'DEMOCRACY' AUSTRALIAN-STYLE: In our Febua 2008 STORM we spoke of this country having entered an era of dictatorship. Some thought us guilty of hyperbole or exaggeration. So in this issue we'll examine one small part of that 'democracy': do parallels exist in your local area? If so, conclude: "everything about the current set-up is crooked, corrupt and criminal. That matches classical definitions not of 'democracy' but 'dictatorship' "

'OVER-GOVERNED': In mid-2007 the Qld public were informed by State ALP Beattie-led government: 'you are over-governed'. Beattie's solution: abolish half the local government areas & 'merge' these with the other half in 'amalgamations'. Of course, only non-ALP ruled councils were to be abolished. All would be merged with larger ALP-ruled councils. Large urban centres, home to most welfare cheats, malingerers and aliens, would swallow up their surrounding mostly white-flight rural townships. Those who thought they'd escaped ALP's atheistic, anti-male, anti-white rule were again ensnared.

CASE STUDY - PINE RIVERS SHIRE COUNCIL: Our study is of Pine Rivers Shire Council (PRSC). Dormitory city to Brisbane, the State capital, PRSC had 135,000 citizens. Was founded only in 1994 but had grown as a cheaper alternative to Brisbane's one million cramped residents themselves overrun with Abos, aliens and Reds fleeing Southern slums of Sydney & Melbourne. As these now over-crowded & slum-ified Brisbane many local whites moved across to PRSC. Was only a short train ride to their jobs in Brisbo and then back to sane living amongst their fellow whites each night.

"TARGET CHAPMAN": Added bonus was PRSC's sole Mayor for its 13 years was an old colleague of 'Sir Joh'*, former Nationals Cabinet Minister Yvonne Chapman, a fundamentalist Christian. Was she who gained nation-wide attention in 2000 when campaigning against queers using public toilets to meet. She removed all toilet doors to counter this. Media loather her; public adored her. A female 'Sir JOH'. This galled 'local' Murdoch-monopoly outlets & their ALP lackeys. When ALP forced amalgamations onto local councils, an eager media began a barrage of lies and innuendos against 'our Yvonne'.

ALP's MURDOCH MEDIA: Murdoch two local rags are 'the Northern Times' (www.questnews.com.au) and 'Pine Rivers Press' (www.questnews.com.au). Both free weekly 'throwaways'. Usually only ever runs articles of gardening tips & footy results for local high school teams. Most only read them for the free TV guide. But...every three years, at election times, for four weeks their front pages are transformed from 'grow your own vegies' to 'VOTE ALP!' This is the 'secret weapon' ALP have used to secure monopoly rule across Australia. The 'local rag' that carries 'little Jimmy's photo from the footy match' is a trusted source, where TV and radio are not. Is almost like 'one of the family'.

Whereas other media are seen as 'outsiders' the local rag is seen as 'one of us'. Paedophile-dominated** ALP abuse this trust. In fact these 'local' media are foreign-owned, run by a Delaware-based corporation - News Ltd. NL is run by New York based-Murdoch, a US citizen and billionaire who loves to tell 'the masses' what to do and orders governments about like pawns on a chess board.

MEDIA SMEARS: So what happened to the PRSC? In 2008, as usual, both NT and PRP dropped all pretence and 'came out' openly for the ALP's anti-democratic 'merger' plan. But knowing the public were opposed they did this obliquely, from an angle. The following are analyses of NT & PRP headlines during the four week campaign. NT page one Friday 1 February 2008 'WALL OF SILENCE', 'Harassment payout claim rocks council' & 'Council silent over issue' all by Bernie Dowling & Steve D'Arcy. Allegation was a council employee had been harassed by another so the victim was paid out. So? Matter could not be aired as this would breach ALP's own 'privacy policy'. Media knew this but the masses didn't. So for four weeks media demanded something they knew the Council couldn't do without breaking the law. Brilliant.

PRP JOINS ASSAULT: On Wednesday 6 February 2008 PRP followed NT's lead with p.3 'DEMAND FOR ANSWERS' & P.8 editorial 'Truth must be given' and 'investigate doubts in council payout'. Included usual calls for CJC** *to be involved. PRP's page eight 'Letters to the Editor', a key ALP mouthpiece, ran with 'CMC should probe use of funds' & 'extensive changes [to the PRSC] are required'. Was here link was made: amalgamation would remove a corrupt council.

NT's second attack on page one 8 February 2008 'PAYOUT PROBE' 'Public Lockout forces State to Act', 'Minister Launches Payout Probe' & 'Silence Defended - 'We run the Show' again by Dowling & D'Arcy. PRP on page one 20 February 2008 'ENOUGH SILENCE' by B. Dowling.

Third local rag 'The Westerner' (www.thewesterner.com.au) now joined the fray, running an article by Lee Oliver & David Peterson on Thursday 13 March 2008: 'Ritzy Retirement for millionaire mayor'. Alleged Yvonne 'whose salary is $137,00 per year would benefit from sale of land she had held since 1973. When first purchased it was worth $16,500. [Yvonne] sold it in July 2006 for $4.18 million". Media had made no mention of this sale till the election then - BANG! Hoped it would destroy Yvonne. NT ran a full-page advert on page seven Friday 14 March 2008 'PRSC - A need for change' by 'concerned citizen J.H.Grant' (an ALP member). A typical ALP smear. Election was next day - Saturday 15 March 2008.

ALP CORRUPTION CONTINUES UNABATED: In the meantime ALP's Beattie had handed over power to Ultra-Leftist Deputy 'Red Anna' Bligh, descendant of infamous Capt Bligh of HMS Bounty. As would be expected she is a feminist tyrant. Beattie took a post at a Uni in North Carolina lecturing in Law using a fake Doctorate he granted himself from Uni of Qld just before he quit office. (Wife has PhD in history so he wanted one, too). Now has a home in Brevard, NC. As well as his Uni pay he got Bligh to grant him a sinecure (job for doing nothing) at AUD $300,000 per annum as 'Trade Commissioner for the Americas' in Los Angeles (reporter Patrick Lion, page six Brisbane Courier-Mail 19 May 2008). But he's ALP so media don't count all this as 'corruption'.

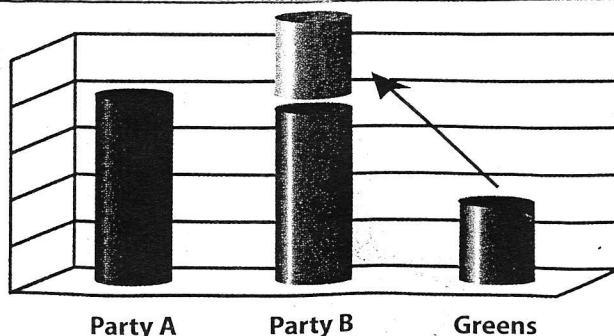

POST-ELECTION IRONY: One reason given by ALP and media for amalgamating local councils was 'increased efficiency'. We hoped that meant saving money on salaries. Apparently not. After 15.3.2008 PRSC was merged with neighboring rural shire of Caboolture & ethno-Abo slum city of Redcliffe. Resultant 'Moreton Bay Regional Council' is ruled by Redcliffe's ALP Mayor Allan Sutherland. His first move: appoint a Regional Administrator. The three mayors of Caboolture, PRSC & Redcliffe had earned roughly $100,000 each. Any 'savings' were blown when the new MBRC Administrator's salary was set at $400,000 (page one NT Friday 18 April 2008 'I Quit' by Bernie Dowling). What saving?

CORRUPT MEDIA -CORRUPT SOCIETY: To make folly even clearer, Ray Burton 'Acting CEO of the new Moreton Bay Regional Council' quit after only one week in office but received a 'golden hand shake' of $300,000 ('$300,000 payout' page three PRP Wednesday 23 April 2008 by - you guessed it - Bernie Dowling). Of course, both PRP & NT 'covered their tracks' by having their 'Letters' sections praise this pay-out as 'finally paying our public servants real money'. A ludicrous and absurd suggestion but one we are sure will never be questioned in either paper....err...rag.

YOUR LOCAL MEDIA: Here we end our analysis. We suggest you do something similar in your area in the lead-up to the next election -State, Federal or Local. Collect the articles from your weekly throw-aways. Then after the election do an analysis. Send us your results. We'll be only too happy to run them.

How preferences work

If you vote  1 for The Greens candidate and they are excluded during the count, your vote will flow to your next preference at full value.

* JOH: Sir Johannes Bjelke-Petersen was Qld Premier for 19 years, 1968-1987. A National Party MP, Christian fundamentalist and Lutheran lay preacher, he rule Qld with an iron hand. Pro-white, pro-Christian, he openly supported apartheid and opposed feminism, queers and every Red/ALP plot. His rule meant aliens and Reds feared to migrate to sunny Qld, leaving us with the lowest ratio of aliens to whites in Australia till 1989, 1:10. After that ALPistas encouraged their alien friends to 'move North' as it was now safe for them. We are now being flooded. When enough had arrived the ALP pulled their 'amalgamations'.

**ALP has more publicly shamed child-molesters than all other parties combined. In June 2008 NSW Cabinet Minister Arkiopoulos was gaoled for such. At same time former ALP NT Senator Bob Collins 'suicided' to avoid gaol for such. At same time former Qld ALP Cabinet Minister Bill D'Arcy was granted release from 15 years by Bligh for such. Former Qld ALP Opposition Leader Keith Wright did nine years gaol for same...Is not just that ALP is only party FOR these queers but seems ALP may require it a 'rite of passage' - Yuk! Is certain any in ALP who 'step out of line' soon find themselves in goal. Why'd Mafia never 'take off' in Australia? ALP got here first!

***CJC is a notorious ALP hyper-police unit that only ever 'investigates' enemies of ALP - like Joh and Yvonne. Was originally designed in 1987 as 'police oversight body' but like everything else in our society has been white-anted and suborned by Left. This writer was threatened - twice - with 'investigation by CJC' by former Qld ALP Deputy Premier Jim Elder, himself later gaoled for corruption. Is badge of honour to be so threatened. Means you've really annoyed the ALP. Is why CJC recently was forced to change its name from Criminal's Justice Commission (whereby ALP's criminals inflict 'justice' on the rest of us) to 'Crimes & Misconduct Commission'. Different name, same crooks.

CJC insider told us of events in 1997 when the Qld Nationals briefly took office for two years between otherwise unbroken ALP rule 1989-2008. CJC's crooks feared being 'closed down' so blatant had been their role as ALP 'enforcers'. So these 'guardians of the law' salted away AUD$126 million in secret bank accounts to enable them to 'continue operations underground' until they could engineer a return to power by their ALP masters. CJC bosses were notorious at that time for eating at top restaurants AKA 'information sessions'; buying lavish gifts for their favourite 'secretaries' AKA 'paying informants'; hiring lots of motel rooms for use in 'stake outs' - one wonder who was being 'staked'. Hmmm. . . . Talk about 'a fox in the hen-house'. One CJC trick was to have all its cars registered under names of fake companies and to issue all staff with fake ID's. Whenever they were stopped by regular police for traffic infringements, especially speeding, they would hand over these ID and rego's, knowing no fines would ever reach them. A 'police oversight body' had become a law unto itself.

BEERWAH FORUM: ANA were proud to be invited to attend another 'roving forum'. On Saturdays 31 Mai 2008 the Sunshine Coast town of Beerwah, 30km North of the State capital Brisbane, joined with Warwick as sequential host to the roving 'SE Qld Forum'. Interest in the 'roving forums' is growing. Warwick saw 30-40 delegates from throughout SE Qld. Beerwah had 95 attend from as far away as Mt Bartle Frere in Far North Qld (2,000km travel) to Cowra, NSW (500km travel).

ALLIANCE OF VETERANS: Growing populist revolt includes many veterans of Right over past 15 years. These saw the rise and fall of Confederate Action Party (1993-95), One Nation (1997-2001), Shooters Party (1998), Reform Party (1998) and Australia First Party (Pt 1). Now resolve NOT to form a 'party' as this only attracts System stooges & secret police informants. 'Roving forum' concept with loose 'leadership' deters infiltrators.

NEW STRUCTURE: As RF's continue to evolve over coming months we hope to engineer a new movement: a disorganized Resistance. Many groups coming together every two months in a different town or city to discuss overall strategy and tactics. In USA the many Nationalist & Rightist groups have over the years been constantly infiltrated by both FBI and various civilian covert organisations (like SPLC) funded by International Finance on behalf of a certain anti-Christ religion. US Right are repeatedly cooperated and subverted.

'LONE WOLF': To prevent this several years ago a 'Lone Wolf' concept was advanced. Saw Rightists operating individually but followed a pre-planned strategy. Unfortunately our type of people work best in groups. Left to their own devices they often did little more than surf the 'Net, visiting cyber-Nazi sites. The 'Net Nazi' was born along with a period of organizational stagnation. Some in US now hope to shake off this failed experiment and return to more organized forms, but...they find the Enemy waiting for them. What to do? Stay safely underground or reemerge and begin the sad saga of infiltration, paranoia, mutual suspicion & mole-hunts all over again.

OUT OF THE CUL DE SAC: We may have found a way around both failed ends. Roving forum is a moving target. Disorganized structure makes it impossible to poison more than a few of its disparate wings at once. Its lack of a formal leadership means no one is responsible for decision so EVERYONE does what they know needs to be done. No leaders means everyone is both an initiator and an instigator of actions. No more deferring to authority. See the need? Meet the need. Stay tuned for more RF news.

DVD REVIEW: 'Enchanted' (103 minutes) (2007). Released by Walt Disney Studios written by 'Bill Kelly', directed by Kevin Lima; producers Aaron Perkasch & Aaron Sonnenfeld; Executive Producers Ezra Sverdlowsk & Sunil Perkasch. Stars Patrick Dempsey (as Robert), Amy Adams (Giselle), Susan Sarandon (Queen Narissa), James Marsden (Prince Edward) & Idina Menzel.

Controlled media critics have praised 'Enchanted' for its 'wickedly funny reworking a of a tired fairytale format'. That's code for 'the Chosen have stolen someone else's cultural icon, twisted it beyond recognition then pedaled it as their own'. Begins with a traditional retelling of the 'beauty meets prince and both live happily ever after'. The couple are to marry but, unfortunately for them, the prince has an evil stepmother - the Queen. Queen Narissa pushes the beauty, Giselle, through a portal into another world - New York City. There she meets & befriends divorced single father & Jewish divorce lawyer, Robert ('Patrick Dempsey': Why do the Chosen always adopt Irish names? Is common in Australia but also in the US). Although prince Edward eventually rescues Giselle by that time it is too late. She has been convinced by the corrupt Robert that 'true love doesn't exist' & 'no one loves someone forever - there is no happily ever after'. So Giselle rejects her prince so she can stay in 'The Big Apple' as temporary wife to the Jew lawyer.

What of the evil Queen? She's been defeated in combat by Giselle. Giselle? The prince, a more traditional hero, stands impotently by while newbie NYC gal Giselle saves her Jew-lawyer Robert from the Queen, who has transformed into a giant dragon. Once the Queen is dead Rob and Gis 'shack-up'. But what of the Prince? He's 'fallen in love' with Robert's cast-off Jewish girlfriend played by Idina Menzel. This Jewess is only too happy to travel with Ed back to his fairytale kingdom of 'Andalasia', where she will now rule as Queen. Unlike Rob & Gis the prince and the Jewess marry. What are Disney thinking? Let's remember Walt's real surname was Elias, not Disney. The past 20 films reviewed by STORM have been based in NYC. Why? The Chosen have thrown off any pretence of there being any world but theirs. The much lauded Left idea of 'World Music' has come to mean simply US black 'rap' and 'hip-hop'.

The twin idea of 'World Culture' is simply NYC-centric idolatry. All other films are remakes of older classics but with whites deleted or white roles replaced by blacks and women. E.g. the 1960's John Wayne revenge epic 'The Searchers' about a white Confederate War vet and 1/2 caste Indian on the trail of white female hostages of the Indians was remade with Cate Blanchett as Wayne and Indians as the heroes! 1962's version of H>G>Welles 'TimeMachine', which predicts a future where weak whites are prey to ruthless black cannibals, was re-made with the roles reversed. Instead of Australian actor Rod Taylor (1964) falling in love with blonde girl in 2005 Australian actor Guy Pearce falls for a black girl he rescues from white oppressors. Disney films will be banned in a future State.
