmate labor than the abusive conditions prevalent in most of the Western World at that time -- and now.

Where the modern federal prisoner in America is often forced into hard labor for little pay making products ranging from office furniture to military gear and armaments, the general population is told that the exact same practice, used during war by our Reich, was a "crime". And while German "concentration camps", like Auschwitz, were equipped with theaters, soccer fields and swimming pools, and allowed their least restrictive inmates free access to numerous amenities, American prisoners daily fear a variety of extra-legal punishments, ranging from rape to murder to torture by abusive and under trained prison guards.

Given the mildness of the German system of rehabilitation through labor, one is left asking, "What was the difference?" What did our German Reich do to so incite the peoples of the world against it, and provoke such a blizzard of lies and misinformation? What we did was this: Instead of imprisoning, abusing, and compelling the poorest members of German society to labor, we imprisoned those members of the wealthy and the elite who had lived luxurious lifestyles at the workers' expense -- the Paris Hiltons of the Third Reich, so to speak.

Prior to the war, German National Socialists incarcerated a variety of criminals, just as the American justice system does now. Some of the first acts taken by the German National Socialist government was to bring public morality legislation -- legislation banning prostitution, pimping, and abortion, among other acts -- up to the standard currently extant in the United States, where those activities were barred. The first of those sent to "concentration camps" were simple street criminals, and it is this that accounts for the fact that two thirds of those "liberated" from "concentration camps" by the Allies in 1945 had been re-imprisoned by 1948.

Most of the pornographers, pimps, and abortionists arrested during the early years of the National Socialist regime were Jews, and it was this that led to the international accusations that "Jews" were being arrested en masse. All over the world, to this day, Jews dominate organized crime and dominate the trade in human vice; what was unusual about National Socialist Germany is that the laws against such crime and vice were suddenly being enforced.

What also made the Third Reich unique is that it recognized two kinds of criminality not generally prosecuted in the West: social-political criminality and economic criminality. Whereas the Western nations were, at that time, governed by capitalist robber barons that exploited and impoverished working people, and the Soviet Union had been taken over by a small clique of criminal Jewish gangsters who were actively massacring and stealing the wealth of their subject peoples, National Socialist Germany recognized that the economic exploitation that occurred under capitalism was criminal, and that the ideologies that encouraged such exploitation -- both capitalist and communist -- were partners in that crime. For that reason, National Socialist Germany suppressed all -- and only -- political dissent whose object was the theft of the lives, liberty or property of common working people.

In the United States today, Jews dominate most industrial and agricultural trade, most major retailers, most media outlets, and most finance capital. Jewish-owned and operated Citibank, for instance, has been a leader in the imposition of usurious "bank fees" and "credit card fees" that steal the hard earned money of the working poor. Under the Jewish leadership of David Glass, Walmart came to dominate US trade with China and had become a major promoter of "free trade" policies that drive white workers and the companies that employ them out of business. The Jewish racial aspect of this, and often the involvement of Jews at all, is steadily concealed by the Jewish owned mass media. Previous issues of National Socialist have dealt thoroughly with Jewish influence in these sectors.

The German National Socialists, when faced with this situation, declared this kind of economic exploitation to be a crime, and arrested all of those who had engaged in it -- Jew and German. Because they had exploited and injured the working people of Germany, they were sentenced as criminals to a period of time doing the kind of hard work without pay that they and their business operations had subjected German workers to. The concentration camp system was a case of the punishment fitting the crime, as those who had stolen the product of other's labor had the product of their own labor stolen from them.

The sentences handed down against the Jewish robber barons by National Socialism are comparable to the modern day arrests of the Russian oligarchs by Russian President Vladimir Putin. In the post-Soviet period, a number of Jews, such as Boris Berezovsky and Vladimir Guzinsky, stole control of public companies by using corrupt influence to buy them at pennies on the dollar from the state. Through this process, a handful of Jewish capitalists maintained control of essentially all of Russia's media, as well as its banking, oil, gas, and energy industries. In the post-Yeltsin period, these crimes of economic exploitation were punished by the arrest of these Jewish robber barons. However, the arrest of these Jewish billionaires did not go unnoticed by the Jewish community, who have responded by destabilizing Russia's neighbors and provoking US confrontation with the Putin presidency.

Think of the silly fuss Jew mischling Paris Hilton made when she was taken off to jail. Multiply that by six million, and German prisons quickly became "Holocaust death camps."

All over the world, when Jewish centralization and theft of wealth has reached extremes, extreme measures have had to be taken to bring the Jews back under control. In the 15th century, Spain tried forced conversion, believing that the Jewish problem was a religious issue, but the result was only false conversions and the introduction of Jewish poison into the Catholic Church. In modern times, the issue is generally seen as a racial problem, but, given the modern taboo against racial intervention per se, is channeled into narrower legal action against specific criminal individuals.

National Socialist Germany was not different from the rest of the world in this respect. Our German predecessors studiously avoided persecution of the Jews as a race, and limited themselves to the arrest of specific Jewish individuals who had committed crimes. The fact that large portions of Germany's Jewish population were individually responsible for criminal acts does not in any way diminish the moderate nature of the German response to them. Adolf Hitler himself was under constant pressure from more extreme elements of the party to eliminate the Jews, and consistently refused to do so, fearing that such actions would unnecessarily provoke confrontation with Germany's enemies -- most of whom were Jew controlled.

Our German ancestors also cracked down on those political movements that lent legitimacy and support to the Jew exploiters. The communist movement -- a radical movement to concentrate all the wealth and the power of the state in the hands of Jewish oligarchs -- was banned and its mostly Jewish adherents arrested. This movement, which had engaged in widespread violence and terrorism against the German people, often burning small farms and attacking small shopkeepers as members of the "petty bourgeoisie", is the equivalent of the modern "anti-racist", "multi-culturalist" and "immigration rights" movement -- a movement which, if we were to arrest its leaders today, would find us holding on to a large number of Jews.

The Jewish capitalists -- the contemporaries of today's neo-conservatives and "libertarians" -- were also broken, as the fallacy of the capitalist-communist dichotomy was exposed. Jews were free in Germany -- to be Jews, living apart from the German nation. But they were no longer free to exploit the German people.

A National Socialist government in the United States would take a similar approach, isolating and removing Jews from those positions where they prey upon and persecute working class whites, while encouraging Jews to emigrate back to their homeland, as a minority in a Palestinian-led Palestine. The criminalization of anti-social and immoral behavior, economic exploitation, and the political and social movements that justify it, will naturally lead to the disproportionate arrest of Jewish leaders -- but is a necessary step for white working class liberation.

In the end, one cannot argue the fundamental fairness of the rehabilitation through labor system. Sitting at the top of our society today, earning interest on their billions that other, harder working white people are laboring to pay, is a tiny mass of Jewish parasites that not only contribute nothing to society but actively detract from it. Dispossessing them of their wealth and distributing it to the white poor would be justice, but to allow these parasites to escape and set up shop in another nation only relocates the problem.

By compelling the useless members of society to perform the hard work they have been unwilling to do, one hopes to give the elite a perspective on the crimes they have inflicted against the broad mass of society. Failing that, one at least gains the "eye for an eye" satisfaction of giving them back the pain they inflict on others.

STOPPING LEONARD PITTS

When "Responsible" Black Media Calls For The Rape And Murder Of Whites

Leonard Pitts, Jr, columnist for the Miami Herald, started his career as the paper's hip-hop and rap music critic. Without the use of any apparent selection criteria, he was advanced from that position to editorial writer, and from there to a nationally syndicated opinion columnist. His lack of writing skills were not an obstacle, as the average newspaper strives not to rise above the reading level of a twelve year old, and he might have quietly slipped into the ranks of over promoted affirmative action Negroes -- if he hadn't published the straw that broke the camel's back.

On June 1, 2007, Pitts published a column, entitled "The Loonies of Knoxville", in which he openly encouraged blacks to rape and murder whites on a racial basis.

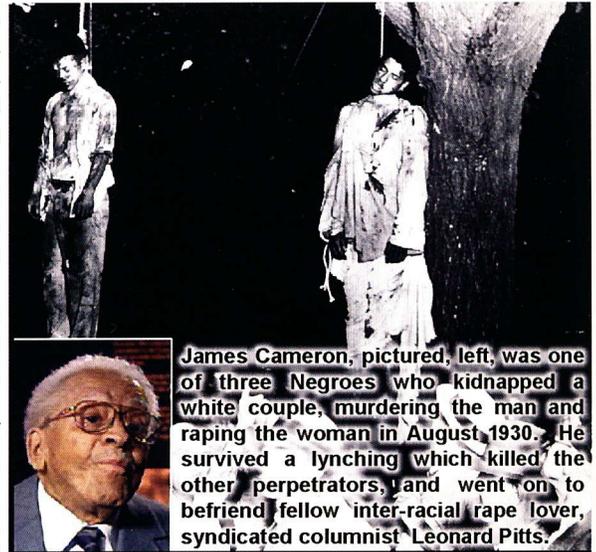

"I have four words for ... any ... white Americans who feel themselves similarly victimized [when raped and murdered by blacks]," Pitts wrote, "Cry me a river."

It was not the first time Pitts advocated and defended inter-racial rape. On March 8, 2004, he published a column demanding that Marcus Dixon, a Negro with a history of sexual deviancy who forced a sixteen year old white girl into a mobile classroom and raped her, be exonerated. And on March 11, 2007, he gave a speech defending James Cameron, a Negro who, in 1930, survived a lynching which killed two of his confederates (pictured at right) after the brutal, Knoxville-like kidnap, murder and rape of a white couple.

A full search of Pitts' writings shows a pampered Negro who is also clearly mentally ill, fixated on inter-racial sex crimes and openly advocating the kind of black on white brutality that characterizes the mostly Jewish-produced and distributed rap music he once reviewed for the Herald. And seeing this national mouthpiece being published in "responsible" Jewish papers and using that position as a soap box for advocating the most brutal crimes against our people, the question has emerged: What can we do?

On June 3, 2007, the American National Socialist Workers' Party printed the home address and phone number of Pitts on our website, Overthrow.com. By June 6, the "harassment" Pitts faced had become so intense we received a letter from Miami Herald editor Dave Wilson demanding we take the information down. "Frankly, if some loony took the info and killed him, I wouldn't shed a tear. That also goes for your whole news room," our Commander, Bill White, responded.

The response was a shot heard around the media world. By June 20, Pitts had received more than 400 emails, dozens of phone calls, and been the subject of a flier campaign in his neighborhood organized by our Maryland State Leader Tim Bland. The media had had enough.

A national campaign was launched to shut down the Overthrow.com website. The Miami Herald called the FBI and demanded the arrest of our leaders. Pitts went on CNN to declare himself a "victim" and newspapers local to several of our unit leaders, including the Roanoke Times and the Peoria Times-Observer, went forward with slander pieces.

All to no avail. The media campaign failed. We were not shut down, and, as we go to press, angry whites continue to pressure the Miami Herald for the dismissal of rape lover Leonard Pitts. The affair, and the inability of the Jew media to stop us, resonated throughout the power structure and made them aware -- white sensibilities are ignored at their peril.

NATIONAL SOCIALIST SKINHEAD

My name is Philip Anderson. I live in Peoria, Illinois and am a dedicated National Socialist. Having recently finished high school, I plan on attending my first year of college in the Fall of 07. In my free time I enjoy playing sports and reading, and one of my favorite things is working in ceramics. I really enjoy working with my hands and creating things. With time, effort, and dedication, my projects almost always made them turn out to there full potential. I'm hoping I can use the same traits to help create a large unit for the American National Socialist Workers Party within the state of Illinois.

My first encounter with the savagery of non-whites was when I was in 6th grade and was at my only black friend's birthday party. A negro who was older and bigger came up behind me and squeezed me until I almost passed out. There was no reason for it; I hadn't said a word to the negro at all. From that day on I felt any trust I had for black people was destroyed. Then, in 8th grade my history teacher told us that the white race in America was going to disappear. She said it was going to be full of mixed people and the national language would be Spanish. I was outraged. I couldn't believe that the teacher acted like it was nothing. All of the other students around me didn't even seem to care. I promised myself that day that I would fight every way I could to save my people, even if I had to act alone.

When I entered high school I found myself into punk rock. For about a year I preached anarchy and that we needed to destroy the US government and replace it with something else. At the time, my brother and his friends were already skinhead, but I just thought they were idiots. While I was browsing punk music one day, I came across the band Skrewdriver. I fell in love with the music. A few friends and I started getting into the white power movement. I later joined a white power forum and they set me in the right direction. For about a year I did a ton of online research finding out everything I could on both sides of the story. About a year and half after I found Skrewdriver, I officially declared myself a National Socialist.

Since then I have dedicated a proportion of my time to National Socialism. The main reason I joined the ANSWP was because it was active. When I first came to the movement, I couldn't believe how many keyboard commandos there were. No other pro-white organization's activities come close to matching ours. As I watched the ANSWP form, I knew that if any organization was going to do it, it was the ANSWP. Another great characteristic of the ANSWP is that Commander White gives credit when its due. Other organization's members work their tails off and are not recognized for their deeds.

Before I joined the ANSWP I organized small, successful, spur of the moment, march against illegal immigration. After I joined, my comrades and I successfully distributed fliers targeting Ollie Nanyes. This is just one event that has shown that enemies of the white race can no longer attack us without being exposed. I think the time has come to stick our faces out there and awaken our people. If we show we're not scared, many white people will take note. The time is now, White Man fight!

RACIAL HYGIENE

Reproduction, The Race, And The Selection Of A Mate

How we go about choosing the right mate with which to produce offspring - the future of our race - is a matter far too important to leave to a young woman's fear, 'feelings', or fantasy. Once again, we point to popular culture and media as the culprits teaching girls that 'love' and 'falling in love' will inevitably just 'happen' and when it does, it will be right for them to be swept along in its wake. If you have children, give them this column to read, or if they're too young to understand it alone, read it to them yourself.

It's never too early to introduce our youth to racial sexual values.

Though it is often said that it's a man's world, women have always maintained the power to select when it comes to mating. This is an instinctual trait that nature has given the female so she can secure the best, most compatible genetic material available to her with which to endow her children. As in our distant past, it is still within woman's power today to give or withhold her sexual receptivity, for Aryan men do not normally force themselves on women.

In some non-Aryan societies, this is not the case. Among Africans, for instance, casual non-committal sex, pedophilia, and even rape is accepted as the norm, contributing to the world's worst AIDS epidemic.

Aryan men and women evolved far different, more enlightened relationship patterns. But we are currently under great stress because of a hundreds-year-old Jewish effort to infiltrate and control our societies, and to introduce inferior races into our living space. Our young women, if they are to be warrior women, need to know that since 1945, when the Jew was once again released as an economic and social influence in all Western nations, young people have been subjected to intense conditioning to break down their natural resistance to mixing and mating with other races.

Preference for our own kind is innate - it echoes a deeper, sub-conscious impulse to protect the hard - won qualities the race has gained during the course of evolution. Those who now label it 'xenophobia' ignore the fact that 'aversion to strangers' is what has enabled great periods of civilization like the Elizabethan Age of England's 16th and early 17th centuries to occur, and that abandonment of this aversion coincides with periods of decline, loss of character, and impaired stamina and vigor in the general population.

The humanistic sciences have been distorted and "forced" along a propaganda pathway that disregards essential facts of evolution, race and nature, such as the merits of inbreeding. Uniting two similar streams of hereditary tendencies (inbreeding) will bring latent defects to the surface, cleansing the stock of impurities. Cross-breeding (the mixing of the conspicuously dissimilar, whether in plant, animal or man) tends to hide inherent defects, not exterminate them, and the miscegenated stock grows more and more polluted.

Cross-breeding can also bring about the phenomenon of reversion, which Charles Darwin described as the cause of "the degraded state of so many half-castes." England's Prime Minister David Lloyd George explained it to the House of Commons in 1939 as he spoke about bud pruning and graft-crossing his apple trees. "Unless you are very careful ... the old stock breaks out and ... destroys the tree. You do not get either a pippin or a Bramley ... the tree is so utterly muddled between the one and the other that it produces only sour desiccated crabs" - the primitive fruit from which apples derive.

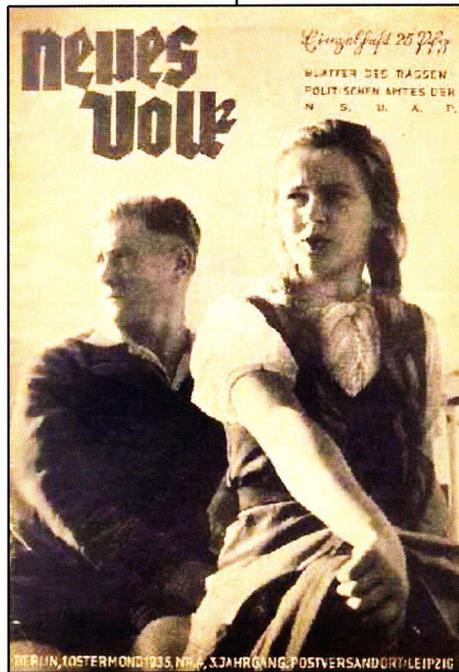

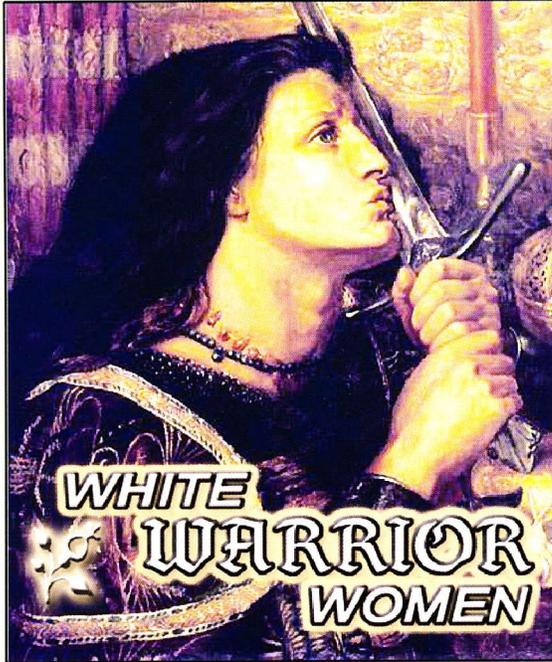

Reversion constitutes the loss of the qualities, often rare, which a race may have slowly acquired through isolation and inbreeding. It has become a distinctive type which has stabilized and breeds true; breeding true is the distinguishing mark of the thoroughbred. With hybrids and mongrels it's common for one part of the body to resemble one parent and another part the other parent. If the parents are disharmonious, this can result in disharmonies in the offspring, e.g. large bodies with small internal organs or inadequate circulatory systems, which tax the organism. Or the independent inheritance of legs, arms and trunks that don't match up, as well as facial features which combine to produce something far less than pleasing.

Along with physical anomalies, personality weaknesses are also produced, ranging from simple indecisiveness to anxiety and more serious mental instabilities. This leads us to the consideration of occupational differences, which, while being less serious than race, can still be problematic. It may sound a bit extreme in the year 2007, but history tells us that having similar family vocations / occupations is a reliable indicator for producing more stable-

The Jew, Indicted

views on human life, equal rights, human dignity, equality, tolerance and the rights of man lay the foundation for the war of the lesser peoples against Nature's elite -- an elite without which the problems posed by the lesser races can not be solved. Over - population, global warming, the mutational load of genetic admixture on man, the spread of no- degradable toxins and radiations in the environment, dwindling resources, and falling human intelligence and sterility can only be addressed by the elite that the Jews and their allies condemn.

Blame for the death of life on Earth resides with the Jew, the champion of Marxism. It is he who champions "human rights" -- a deceptive cover meaning only the right of the Jew to rule the world and enslave the goyim. It is he who prevented the Kaiser's army from wiping out the Ovambo in Namibia to create Aryan living space, just as he objected and still objects to the populating of North America by the White man -- manifested most lately in Jewish support for Mexican immigration. It is he who orchestrated the world wars, bleeding the White man to death and killing the top 5% of the Aryan race, and it is he who thus set back for generations our capacity to generate and to think. It is he who still pursues total world domination, whatever the cost, and it is he who sees the final triumph in a world burned to ashes. He spreads White technology to the mud races, interfering in their ancient cultures, warping them, overpopulating them, deforesting the Earth and extinguishing biodiversity. He creates the obscene mass commercialism of modern culture. He lives in mansions while reducing the world to an empty shell. He strives to extinguish the light of the Aryan race, and he, in so doing, attempts to snuff out the one people with the capability to set things right.

Of our Aryan race, Hitler says this: "[The Aryan] is the Prometheus of mankind, from whose shining brow the divine spark of genius has at all times flashed forth, always kindling anew that fire which, in the form of knowledge, illuminated the dark night by drawing aside the veil of mystery and thus showing man how to rise and become master over all the other beings on the Earth. Should he be forced to disappear, a profound darkness will descend on the Earth. Within a few thousand years, human culture will vanish and the world will become a desert".

Hitler says something else about the Jews which could easily describe the last days of "humanity", as different peoples struggle for limited resources. "If the Jews were the only people in the world, they would be wallowing in filth and mire and would exploit one another in a bitter struggle, except in so far as their utter lack of the ideal of sacrifice, which shows itself in their cowardly spirit, would prevent this struggle from developing."

In 2007, what is at stake in our struggle is not just the fate of the elite of the White race, the White race as a whole, civilization, art, science, or history, but the whole of life on Earth. Hitler foresaw this.

Today, the fruits of international finance, democracy and Marxism is the overpopulation of the world by the Chandala races, who are destroying and consuming the world's resources like cancer. By right, according to the laws of Nature, none of these mud races should exist. If history had been allowed to take its true and natural course, all the mud races would have gone the way of the Red Indian in the 19th century -- they would, as General Sherman put it, been "driven to extinction and the utmost state of penury by the higher race."

That this was prevented by do-gooders, love - thy - nigger Christians, humanists and liberals, all following ideologies of the Jews, has brought a curtailment of the White man's ascendance. Proto- Marxist

These German dissidents' banner reads: "Help free Germany from Jewish Capitalism -- Do not shop at Jewish businesses"

The Jews' modern world is a decadent and degenerate world built on the basis of a commercialism that can only survive through an "economic growth" that is synonymous with "environmental destruction". Coupled with the need to cater to billions of worthless muds, modernism is simultaneously "the triumph of Marxism" and the capitalist "Golden Calf", twin pillars of the Jewish temple and Jewish paradise. Hitler had this to say: "Should the Jew, with the aid of his Marxist creed triumph over the people of this world, his crown will be the funeral wreath of mankind, and this planet will once again follow its orbit through ether, without any human life on its surface, as it did millions of years ago," and that is the direction we are driven.

National Socialism is thus not merely a struggle for the survival of the white race, but a struggle for the survival of life itself.

Even Amazonian frogs and ferns will ultimately have reason to be grateful when we triumph! The anti-capitalism of Greens and Reds cannot defeat the Jew; Green environmentalism and Red socialism are merely distortions the Jew uses to direct all resistance towards his agenda. The Greens preach biodiversity while accepting a multi-culturalism that produces the races which threaten it. The Reds protest global capitalism, yet defend the Jew responsible for it, while defending anti-labor policies, such as open immigration, in the name of the same multi-culturalism. They are men dying of thirst trying to build an aqueduct on the principle that water flows up hill.

No, only National Socialists can cleanse, purify and save the world. We are the "yes" to life on Earth: evolution upwards, rather than degeneration into death.

Those who stand opposed to us are the "no" to life. They are not supposed to be alive. They cling on, zombie-like, preserved solely by delays in the process of natural selection. The Jews and all others who oppose the advance of the White race seek a culturally and ecologically devastated world where half-breeds fight over the last dead rats as food.

Some suggest, based on the writings of David Icke, that the Jews are some kind of reptilian alien species, masquerading as humans -- similar to the sci-fi movie "They Live". Identity Christians hold that Jews are the spawn of Satan. Others hold that they are an offshoot of the Negro, adapted as a parasite. The damage they do does not allow one to discount the most far-fetched of notions of their origins! The Jews are a conscious manifestation of the principle of destruction, promising the Earth nothing but death, for either that or they really are fools of the first degree; monkeys sawing off the branch upon which they sit.

Jews have been explained as devils, left, and as reptile space aliens, right. Both are ways of understanding the fact of Jewish responsibility for war and poverty.

WAFFEN SS

HEROES OF THE REICH

Berlin was totally destroyed in April 1945 by the allies and their bombing. This followed February 1945, where allied Air Forces destroyed Dresden, killing 135,000 civilians with firebombs. The German soldiers had to see all those cruelties committed by the allies against the German people, and they knew they had to fight, even though the situation was desperate. So the last units of Waffen-SS, Wehrmacht, Volksturm and Hitler-Jugend gathered in Berlin for the last and final defense of the Reich against the Bolsheviks. On the 3rd of May 1945 the battle of Berlin was over and the Soviet Union's red flag was raised over Berlin.

What is the story of the glorious Waffen-SS and its soldiers -- these men who rallied to our Fuehrer in his final hour? The story begins in the year 1925 when the SS - Schutzstaffel - was formed from the units of the SA (Sturm Abteilung). In 1929, Heinrich Himmler became the leader of the SS, and, with Himmler's leadership, the SS raised its membership from 280 men to 400 men, declaring its independence from the SA in November 1930. In August 1931, the SD (Sicherheitsdienst - Security Service) was formed and Reinhard Heydrich became its leader. The SS became an important element in the protection of the state during the first, formative years of the Third Reich.

The SS formed Hitler's personal bodyguard unit, the "SS Leibstandarte Adolf Hitler". The commander of the SSLAH was Sepp Dietrich, who led it to win a glorious reputation in World War II. At the same time the SSLAH was formed, March 1933, they also created the armed unit of the SS - SS-VT (Verfügungstruppe).

When the Second World War broke out in September 1939, the strength of the SS-VT had already grown to 9000 men. In October 1939, SS divisions "Das Reich" and "Totenkopf" were formed. In January 1940, Heinrich Himmler formed from his SS-organization the armed wing, the Waffen-SS, and between June 1940 and December 1941 the strength of the Waffen-SS grew from 100,000 men to 230,000. The Waffen-SS was the fastest growing and most popular army unit in Germany during the war, and in October 1944 the Waffen-SS had 910,000 men formed into 38 divisions.

Waffen-SS soldiers always showed uncompromising courage on the battle field, living their motto "Meine Ehre Heisst Treue." Michael Wittmann, for instance, a hero of the Waffen-SS, destroyed at least 138 enemy tanks during the war and on June 13th, 1944, Wittmann's tank crew destroyed 16 British tanks and their support vehicles -- an entire column -- in 12 minutes in the battle of Villers-Bocage, in France. On August 8th, 1944, SS-Hauptsturmführer Michael Wittmann was killed by the British ambush in Cintheaux, France.

After the war in 1945, the allies occupied Germany and declared the Waffen-SS a criminal organization. They began a Europe-wide manhunt to find and execute civilians -- former SS-soldiers -- who had done nothing but their duty for the Third Reich. When the criminal Zionist Entity was formed in Palestine in 1948, they escalated the manhunt world wide. In 1960, Zionist agents captured and executed former SS-Obesturmanbannführer Adolf Eichmann. Waffen-SS soldiers were accused of "war-crimes," despite the fact that the majority of civilian murdered, raped and wrongfully abused during the war were the victims of Allied and Soviet, not German, aggression. When Americans "liberated" Dachau's prisoner camp in April 1945, for instance, over 500 SS-soldiers were tortured and murdered by the Americans, despite the fact that none of them had served as camp guards.

After the long time as prisoners of war, often forced to labor, against international law, in camps in Equatorial Africa, the former SS-soldiers came back to their homes. They were not treated as heroes, but criminals, despite their service for the Fatherland. SS-soldiers were barred by law from talking of their experiences in war or sharing their comradeship. But former SS-soldiers couldn't stand aside when their old comrades were hunted down and persecuted by the occupiers and also by their own people. So, in the 50s, former SS-soldiers started an organization called "HIAG"-- Hilfsgemeinschaft auf Gegenseitigkeit ehemaliger Angehöriger der Waffen-SS. HIAG both supported former soldiers of the SS, who had been denied veterans benefits and pensions, economically, and also defended the name of the Waffen-SS against the lies by the Zionist victors.

Paranoia about the strength of the SS and the German people, despite the massacre of nearly a third of Europe's Germans during and after the war, also led Jews to assert the existence of another organization protecting the former SS-soldiers: "ODESSA" -- Organisation

der ehemaligen SS-Angehörigen. Jew Simon Weisenthal alleged that ODESSA helped former SS-soldiers escape from Europe to South America and even to the Middle East, though his allegations were never proven. Weisenthal alleged that Adolf Eichmann, Alois Brunner, Erich Priebke, SS - Hauptsturmführer Joseph Mengele, Aribert Heim, SS-Obersturmbannführer Otto Skorzeny and Sturmbannführer Alfred Naujocks were all involved in ODESSA.

The memory of the Waffen-SS still lives with us today. Those fine young soldiers who joined the battle against Bolshevism and fought for Europe's freedom gave their youth and often their lives. They were the few who suffered the hells of both war and imprisonment without losing the faith.

They, the SS-soldiers, fought for National Socialism on the front line and they never gave up. Their spirit is connected by a blood bond to those National Socialists who today continue the battle for European liberation. Our struggle is one with those of our soldiers who fought and died in the war. While at times it might look like they are forgotten, there will be a time when all over Germany and Europe, they are remembered and celebrated as the true heroes of National Socialism.

minded offspring. The Elizabethan Age, when trades, crafts and professions were passed on from father to son for generations, with daughters also marrying 'into the trade,' was a period of great sanity and health for England, where a true aristocracy of craftsmanship and skilled workers flourished. By garnering strength through these several generations, lunacy and mental derangement were restricted, allowing the common people to cultivate character and men of high achievement, until they eventually produced the incomparable Shakespeare.

Vocation reveals personality. Thus the prevalent occupations of the Jew, throughout history, have been junk dealers, pawnbrokers, mercantile middlemen, money lenders, lawyers, pornographers and propagandists. Looking at the vocational tendencies of the other races, one finds that none have exhibited the natural productive capacity of the Aryan, whether in building trades, industry or agricultural production. If we carelessly mix our genes with those whose life work is too different from our own, there is greater likelihood that our children will be confused and indecisive about what direction to take in life.

On a final note, the subject of "telegony" -- the genetic infection of a woman that carries on beyond the initial sexual relationship. While controversial, telegony is widely regarded among livestock breeders and has been an observed phenomenon dating back to Aristotle. The theory of telegony states that the heredity of an individual is influenced not only by its father but also by males with whom the female may have mated previously. The idea is that the entire female ovum apparatus is affected by the sperm and hormones injected by the male, thus, characteristics from an earlier partner can spontaneously appear in offspring with a later partner. Thus a white woman who has once had a mulatto child with a Negro may continue to have mulatto children even though she later corrected her behavior and mates with a white man. Breeders call this "throwing back" and physiologists call it

"infection of the germ". The known absorption of many substances through ostensible membrane barriers, as proved with the use of beauty and cellulite creams, nicotine and other type patches, gives some basis for the theory.

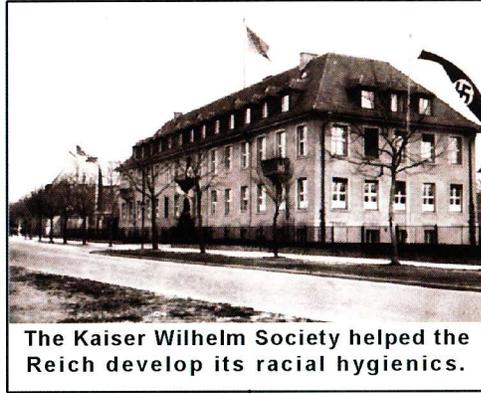

According to breeders, evidence of telegony has been found in nearly all the different kinds of domestic mammals and birds, with most stress being laid on the horse and dog families, though the theory has been controversial among biologists since the 19th century. But, truth or fiction, it always makes more sense to err on the side of caution when dealing with something this important.

If we are wise, we'll follow the advice of Professor C. D. Darlington of Oxford, who said back in 1958, "The nation which takes thought for its own genetic future is most likely to have a future."
