

N&INS is a Public Information Bulletin published in the Public Interest. Opinions expressed herein are not necessarily those of the publisher. No action should be imputed nor inferred.

N&INS ANALYSIS: WAR ON TERROR OPENS BRITISH FRONT

National Public Radio (US) c/- ABC News Radio 936AM 10am Monday 25 July 2005:

In London, three men have been detained after attempting to set fire to a local mosque. There are reports of Muslim women in head-scarves not being allowed aboard London buses and of Muslims being abused and spat upon in the street. [NPR is a totally Jewish outfit, no Anglos involved. Comes from US government but might as well be called Radio Eretz Israel. Report shows British masses are fully aware of who Enemy is - ISLAM. But Tony Blair continues to invite these insects to tea at No. 10 and assure them "we value your contribution to our society". Will not be long before dozey public awake to true Enemy - Blair and his sham 'democracy'. These coddle nation's enemies but oppress white nationalists. When did Blair invite the BNP to tea at No. 10? Yet these fight to preserve Britain, not destroy it. Sickness of 'liberal democracy' must be eliminated if white Christian society is, in the words of Abraham Lincoln, "not to perish from off the face of the earth".

In Sydney 2003-2004 when Muslim rapes gangs were apprehended after violating over 70 white women, just for being white, the media and public were in uproar. Yet six months later Human Rights Commissioner Chris Puplick set about prosecuting all who had criticised the rapist for 'race hatred'. Same will happen in Britain once frenzy over multiple bombings ends. Shows is not Islam that we need fear but those who allow them easy entry to our countries, the vile multiculturalists and 'open borders' types on the Capitalist Right and deviant Left. But wait...is this another false conclusion the System wants us to leap to? Deliberately introduce alien virus into healthy body-politic. Then give it special privileges calling this 'multiple culture' a concept both illogical and can never work. What we have is a poly-culture, i.e. many separate cultures trying to inhabit the one area, isolated from each other and acting as shadow or 'parallel cultures'. Conflict is not only inevitable but apparently desired.

We see this in case of sudden African invasion of Australia. Blacks go to US claiming 'you owe us due to slavery'. They get into Britain and France saying 'you owe us due to colonialism'. But how do they get into Australia? We had neither slaves nor colonies? So no mention is made of them at all. They suddenly appear in a house next door to yours, at a school desk next to you. POOF, Hey Presto! Like some demented conjurers trick these Somalis and Sudanese suddenly began appearing everywhere at once. Not just in the usual ethnic slums but in upper class and middle class suburbs and at previously all-white schools, as if parachuted in. Why? Another attempt to provoke racial conflict so the Chris Puplick's of the world could further oppress us, one wrong opinion at a time. So we despair of man's greatest achievement, national democracy, the white man's accomplishment and demand kosher rule, an alien dictatorship where they still rule but now as undisguised tyrants.

Better still they do it at our request so we later cannot complain at our loss of freedoms. We now have 'security' a safety purchased at great, and terminal, cost. Whites of Rhodesia thought in 1979 they would be 'safe' if they ended the race war and surrendered to their black, Communist foes. That's what the pro-black, Communist media of the world assured them. And so it seemed for many years till white-ruled South West Africa was handed over to the black Communists, too. Again the 'Namibian' whites were assured all would continue as before. And so it did till Mandela was installed as ruler of neighbouring South Africa. Then the gloves came off in all three states. As if an order had been issued somewhere, racial murders and land confiscations began simultaneously in all three states. World media only report 'Zimbabwe'. Project image of Marxist Mugabe as 'mad', like 2000's version of Idi Amin. Yet no word is allowed in the press of deteriorating conditions in Namibia and rural South Africa when identical events occur. Would be too easy for even the doziest white Australians to detect a coordinated plan under way, coordination local blacks are incapable of.

Like the multiple bombings common during this 'war of terror'. Media tell us these are 'hallmarks' of Al Qaeda, ultimate terror group, trained to precision required of a regular armed forces but equipped with suicidal zeal. Wrong. They ARE the forces of a regular army. MOSSAD. If true rulers of the West are puppets of International Finance is more than likely their own security forces are responsible for the 'terror'. In George Orwell's book 1984 the main character Winston Smith ponders how the 'enemy' in their endless war is able to fire short-range missile over long distances. "Are they the enemy's or our own being fired at us?" Aim is to help citizens 'hate' the enemy so see war as personal not just one for soldiers at the 'front'. In Terry Gilliam film Brazil (1987) security forces battle mysterious 'terrorists' who randomly bomb restaurants and other non-essential targets yet never directly threaten the State itself. Justifies job of main character, Sam Lowry, a secret police bureaucrat who arranges tortures of innocent civilians on the off-chance they might be 'terrorists'. Stars Ian Holm, Robert De Niro and Bob Hoskins. Like all Gilliam films (Fisher-king, Time Bandits, Jabberwocky) is oddly prophetic.

In interview with Australian PM John Howard in London on Monday 25 July 2005 ABC Radio reporter Stephanie Kennedy asked him if lack of warning from British security forces of 7.7.05 multiple bombings and 21.7.05 attempted bombings were a 'failure of intelligence'. Howard was quick to defend British intelligence agencies. Why? Logical. There was no "failure" to predict as same people who 'failed' in fact carried out the bombings. Why else defend them? How else explain Howard knowing, from the instant they occurred, how many died 27 hours before the British police did? Via the AFP. Howard's Australian Federal Police are his chief overseas intelligence arm. A uniformed branch of the 'intelligence' community, like Royal Australian Army's Defence Signal Directorate (DSD), AFP have totally eclipsed civilian spy services under Howard's rule. Why? ASIO, ASIS, ONA, JIO and DIO all recruit from university graduates.

All Australian universities are ruled by ALP Left staff and student 'unions'. Any recruits from there are solely Leftists who share common Left world-view: see continued white existence as a 'cancer' on the world and 'secrecy' itself as a threat to N.W.O. rule, hence 110 'leaks' from Howard government by ALP public servants since Howard came to power in 1995. ALP Leftist Uni graduates control of the Public Services at all levels both State and Federal. Their inherently treasonable nature renders them useless for top secret work with a Liberal government.

ALP, like Masons, are a secret cabal that put their interests above all others, even those of other secret societies. So for a war on terror that requires bombing, killing, maiming and gaoing one's own citizens ALP members are worthless, unless it is an ALP government doing the killings. Hence Howard's employment of the more pedestrian skills of police and military. Not thinkers but doers, both AFP and DSD can be relied on to OBEY. Howard and AFP knew 27 hours early because everyone in the intelligence community had foreknowledge of the attacks and simply followed the set text of the script: 50 deaths claimed, Al Qaeda blamed, etc. In his eagerness to play amongst 'the big boys' Howard simply got ahead of himself.

No one has asked why he and Israel's Benyamin Netanyahu were both in London on 7.7.2005. How is it Howard came to be at No.10 Downing Street as the bombings occurred. Just as he was in New York on September 11 2001 as the Twin Towers fell and so became the first foreign leader to phone and then meet George Bush afterwards and first to personally offer troops for any future war "under the auspices of the ANZUS treaty alliance" a Cold War relic few outside Australia have ever heard of. It was under ANZUS that Howard's role model, Liberal Prime Minister Sir Robert Menzies committed 50,000 Australian troops to Vietnam 1962-72 in support of US efforts there.

Howard was simply too eager. A minor player in 'the Anglo-Saxon Club', as the French to call it, the 'Coalition of the Willing', he is always first to act so eager is he to please Bush and those pulling his strings. Many in Australia's ALP-dominated media disparage us as a 'small nation' foolishly ignoring our vast size and God-given wealth. Do they call Saudi Arabia 'small'? No. Like us they sit atop vast wealth they cannot defend. Like us they sell their loyalty as a means of getting others to defend them. This often means dealing with unsavoury elements and being 'willing' to obey no matter how distasteful.

Only solution would be a massive influx of all the world's remaining whites to our continent so we would no longer be 'small'. Also a nuclear weapons programme so we are no longer defenseless. Both these were attempted, by Menzies, in the 1960's but our secret masters vetoed the latter and the former has proven more trouble than it was worth. We trawled the world for every willing white, as did South Africa, Rhodesia and New Zealand, our fellow 'Anglo-Saxon Club' co-colonists. All we got was Southern European-semi-Turkoids: swarthy Greeks, Maltese and Sicilians - the post-WWII riff-raff Europe could no longer stomach, the world's cast-offs. So pure white Australia began its slow decline, via those allegedly come to 'save' us from the Asian menace, half-Asians themselves.

As this foolish post-war migration grew our population turned steadily darker. By the 1970's even Greeks, Maltese and Sicilians no longer wanted to leave the now prosperous European Union for the wilds of Australia. So our seriously flawed migration policy, by now having taken on a life of its own far beyond the original 'populate or perish' fears of 1945's goal, avoiding another Japanese invasion attempt, verred right off the track. Those same Asiatics we had fought to avoid being ruled by in the 1941-45 war were now viewed as potential 'New Australians' or migrants. This desperation by Immigration Department officials, unable to fill quotas from Europe, even Southern Europe, allowed ease of entry for S.E. Asian 'boat people', 'our Vietnamese allies' from the war as the Leftist media put it. Allegedly we 'owed' them free entry. These unassimilable yellow trash formed ethnic crime ghettos in our major cities and provided a 'sea' for Triad gangs and further illegals to 'swim' in. They acted much like arrogant Sicilians, only uglier. And despite claiming to be fellow Christians' even Irish Catholic Australians refused to marry Viets, as they had willingly with Sicilians, so the Viets today remain a homogeneous blot on our socio-political landscape.

Learning nothing from the disastrous failure our immigration policy had become 2000 saw a media blitz about 'Darfur' an obscure province of Sudan but one where potential refugees were dying. That this massacre of black Muslims by Arab Muslims should be of any concern to us was never questioned by our media or politicians. Soon thousands were winging their way to our cities, already bursting from the crime and filth of almost sixty years of racial pollution. Like Sicilians and Viets before them these Africans had no cultural or physical value for white Australia. Admittedly the Sicilians & Greeks had been seasonal labourers in our construction and manufacturing industry, much like Mexicans in Southern California, till they discovered 'workers compensation' for work place injuries and, collectively, so rorted the system it was bankrupted and had to be abolished. The physically weaker Viets had never been much use as anything but criminals. So the question the few remaining whites in Australia now ask: will Sudanese and Somalis be initial hard workers, like the Southern Europeans, or permanent parasites like Viets? REI.

Who said our culture NEEDS 'enriching'?

you're not Christian<sup>too</sup>
Neither are most Australians.

Since when? <sup>too</sup>
we were a colony, never colonisers.

My <sup>too</sup>
But we must show compassion. It's Christian principle.

My <sup>too</sup>
but we're GUILTY
of colonialism & exploitation...

My <sup>too</sup>
But we owe others...

BBC World Service ci- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 5.30am Saturday 13 August 2005:

Reporter Caroline Gluck, Taipei: Taiwanese military have concluded exercise simulating Chinese missile strike on capital's Central Business District. Spokesman Colonel Guo Yung Jen says they hope to impress Taiwan's legislators of need for an adequate missile defence shield. Taiwan's US$15 billion defence budget has been blocked in Parliament for past year. Recent Pentagon report says China now has 730 ballistic missiles on the coast opposite Taiwan aimed at what it sees as a 'rebel' province.

[Last week Taiwan's military simulated attack by Mainland Chinese Special Forces on one of its air bases. Blocked budget is due to Nationalist Opposition. When Communists overran China in 1949 Kuomintang-Nationalist (KMT) government evacuated to Taiwan in their own version of Dunkirk. For 50 years they sat perched off-shore, awaiting an opportune moment to return, all the while claiming to represent all China as did the Mainland Red government. Was called 'One China' policy - both China's claimed to rule all of China and refused to 'recognise' the other. In 1972 this fiction was dealt a death-blow by US President Nixon's trip to Beijing. His subsequent support for 'Red China' co-opted Taiwan out of their seat at the UN and in the Permanent Security Council. But still the KMT maintained the fiction. This lack of an alternate vision eventually cost them power in Taipei but they still cling to it. Current government are true nationalists and seek a realistic solution with a free and independent Taiwan. Unfortunately this exposes KMT as fakes, 'Nationalist' in name only, like so many others around the globe. By their blocking of the budget they encourage the Mainland to invade. These fake 'Nationalists' would rather see Taiwan die than give up on the 'One China' delusion they and the Reds share. RE].

BBC World Service ci- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 5.30am Saturday 13 August 2005:

In speech at Lahore Pakistan President Perez Musharraf called on Muslims to reject "extremism". Said it was "intolerance" that kept Muslims "behind others". [Like Malaysia's Muslim Prime Minister Mahathir Mahomed this leader recognises Islam as dead-weight, dragging down all. What a mess these infidels have made of Britain and now Australia. The truth is Jesus alone is the true path to GOD (John 14.6). Allah is a fraud. Is not extremism that is the problem. Is the falsehood of Islam itself. Repent, sinners! (Ez. 3.18). RE].

New Delhi: Indian Parliament has voted to allow its air force to shoot down any hijacked aircraft that may potentially be used as a missile. Is their response to the September 11 2001 attacks in the US.

Reporter Tabitha Morgan, Larnaka: Helios Airways jet with 120 passengers crashed into hills near Athens. Early reports said two Greek Air Force f-16's were scrambled to 'assist' the jet. Fighter pilots reportedly saw one pilot apparently asleep at controls and other not in his seat. Later reports say air force men saw two men struggling for control of the aircraft. Is not clear if these were passengers.

BBC World Service ci- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 5.00am 'Pacific Footsteps' Thursday 18 August 2005 (30 minutes):

Papua New Guinea Prime Minister Sir Micheal Somare claimed: "we have Chinese investing AUD$650 million in our country". PNG Development Minister complained: "all across the world people are leaving their villages for the cities where they find jobs in industry. But here people leave for the cities and can't find jobs because we don't have any industries".

BBC World Service ci- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 5.30am Thursday 18 August 2005: Series of bombs in Iraq killed 40 and wounded 100. A bomb at a bus station was followed by one at the hospital where many of the wounded were taken.

Britain has seen a six-fold increase in religious hate crimes since 7th July 2005 Tube bombings.

Steven Lehi of Leumi Entertainment, London speaks on launch of The Apprentice TV show franchise in a Chinese market: "There won't be any humiliation. It is not seen as culturally appropriate. I originated the Krypton Factor in Britain long before the current reality show craze. It took off in New Zealand but not in the US where they watered it down".

[Reality shows began in Jewish mind: Lehi and Leumi were names of two Jewish terrorist groups in Palestine 1940-49, the Irgun Zvi LEUMI and the LEHI or 'Stern Gang'. Why choose such a horrific alias? Why not Himmler or Goebbels? RE].

BBC World Service ci- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 5am 'Analysis' programme Friday 19 August 2005 (30 minutes):

Reporter Tim Lan Jin, Tegucigalpa: Justice system in Guatemala is collapsing. Number of lynchings in the countryside and targeted killings of judges in the cities means few see 'justice' as obtainable. A solution was presented this year to Guatemala, a unique approach but one that was rejected. First by the Congress, then by the country's highest court. Funded by the UN and staffed entirely by foreigners an body independent, CISCAC, would have both pursued criminal investigations and prosecuted offenders. In effect this would have by-passed the tainted and under-resourced police and the allegedly corrupt judiciary.

of what? Being cool
white, rich - ☺
and intelligent?
That's no crime.

But we owe... err...
we're GUILTY... err...

what?

But I FEEL guilty!

we came as white-slaves to build this continent with no 'help' from blacks or Asians. Let's keep it that way.

...of NOTHING! You want to live with blacks or Asians?
Move to Africa
at Africa! Don't bring them here!

BBC World Service c/- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 5.30am Friday 18 August 2005: Bill before Zimbabwe Parliament prevents court challenges to land seizures. Thousands of cases clog Zimbabwe's courts since seizure of white farms began several years ago.

Köln: Thousands of young German Catholics greeted new Pope as he passed on cruise of River Rhine. Was his first visit to homeland since election as Pope. Spoke to youth of need for "intense dialogue with Jews and Muslims to build a community of faith and brotherhood".

Deutsche Welle Radio Newslink c/- SBS Radio 93.3 FM 4.30am Saturday 20 August 2005: Reporter Shane Hooten, Berlin: A court in Berlin has convicted an Algerian man over the September 11 2001 attack in New York. He is one of only six people world-wide to be convicted or under sentence for those attacks. His previous conviction was overturned on appeal by Germany's highest court two years ago. This caused outrage in the US leading directly to his retrial and today's conviction. Many expressed surprise saying the prosecution never proved its case. ['Outrage in the US' means the invisible Masters in NYC were upset a German court could dare to show justice. Now have had their way. Is anyone, anywhere out of their reach? RE].

Reporter Ver Hesler, Berlin: CDU Leader Angela Merkel has promised to appoint Pierre Kershoff to her Finance Ministry should she win Germany's Parliamentary elections in one month's time. Kershoff has called for a flat tax of 25% of both individuals and corporations. SPD members say this is "unjust" as it will mean massive tax cuts to the rich and a tax hike on the poor. SPD government of Schröder is tipped to lose the poll. [After gaining 25% of the vote in 13.6.1998 Qld elections Pauline Hanson was persuaded to announce a "flat tax". The Leftist-controlled media used it to ridicule her out of existence. At the following 13.10.1998 Federal elections she gained only 7.5% and no seats. Has Merkel been tricked into saving Schröder's butt? RE].

Bisha Opal, Bangkok: Thai Interior Minister plans to install 1,000 cable TV sets in public coffee shops in three troubled provinces in the country's South. Sets would be provided free and play only English Premier Football League (soccer). Thais are 'soccer mad' and EPFL is a top rating show on pay-TV. It is hoped the scheme will distract Muslim youth from joining radical Islamist organisations. [Why not give out cheap drugs and alcohol? Works in Australia. RE].

Reporter Steven Beard, London: British universities using 'plagiarism detection' software uncovered 6,500 cases of plagiarism last year. Experts blame increased "financial pressures" and see the Internet as a "temptation". Several companies offer 'custom-made' essays and even doctoral theses. Essays sell for 200 pounds. Are 'plagiarism-detection' free so university computer programmes cannot spot them. [a 'vox pop' of Asian students showed all approved cheating. RE].

BBC World Service c/- SBS Radio 87.1 FM 5am Saturday 20 August 2005: Presenter Fiona McDonald: Three men, including an Imam, from a Sunni political party were killed in Bagdad today. Iraqi Islamic Party did not take part in Iraq's last election but intended taking part in the next elections. The three men were putting up election posters when eight car-loads of men arrived. These took them to a nearby mosque. Outside in the street the three were shot to death in front of a large crowd.

Köln: In speech at synagogue Pope Benedict called for unity between Jews and Christians to "combat racism and anti-Semitism" and lamented rise across Europe of opposition to immigration.

ABC Radio National 936AM News 5pm Sunday 21 August 2005: XX World Youth Day in Köln ends today when 800,000 young people conclude their five-day conference.

ABC Radio National 936AM The Music Show 5.15pm Sunday 21 August 2005 "Nostalgia" (45 minutes): Presenter Andrew Ford: "Not long after England's Queen Elizabeth 1 died there arose a popular Jacobin cult devoted to her. They saw her rule as a 'golden era' ignoring the fact she ran a dictatorship. Jazz is 100 years old. It first appeared in New Orleans but drifted North in the 1920's. It did not become popular until many years later, at the time of the big bands and 'swing' music of Benjamin 'Benny' Goodman. Likewise Frank Sinatra was not popular till he signed with Capitol Records in the 1950's. But the songs he sang for Capitol were 20 years old, for example Young At Heart was written by Johnny Richards in the 1930's. So why was Sinatra popular? His fans were nostalgic for an imagined past. Historian Geoffrey Blainey's book Black Pot, Full Moon sees nostalgia as like Marie-Antoinette playing being a dairy-maid by living in 'the country'. [Like the 4WD cult & Aussie myth of 'the Bush' a la Crocodile Dundee, Steve 'Croc Hunter' Irwin, etc]. Australian composer Jeffrey Tozer: "when you live in a time of lies and half-truths and are lead by character-less men there is a tendency to see the past in heroic terms" [explains Rightist hunger for Third Reich memorabilia. RE].

ABC Radio National 936AM News 9pm Monday 22 August 2005: Reporter Scott Holdaway, Perth: A meeting of Defence, Trade and Foreign Affairs Ministers from Singapore and Australia today signed agreement to extend Singaporean Army's control of Queensland's Shoalwater Bay by another five years.