Great Barrier Reef: An ANA supporter attended a patriotic meeting of another organisation to hear a range of speakers in mid-July 2006. One of these was a Dr Walter Starcks, an American scientist who specialises in the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority and its 'workings'. From Dr Starcks evidence GBRMPA is yet another ALP disaster. Two examples: Since early 2006 250 individuals have been fined for 'illegal activity' on the GBR. This includes being present in any area where human presence is 'excluded'. In early 2006 the 'exclusion zones' was overnight increased to cover 30% of the GBR, the largest reef in the world. Why exclude humans?

Over the years the GBRMPA has manufactured reason doomsday scenarios to justify exclusion of all humans. In the 1970's it was presence of the Crown of Thorns Starfish, allegedly 'eating all the coral polyps'. This came to nothing. Turned out to be a natural and regular occurrence. Then the next 'furfy' (lie) was oil spills from passing vessels transiting the reef. Again, no evidence. Then came the great 'anchor chain' debate, i.e. boats moored for recreational fishing or sight-seeing were 'dragging anchor' and irreparably damaging the reef. Once again, all theory and no evidence. But this constant doom-saying did have the effect of establishing in the 'general publics' mind that the GBR was some "fragile, delicate thing" that needed protecting, not the largest structure in the world. This lead inevitably to calls from the misinformed public for it to be protected. This lead to the exclusion zones of today. What makes them remarkable, apart from them being a bureaucratic invention and totally unnecessary, is that that cover not just the reefs but vast 'legs' of open ocean.

To avoid crossing one 'leg' you need a Global Positioning System with their coordinates fed in. That is where the arbitrary and draconian fines appear. It is also recorded as a Criminal Conviction, so anyone caught in the GBRMPA E.Z. cannot travel to the USA. If you are a Real Estate agent or Car Dealer you automatically lose you licence and your job. Of 250 accused of breaching Exclusion all but two have been convicted. "This is extraordinary! Normal criminal conviction rates are only 30-40%. This must be a Kangaroo Court. The only two not convicted were a US science student who'd returned home and they didn't want any 'diplomatic trouble' with the US. The other was a Real Estate agent who hired a Queens Counsel to defend him at cost of AUD$10,000." ['diplomatic trouble'? More likely US media would have revealed ridiculous nature of 'crime' and entire fictitious nature of GBRMPA. RE].

In one case a fisherman was trawling and a large ship crossed his path. He was forced to turn into one of the GBRMPOA 's sea 'legs' and was fined for that: avoiding a collision. The second area of fines applies to those few, only 25% of the previous fleet, still allowed to fish near the GBRMPA at all. These must hand in the GBRMPA a written report on each fish caught within five hours of return to port, or face a AUD $200,000 fines. "Now most commercial fishermen are high school drop-outs. That why they became fisherman. Paperwork is not their strong point. And when you've been battling seas all night and return home at 3a,m is the first thing you want to do, government paperwork? And what happens to this 'urgently required paperwork? No one knows. It ends of n some bureaucrats desk, gathers dust in a draw. Maybe someday to be entered into a report no one will read".

[In short, Dr Starcks is telling us the GBRMPA is simply another SOCIALIST nightmare foisted on a formerly free people. RE].

Interestingly a member of the Qld National Party was present at Conference. She revealed NPA Young Nationals had moved a motion at the recent State Conference to have GBRMPA "abolished. It was opposed by the Federal MP for the area, NPA's Philip Neville (?). He asked the matter be 'tabled' so the Conference voted against it and it was defeated". So NPA, false 'farmers friends' again sold them out to the ALP's nomenklatur. Two arms, same body.

About English Bishop the African John Sentamu. BBC recently reported the actual leader of the world's Anglicans is the Bishop of Lagos, Nigeria who leads the 2/3's of the C of E which are now either African or Asian. This is the so-called 'traditional' wing of the 23 million-member church. They are in dispute with the more 'liberal' wing lead by the three million-member American or Episcopalian church. In 2006 the US church appointed a 'openly gay' bishop breaching an agreement made by all C of E churches world-wide. The Lagos bishop has ordered the US to rescind this appointment. They refuse. Stay posted.

C of E welcomes Third Worlders as it needs members. C of E embraced the 1960's Leftist agenda i.e. 'social gospel'. This compromised the true Gospel forcing most whites to abandon the church. Same happened in all Western churches. Is why the church in the West is in decline. Was all part of Russia's Cold War strategy. They saw the Church was a major bulwark of Christian West but their Leftist toadies could not defeat the Gospel message - of salvation by faith not works - so infiltrated the seminaries and corroded the church from within. Took them 30 years but now job is almost complete with most 'mainstream' churches dead or dying. Youth and fundamentalists are fleeing to the 'Pentecostal' churches like Hillsong in Sydney which now has branches in London & Kiev. Brits see this 'Aussie' church as their new model.

One imported US phenomena is the mega-church. Instead of a congregation of 80-100 people they have 1,000-10,000. Watch the Christian City Church or Hillsong TV shows one Sunday morning. Are huge. More like discos/night-clubs - all singing, all dancing. Another trend is 'affiliates'. Our local Dutch Reformed Church is affiliated with Willow Creek Association in US. WCA has 2,500 'affiliates' world-wide. All sermons etc are downloaded off the Internet from WCA HQ. Is like a 'denomination' but isn't as includes churches from all the old denominations.

Two possible reasons why so many third worlders have joined the C of E. First is Third World has few honest institutions yet all blacks have a 'hand-out' mentality. Expect, nay demand, the white West feed them, etc. Fools in the West are only too happy to respond. But how to distribute 'aid' without a government infrastructure? Use Non-Government Agencies but chiefly the Church which alone has a 'network' in every little town and village and unlike the UN or Red Cross has few 'overheads'. Being in the Church is to control the flow of cash, food, etc to your immediate area. i.e. POWER.

All this gives status. Look at Bishop Desmond Tutu who helped overthrow white ruled South Africa and install the Communist ANC. Would anyone have listened to him if he'd been just another black politician? But as Bishop he commanded respect and an instant media audience. Look at the Dalai Lama. He is a rebel leader, as the Chinese say, but gets to meet the US President and all world leaders by claiming to be a 'spiritual leader'. Neat trick.

A second reason is Church Membership confers 'honorary white' status on natives. Who cares if these kill each other or starve - but when they're 'fellow Christians' we all sit up and pay attention.

When the Roman Empire collapsed in the face of in-rushing barbarians these did not usurp Rome's customs but adopted them. A visitor from Byzantium noticed some years after the fall of Rome that the Goths who now ruled in Rome had continued such Roman customs as wearing togas and giving each other titles such as 'Senator'.

Same happened in China when the Manchus conquered it and ruled for 250 years. They adopted local, Chinese, customs. In this way they can appear as a 'continuity' of those they've usurped but it also confers on them an instant status they could not otherwise obtain.

We see in the US a black 'congressman' running for President. Just like Rome the US is being subverted by invaders. Many historians cannot agree why Rome collapsed or even when because it died slowly, submerged under a human tidal wave. Rome sought to stay afloat by allowing entry to the better aliens but these inevitably corrupted Rome. The aliens for their part wanted the status of being Romans. A mutual pretense existed.

This can occur in Rightist circles. Years ago ANA were asked to membership to Samoans. These told us 'we fight Vietnamese. So do you. Let us fight them under the ANA banner.' Down South, Cambodians used the same argument. Our wise leader, Michael Brander, refused saying 'it could cause problems.'

C of E think their appointment of Sentamu will meet a need but it will only create more problems. Just this week Anglican Bishop Desmond Tutu of South Africa, one of the chief opponents of white rule, denounced the murder rate there as the world's highest. He moaned: 'we are killing ourselves!' Sounded sincere. But is he? As an African he knows it is their nature to be savages. Is he in denial? Maybe he, like Sentamu, is so desperate to be seen as 'white' he apes white attitudes. Is important we remember this as our country fills up with 5,500 more Africans each year. By their 'attitudes' they hope to appear white but don't be fooled - they aren't.

Sincerity will not save them as it did not 'save' the Goths. Their king Theodoric styled himself 'Roman Emperor'. It didn't make Theodoric a Roman & being a C of E bishop won't make Sentamu white. People's self-delusions are very powerful. Many believe we live in a 'democracy' just because the media say so. These forget what was this 'democracy' did to Pauline and Sir Joh.

ENCOUNTER WITH GOD FRIDAY 3 AUGUST 2007

DOUBLE LISTENING

Midway through August 2006, visitors to York Minster were startled to find a small tent pitched in a side chapel. In front of it the Archbishop of York, Dr John Sentamu, kept vigil. He had cancelled his holiday and for a week fasted and prayed in response to the violence unfolding in Lebanon and northern Israel. In an interview he described how 'for some days he had been listening for a divine word' and had come to discern God's voice through two distressing TV reports and in his daily Scripture readings. Identifying with the suffering of a grievously injured and bereaved eight-year-old Lebanese child and an elderly Israeli widow ('she could be my niece, that woman my mother'), Sentamu then read Jesus' words in Mark 9:29 to his powerless disciples who had failed to heal a child, that such healing could come about 'only through prayer and fasting.' And that was my word. I thought, this is the same. It's got to be prayer and fasting...' His Old Testament readings reminded the archbishop of how God's people had been tent dwellers, and of the tents of the Lebanese refugees: 'These people are camping out, so I will camp out.' The archbishop accompanied his 'prophetic enactment' with public letters and interviews, calling for government and Church action to bring about a ceasefire, for generous giving to help those caught up in the conflict, and for national prayer and fasting.<sup>1</sup> (Easy: Abolish Israel)

This dual attentiveness to the (world) and to God's Word characterises all true prophets. archbishop's unusual 'prophetic enactment' in York Minister had an extraordinary impact in his local community. And was it coincidence that on the day after his vigil began a ceasefire was in place?

UPHOLDING A TRADITION

Arriving in Banda Aceh in the aftermath of the 2004 Boxing Day tsunami is an experience Mark Hanley (MBBS 2001) will never forget.

One of a long line of battalion doctors who have studied at UQ, Dr Hanley was among the first group of foreign medics to arrive in the devastated region.

A trained paratrooper and helicopter medic, Dr Hanley said he had been inspired to serve in the armed forces by former Surgeon General of the Australian Defence Force and former Deputy Dean and Acting Dean of the UQ Faculty of Medicine Professor John Pearn.

"I fondly recall Professor Pearn speaking to the graduate medical course on our first day," he said.

"His introduction included references to the proud military achievements of the medical fraternity at the University, which sparked my interest.

"The Australian Army has a long association with UQ, preceding General Macarthur using UQ as his Allied Headquarters in World War II."

After returning from Indonesia, Dr Hanley spent four months in East Timor helping to ease civil unrest in the country.

Currently on leave from the Army to spend more time with his family, Dr Hanley said he planned to return to UQ for Master of Public Health studies in the near future.

An 11 year old's 'Getting of Wisdom': An associate of ANA has 11 year old daughter in Year Seven at local school learning about 'bad Hitler'. Associate has pictures of Fuhrer in every room, but daughter, under influence of ALP's P-10 SOSE (Study Of Society & Environment) programme, now rejects this. So how did her Father approach this instance of doubting? Dad: "there are two groups in the world. Those who want to destroy it and those who wish to preserve it. These two groups are locked in a perpetual struggle. But there is an imbalance. The Destroyers control all the banks, media & schools. Through these they control the whole world. Whenever a group of Preservers arise the Destroyers assail them with their media minions, whipping up a mob frenzy. Irony is the Destroyers justify this violence by accusing Preservers of having the same goals the Destroyers secretly pursue. The masses come to hate Preservers & even defend the Destroyers. Every generation the heroic Preservers are vanquished, but each new generation another crop of heroes is born. In 1933 the Man chosen to lead the Preservers was a German". Why did this oblique explanation work? SOSE has taught her to view the world in terms of 'binary opposition' e.g. 'pro-environment' versus 'pro-business' so he told her on World Earth Day 7.7.07.

Reality Versus Perception: In every white land the controlled media ridicule & smear our race. 'Your time is past' mulattos tell us. In 2005 US 'gangsta-rappers' Beyonce and Snoop Doggie Dog sang: "Sorry, goodbye, its over - it's our time now" they meant the white man. How? Whites remain the majority in most white lands. Doesn't 'democracy' mean 'majority rules'? So how do blacks in Australia now own 1/2 of NT and lay claim to cities of Broome & Perth in WA? They are only 1% of our population yet under High Court's 1993 Mabo & 1995 Wik decisions black 'indigenes' now own 100% of OUR continent. This alone reveals 'democracy' to be the enemy of all whites. Examine the falsity of a notion: in theory 51% rule yet in fact it is the 1% that rule. How does this fiction continue? The dozey masses believe the lie. Makes them complicit in their own destruction. They choose to believe the media, not the reality of their own eyes. They SEE all around them thousands of Africans arriving each year. They rely on the media's paid liars to spoon-feed them. In this case there is only silence so the unthinking masses stare dumbly, uncomprehending.

Rain but 'drought': Our controlled 'media' mouth-pieces love to proclaim the myriad 'successes' of this crazy & doomed multicultural experiment to the dumbed-down mob. Latest lie is the 'worst drought in 100 years'. Yet during one week (June 24-30 2006) it rained on Brisbane every night of the week. It was after this that the ALP declared the 13 Shires of SE Qld to be 'Level Three' water restrictions. After a week of being drenched daily?! Even the stupidest plebe's began to doubt so local N.W.O. tabloid, Murdoch's Courier-Mail, ran a 1/2 page Page One photo showing an empty dam. Looked like Death Valley in the US, not something from Qld but it worked. By the next day, media reported that 'public opinion' was again in lock-step: all agreed there was still a 'drought', all the while holding their umbrellas up to keep the rain off. Proves media-induced group-think is stronger than an individual's experience of being wet for a week. Unfortunately not an isolated event but increasingly the norm. Appears elite-rule is impossible to break so long as ruling clique, lead by our local race-mixer Murdoch, have sole rule of all Australian media.

This reoccurred on 9 March 2007. Despite one week of solid rain, with Wivenhoe Dam receiving 44mm of rain in one night, Beattie's ALP declared Level Five Water Restrictions to be in place. Again, the lapdog media bayed in agreement. Again the dumbies ignored the pouring rain and obeyed. Patriotic leader Tony Pitt (RIP 2006) once said "38% of the masses would vote ALP even if their first policy was to have them all shot". It seems to have become 100%! What does Level Five restrict us to? No more than five showers per day per household, no car washing or garden watering. Only six loads of washing per WEEK. Only one dish-washing per day. Any who break these rules are allowed one warning then their water is CUT OFF. According to the pages one and three of Courier-Mail Wednesday 3 April 2007. Atheistic socialists challenge GOD with abortion, divorce and queer laws. GOD strikes back with drought.

Unexplained Event - 8.32pm Tuesday 29 Mai 2007: Due to $100 monthly Internet bill from AAPT, which was rising by $10 per month with no end in sight, in April 2007 your Editor changed his home computer over to Telstra Bigpond. Despite Telstra's introductory 'freebies' our first month's bill from them came to whopping $308.14! I received this @ 8pm 29/5/07. There followed 32 minutes of frantic searching the Internet for Bigpond's 'usage meter' plus tight questioning of other household residents as to "who's been using the 'Net & for what?!" We discussed 'unplugging it' till we could get the bill 'under control', our sole reason for getting on 'the Net' was to set up a Website & to send /receive e-mails from Kameraden.

At exactly 8.32pm, whilst discussion continued to rage, the phone rang. A male voice with a thick Bombay (India) accent announced "the purpose behind my call is to assure you your next month's phone bill will be considerably cheaper. Thank you & good night". He then hung up. When this sunk in we were all stunned into silence.

Why ring us NOW? Two possibilities only arose: Is widely known Telstra Bigpond use Bombay call-centres. But the timing suggested something more sinister: they were following the discussion in our house! Can only assume they saw us viewing the 'usage meter' for 32 minutes & wanted to calm us down. Raises a second question: given our groups virulent anti-Asian posture, has ASIO 'out-sourced' its spying to Indian secret services? Is not the first time something discussed at home has turned up in 'the media' within a week. Could all be written off as paranoia or egotism, but...did ASIO's Bombay cohorts want us to stay 'on-line' as they are lazy. Prefer to 'tap' our e-mails rather than open our snail-mail as they currently do?
