In early June, academics and activists from all over the world came together in Moscow, Russia for an International Conference on the Future of the White Race. The following is the text of my speech:

From the Edge of the Abyss to the Farthest Star

First let me thank the esteemed organizer of this conference, Pavel Tulaev, for being such a gracious host to all of us from around the world, and we must thank the Russian people for producing such a man as he and for the warm hospitality given us in this city. Few people are aware of the fact that the city of Moscow has the largest number of White people of any city in the entire world.

I have many German friends and I would never diminish the crucial battles fought by the Teutonic Knights in protecting Western Europe from invasions of the Mongol hordes. But with all due respect and reverence to the Germans, it is not Germany who has most earned the moniker, Bulwark to the East, for the Russians fought a hundred battles in defense of European mankind over the centuries for every one fought by the Teutons.

And now, in some ways they take the lead in this fight for the freedom and heritage of our European Genotype all over the world. All of us must feel humbled to be here. We must also send our hopes that your President and his successors will resist the non-Russian powers of nihilism and deracination and will oppose the traditional anti-Russian, alien power that has always threatened Mother Russia. May he lead this great nation to its vital role as a prime defender of not only the Russian heritage but defender of the interests of all European people wherever they may dwell.

Our prayers are sincere that he will act as a true son of his people who honors his mothers and fathers. We send him our respect and hopes.

Finally, we are here not only to honor the Russian people but we must also honor each other, for all the speakers and delegates from around the globe are true patriots not only for their own nations but for our genetic treasure and cultural heritage from which has sprung our individual national expressions. It is a great honor for me to be in the company of each of you ladies and gentlemen and I appreciate the opportunity to share my perspectives with you.

Every one of us comes from nations that were once at war with other. Our coming together now is symbolic that never again must we permit European peoples to go to war with one another.

Our people are at the edge of the abyss.

Our people have scaled the highest mountains, plumbed the depths of the oceans, and crossed great voids of space. We have unlocked the secrets of the Genome. Our medicine has saved hundreds of millions of people from innumerable perils of nature and disease. We have carved sculpture and brushed paintings as beautiful as any scene found in the natural world, written words that evoke the deepest of emotions, the greatest inspiration. Our technology has created a new world. We have even left our footprints on that silver orb at which man has gazed up at for millennia with awe and wonder.

Yet, simultaneous with the fountain of achievements of our people, we have seen our people driven to the brink of nonexistence. We have seen them driven to fratricide since 1914 and are we are now only 8 years shy of 100 years of intermittent war, warfare that has now turned into terrifying proportions by technology now manipulated by non-European minorities in our midst, ancient foes who historically were occasional thorns in our feet, but who now plant and nurture malignant tumors in the innermost chambers of the Western heart and brain.

There is a shadow lengthening across the European and American continents. It represents the destruction of all that we love, the eradication from the earth of a people that represent the epitome of beauty to each of us, a folk whose magnificent history, and works and art, culture, science that stirs wonder in our hearts and inspiration in our souls. That specter represents degeneration, decay, and destruction of our freedom and ultimately even extinction of our genes. It is aptly called genocide and represents just that: the killing of our genes. For our people, the people of Athenia, and Rome, of Russia, and Italy, Spain and Norway, Germany and Greece, France and England, and of North America, Australia and New Zealand, we now are hurtling toward the precipice of genocide, a precipice that leads to the abyss below.

Today, every nation of people of European descent faces a crisis not only of identity but even existence.

Our birthrates are averaging about 1.2. Translated it means that we are liquidating more than 40 percent of our population each generation. It is the greatest world wide genocide in our history, whose terrible result will even eclipse the plagues and invasions of the Middle Ages. Even the Black Plague worked its way through each nation for one generation and then subsided. For in the face of the ancient pathogens of Black Plague, our people worked up immunity to this threat.

In regard to this new threat the government and media of the so-called West have worked overtime to suppress our natural immune system, our love of our heritage and nations, and to imprison, kill, suppress in every way possible (excuse the simple analogy) the White blood cells who have struggled heroically against the invaders. The current pathogens that decimate us have now worked their destructiveness through one generation and they only gain momentum with time.

Make no mistake. It is genocide.

The birthrate of our people is now only 1.2 world wide. What does this mean in real terms?

It means that every 100 European American men and women will only give birth to fewer than 60 children. The next generation will bequeath fewer than 36 children, and the next generation less than 22, the next fewer than 13, and in only the fifth generation, that original hundred will be less than 8!

In other words, in the long existence of our people, stretching back for tens of thousands of years and thousands of generations, it will take only 5 short generations, an historical blink of the eye, to wipe over 90 percent of our population off the face of the earth.

There are many reasons for the low birthrate, probably the most dynamic factor is the alien media emanating primarily from Hollywood and New York that promotes soulless materialistic consumerism and solipsism, alien values that attack our deepest perceptions of morality and decency, which leads to rates of disease that in turn lead to infection and sterility, even homosexual self-destruction and non-reproduction.

Hollywood's Brokeback Mountain, for instance, was not only an attack on the icon of my country's most heroic and masculine image, the American cowboy, it's message attacked all of our values and standards wherever it played to audiences of European descent. Every homosexual couple whether male or female is another couple of Europeans whose genes are extinguished forever.

Radical Feminism, also driven to prominence by its non-European progenitors such as Betty Friedan and Gloria Steinem, as well as the non-European media that I have mentioned earlier, has caused far too many beautiful and brilliant women from giving those wonderfully expressed genes new life and new beauty. We must not forget the political sources of this low birthrate, the fact that so many of our people cannot afford to have children while they are forced to subsidize a high non-European birthrate among minorities at home and massive aid to the growing non-White human sea that wraps around the earth.

A full Symphony Orchestra dedicated an entire performance to the Conference in one of Moscow's prominent theaters. Afterward all the international speakers came up and spoke to the enthusiastic audi-

Immigration

As our population implodes, that of the Third World explodes, and that mass is surging, pressing at our borders and pouring over them like the endless ocean that pours over the rails of a floundering ship. As our ships of state sink lower the rush of the sea comes faster and faster. And my friends there is another factor: an ancient supremacist group that proudly boasts its non-European origin that has infiltrated the halls of power in our White kingdoms. Through their economic, political and media influence they have been the primary force behind destroying our dikes and seawalls in the face of the immigration tsunami.

More on the nefarious effects of immigration in a moment, but as we discuss the immediate disasters wrought by mass immigration, we must never forget that there is no immigration problem in the West without the deep subversion that has taken place within our societies.

Today we have with us representatives of Spain and Greece, two nations painfully aware of the role of this non-European minority opening the gates to the invaders in Spain and Constantinople. And for the last 60 years, since the end of the Second World War, they have led both the both the political mechanisms and the media propaganda for the current invasions.

When we were healthy at home there was no insidious immigration threat. Routing out this alien force within our societies must be our first task. For just one of these subverters bending the ears of kings, presidents and counselors, or broadcasting to our folk — is more dangerous to us than a million of the ragged barbarians pounding and tearing at our gates.

This non-European supremacist group has through a hypocritical team effort deceitfully gained control over our major communication media and mesmerized many of our people into believing that the extinction of our people will not be the greatest human catastrophe of all time, but somehow will be a blessing to the earth, and that it is somehow noble for us to commit racial suicide.

Ironically, the same people who tell us extinction of European mankind is good, are the same ones that tell us that the greatest crime of all time was the alleged attempt in World War II of the Germans to drive the Jews to extinction. Yet, somehow our impending demise is not only not considered a crime of immense proportions, but this greatest of all human catastrophes is hardly even mentioned by press or politicians. For instance, what a scandal it is that this is one of only a tiny number of conferences held anywhere in the world that simply addresses the imminent disaster facing our folk.

It is not just a reduction of numbers we endure, for in every European nation, great waves of non-European immigration conquer our mores, our faiths, our politics, even our serenity and security. In Europe, the alien masses and ideologies have penetrated with its agents in every capitol, making once serene and secure streets, neighborhoods and subways places of pregnant fear and aborted freedom.

In America, illegal and legal immigration, differential birthrates and European American sterility have transformed a overwhelming 90% European American majority with an almost 100 percent Western mindset into a nation where the 200-year overwhelming European American majority will become a minority in but a generation. Such demographic change is so terrifyingly fast, it is but a blink of an eye of historical time, only a single second in our historical hour, but a second that can end a race as surely as a second of time can still the heart of a living man.

It is not just our aging population that is dying. It is us. Our history is dying, our present, our future, our dreams, our hopes, and that of all that came before us, all those that sacrificed to give us material well being, freedom. And now, the most elemental of all, the very Life of our people itself, is seriously in question.

For we are a unique form of life on this planet no less distinct than the breeds of fish, or dolphins or whales, or Tigers. Should we not be allowed to live? Our expression of life in our very existence is being eradicated, erased from the earth. We can see many examples of this disregard for our own European life.

Let me quote from the Associated Press of Friday, November 04, 2005

Paris Rioters Set Woman Afire

AUBERVILLIERS, France — Marauding bands of Muslim youth set fire to cars and warehouses and pelted rescuers with rocks early Saturday, as the worst rioting in a decade spread from Paris to other French cities. The United States warned Americans against taking trains to the airport via strife-torn areas.

A savage assault on a bus passenger highlighted the dangers of travel in Paris' Muslim-filled and impoverished outlying neighborhoods, where the violence has entered its second week.

The African immigrant attackers doused the woman, in her 50s and on crutches, with an inflammable liquid and set her afire as she tried to get off a bus in the suburb of Sevran Wednesday, judicial officials said. The bus had been forced to stop because of burning objects in its path. She was rescued by the driver and hospitalized with severe burns.

All over the world the mainstream media described the rioters as quote "youths." At every opportunity, the TV news well only showed the scattered and rare White Trotskyite throwing a firebomb while ignoring the overwhelmingly clear fact that these riots were driven by racial hatred for all things European.

But, once in while a little truth leaks out in the controlled media. The Associated Press article quoted makes clear who the rioters are and it shows the brutality of the savages who are turned centers of European refinement, culture and civilization into examples of the darkest, common horrors of Africa.

Listen once more to the words of the following paragraph from the Associated Press:

The African immigrant attackers doused the woman, in her 50s and on crutches, with an inflammable liquid and set her afire as she tried to get off a bus in the suburb of Sevran Wednesday, judicial officials said. The bus had been forced to stop because of burning objects in its path. She was rescued by the driver and hospitalized with severe burns.

"African immigrant attackers" throw gasoline on a handicapped White woman and set her on fire!

Now, you tell me how the mainstream press would treat this if White attackers doused a crippled, middle-aged Black woman with gasoline and set her on fire? Tell me please, would not every newspaper from Los Angeles to Paris to Vladivostok, to Sydney be screaming about this horrible racist hate crime as proof of the evil and racism of European mankind?

Would not there be universal condemnation by the politicians against the racial dynamics of this vicious racist attack against a defenseless African woman? But, there has been only deafening silence.

There has been world wide news that I may face hate crime charges in Sweden simply for telling the truth about the downside of immigration and about the crimes of the Jewish supremacist Israeli State.

My moderate exercise of free speech got world wide publicity as a "hate crime." but no major media in the world condemns as racist the racially-motivated burning alive a crippled White woman!

No hate charges have been filed against those who burned this handicapped French woman.

What happened in France is similar to what happened in my once lovely, home city of New Orleans in the African mayhem unleashed by Hurricane Katrina. And by the way, I see some here who contacted me with concern over the Katrina damages to my home and office. Thank you all so much for your heartfelt support.

The world heard of roving gangs of looters, but you were not told that these gangs racially abused and targeted White people resulting in our people suffering hundreds of victims of rape, robbery and murder.

In New Orleans not only did the African savage gangs shoot at rescue helicopters and boats, they actually went into and terrorized children's hospitals and nursing homes for the elderly and infirm. Mobs of Africans hurled racial abuse and attacked White men, women and children.

But again, no major media or politicians condemned these racially-motivated physical, violent attacks. And most of you never even heard of the plight of those who share your genotype in the forlorn, ravaged city of New Orleans.

Do these events of savagery sound like America or France? Hell no! They sound like Mogadishu not like New Orleans and not Paris, at least not the New Orleans and Paris of our fathers and mothers! And indeed, New Orleans and Paris and London and a host of other European cities rush headlong toward becoming Mogadishu. And, unless things change, even the largest concentration of White people on the planet, the city of Moscow, is heading toward the same.

Only the brain-dead in Europe and America cannot see the obvious truth that opening our borders to millions of non-Europeans is the most insane, traitorous action in perhaps all of European history, yet it continues in all of its manifest evil.

Millions of Europeans have sacrificed their lives over the centuries to protect the freedom, culture and very life our European people. The politicians and media have literally thrown open our gates to the invaders and even pay them for the privilege of invading us! Of course we pay the price. First it will be our freedom, and then be our very existence. We will be driven to extinction under the siege of this ruthless hatred.

Europe and America are under the lie of Democracy when in truth an oligarchy of money, privilege and alien loyalties rules us. Every poll in every European nation has consistently shown that the great majority of our people oppose the immigration policies that now lead us to this apocalypse.

And yet, governments do almost nothing to stem the rising dark tsunami of immigration and differential birthrates that threaten to wipe out our people. The media tells us that multiracialism only gives us blessings. Burdened social systems, rising crime, gang rape, teeming ghettos of hatred and barbaric riots are the real blessings of immigration, blessings that really are only curses to every decent impulse of our civilization.

Only the blind can fail to see the bloody and bleak horizon for Europe and America in the ethnic cleansing going on right before our eyes. We are being wiped away in our own homelands. Most Europeans and Americans already see this through the fog of media disinformation and political dissimulation — they rightfully oppose immigration and want the interlopers sent home as fast as we can find the boats and planes to do so.

But now, Europeans and Americans must come to realize that simply wanting the protection of our nations, our children, our future — is not enough! Our cheers, our agreement, our hurrahs mean precious little.

We must become active in the Movements all over the world that will give our governments back to our people, that will establish a true democracy of the people's will rather than the alien oligarchy of media and money that rules us. Those of you here who are scholars, you must continue your research, but the time rapidly approaches when you must put down your pencil and man the picket line, the campaign parade, the barricade if need be. You must also stand in the political arena and raise your voice for the survival of your people.

Those of you who are businessmen, must make your ultimate business the survival and freedom of your people.

Those of you who are clergy must save not only the souls of your flocks, but the holy genes that God and his design of Nature has sculpted.

Practicalities

I will address for a moment the frame of our approach to our own masses and to the people of the world. For we are in battle for the hearts and minds of our folk. Here are some realizations I have come to that I will share with each of you.

1. Our problem is ultimately internal not external.

A free and wholly White Russia and Europe and North America, face no insurmountable security issues from abroad. It is not the clash of civilizations between Europe and Asia and Africa that threatens us, it is the clash of racial and ethnic realities within our nations. It is the dynamics of non-European influence over media and government that compose our true Trojan Horse.

Our enemies want us to focus on external threats. In America and Europe they want us concerned about Iraq, Afghanistan, Syria and Iran and various groups that pose a supposed threat to America and Europe.

All this while millions of non-Europeans who constitute in large numbers the most serious threat to our folk and civilization continue to sweep over our borders in a dark tsunami that will drown our respective nations.

At the same time as we must resist immigration with all our might and ability and intellect and courage, it makes sense for Europeans to be consistent, fair and just. Arabia for Arabs, India for Indians, China for Chinese, and our European, American, and Russian Homelands for ourselves and our expression of life.

It is only evil men who seek the destruction of a whole people that would oppose such sensibility, decency and justice. Only evil men would oppose the right of European mankind to live. Make it clear that it is our enemies who are the supremacists, warmongers, oppressors, genocidal forces of history. And, it is not just us over whom they seek supremacy but over the Mideast and indeed, over all the people of the earth.

We must in our own movements support an agreement with foreign lands whereby we pledge to stop interfering with their societies and stop supporting their enemies such as Zionism. If their leaders had that kind of commitment from the West, they would agree to the return of their nationals in Europe and America. For our military power is indeed supreme, it is only our will that is suspect.

2. We must show that we represent justice and not become caricatures of our enemy's media image of us.

Our people are a moral people, they will sacrifice everything, even their own lives to be moral. They must know that we represent what is good for our own people and indeed good for all nations and peoples on the earth. We will not preach one thing for ourselves and something quite different for others. We seek no empire, just the preservation of our homelands and the people that make our homelands truly home.

We are not the promoters or harbingers of hate, it is those who seek to destroy the very life of our people who are the hatemongers. They are masters of war and oppression. It is they that bring on the so-called "clash of civilizations" and the bloody future they hope for in what they call "World War 4."

3. Lessen ideological dogmatism over issues not critical to our survival.

We who desire the preservation of our race, the very life of our people must keep only one ideology at the unifying foreground, that principle is simply,

"What is good for our people we support, what is bad we oppose." What is good for our survival is our ultimate moral standard. It is this concrete goal that must motivate us not some abstract principle.

We have brethren here that are Socialist or Libertarian, Democrat or Monarchist, Communist or Capitalist, Orthodox, Catholic, Protestant and even Atheist. We can argue with our brothers and sisters as we would a family member on the merits of his or her beliefs, but we as a group must be one family, one phalanx, one faith against the enemy arrayed against us. Abstract principle is not important here, it is our concrete survival that is our overwhelming principle.

Let me share with an example of a devastating devotion to an abstract principle.

As you scholars are keenly aware, Greece and the Balkans suffered under long periods of tyrannical rule by the Ottoman Turks. At the end of the 18th century the Ottoman regime forbade the publishing of books seeking the national and ethnic freedom of the Greek people and other people of the region repressed and controlled by the brutal Turkish regime. They suppressed the many books supporting the Christian religious beliefs of the European people of these lands. Even books of science and mathematics were forbidden publication to keep the Greek people down and at heel.

A handful of Greek patriots began a publishing operation in the neighboring Vienna, led by Rigas Velestinlis Fereos and a couple dozen leading personalities.

The Ottoman Sultan opposed this and appealed to the Hapsburg Monarch on the basis of the principle of legitimacy, the watchword of the Napoleonic era. It was the idea that the crown heads would support each other against democratic and national movements. It is similar today to the Neocon led globalism in their advocacy of so-called democratic principles around the world. Too many Whites get obsessed with ideological abstract principles and sometimes follow them in complete disregard of concrete reality.

To the eternal shame of the Hapsburgs, the Monarch who was challenged on this abstract principle of legitimacy, that sovereigns should have control over their own subjects, bowed to the Sultan and closed down the Greek press and turned over Fereos and his European Christian compatriots.

They were taken to Ottoman occupied Belgrade and promptly tortured and murdered. The body of Rigas was thrown in the Sava on June 24, 1798.

(Read The Greek War of Independence by David Brewer, 2003 overlook press.)

Luckily, Fereos' last words were preserved and carried down and I share them with you now. He said, proudly with head held high,

"This is how brave men die, I have sewn the seeds and the time will come when my country will gather the harvest."

Abstract debate must be cast aside. What matters now is the concrete. We have a guide by the Roman example. Many democrats gratuitously quote the supposed Roman motto, Vox Populi Lex Suprema, or the voice of the people is the supreme law, but in actuality the motto that dominated the Roman psyche and government for hundreds of years was actually, Salus Populi Lex Suprema Est - all power to the health or salvation of the people. This was the original Roman maximum.

Although I as an America revere our original Constitution, if our controlled congress and the states legally passed a constitutional amendment that ordered a policy of the end of the White race, I would not allow endorsement of an abstract principle, constitutional law, keep me from defending our people from a concrete threat.

My friends, there is no abstract principle worth the destruction of our people. Our people's welfare must always be the issue, abstract ideological questions of governmental form or religion must always be second to the well being of our people. This is especially true in these times where the question of "to be or not to be" supersedes all other questions all other principles, all other considerations.

4. Clean our Augean Stables.

As I alluded to earlier, our first task is to remove the enemies of our people who are behind our gates, those who sow defeatism, self-hate, self-doubt, weakness, and degeneracy. Not to clean our own Augean stables will condemn us to feel the hooves of our enemies' horses on our own necks. Tell our young not to go to volunteer on the foreign fields of wars born for alien insanities. Dedicate your lives to the battle for freedom and survival right here. This is where our great battle lies not on foreign fields but right here on frontiers and in the hearts of our own homelands.

5. We must call forth the passion in our people.

In every way we must celebrate who we are. We must nurture the love of our people, stop condemning them for their failings; evoke the latent courage that is in the very spiral of DNA in their every cell of our folk. We must wash our hands, hearts and minds with love of our people, devotion to them that makes meaningless even the threat of imprisonment or death.

We must sow the seeds as Fereos said, that is our task, wherever we live, by whatever means at our disposal. No sacrifice is too great, no threat to us too intimidating, no disappointment too daunting.

And, we who are still asleep in the nightmare for our people in the early years of the 21st Century, we must fight our way awake, claw our way to the dawn. Shake off the shroud of defeatism and despair,
