

THE GOLEM by E. Thomson

On the 50th anniversary of Little Rock, Arkansas' forced school Africanization at bayonet-point, I heard a Golem alias Goyim speak. He or it was a member of the 101st Airborne which did the bayonet-pointing on the orders of Anti-White Ike, who was said to be part African, & who showed his abundant hatred for Whites with his deathcamps for German P.O.W.s AFTER Germany's 1945 surrender of May 8th. U.S. schools are often associated with bayonets, ever since children were herded into the Red Schoolhouses after The Civil War by federal ZOG troops.

The Legend of the Golem has been told with the same supercilious solemnity as all other jew fables, from Old Testament to Holohoax, & the "4 billion" jew-victims of the Romans at the Siege of Bar Koziba in The Babylonian Talmud. Hence, The Golem has importance in the jewish body of lies.

As I recall, a rabbi in Prague was annoyed that the Goyim alias Gentiles alias two-legged cattle were neither loving nor fearing the jew occupiers & exploiters, so he determined to rescue his eternally-'persecuted' people by means of magic. In Judaism, the words 'holy' & magic are used interchangeably. Jewish 'magic' usually works because the Gentiles are so stupid, just as a carrot in front of a donkey's nose can motivate him, according to the wishes of his owner. So much for jewish 'magic.'

The rabbi allegedly took some mud from the Danube River & molded it into an anthropoid monster. I'm not sure if he baked it so it would keep its form, but such logic is unnecessary in the concoction of jewish lies &/or magic. So the rabbi had his mud-monster, but it needed magical motivation in the form of a piece of paper upon which the rabbi had written some 'holy', that is, magical script. When that slip of paper was inserted into the immobile mud-monster, it would not only move, but it would obey the rabbi's orders, without question. The rabbi commanded the Golem to "go forth & kill Goyim," which it allegedly did. When the paper was removed, the Golem became its former immobile mud-monster self. Duh! Knowledgeable Goyim observe that the behavior of The Golem was very similar to the behavior of a Goy, when a slip of paper with a suitable denomination is placed in his wallet or bank account. As Dr. Oliver wrote: (allowing for inflation), that most people are swayed by a $100 bill, & the sound of two $100s rubbing together is equated with The Voice of God! My anti-Zionist colleague, Josef Ginsburg, referred to jew 'money' alias I.O.U.s, as "tekla-mekla money," that is, purchasing power made entirely out of hocus-pocus, with abracadabra included as small change. More jewish magic!

The real Golems are not made of mud, but of muscle & blood, as described in the song, "16 Tons," with a mind that's weak & a back that's strong. Such critters do, in fact, exist, for I heard one's mindless babble on NPR jewsradio today: 24 SEP 07!

This Golem revealed that he was ordered to do whatever 'rabbi' Ike ordered him to do. He was the exact opposite of that which we define as a citizen, who has a conscience, & who seeks to inform himself & others about issues of concern to his fellow citizens, as I strive to do. This Golem had no such attributes: no conscience, no comprehension & no desire to obtain such. To compare this former 101st Airborne Golem with a citizen leads us to distinguish between human & subhuman, if we prefer to view this ZOG-zombie as other than a mere mud-monster. In brief, he described what he did, without particular interest. He probably had a slip of paper on which his 'magical' orders were inscribed, so he did not realize he was a Golem. Such self-realization is light-years beyond the purview of a Golem, as it is, unfortunately, for most Goyim.

Our Zionist regime punishes others for behaving as if they were Golem, for at The Nuremberg Show Trials, our kangaroo court of victors' justice emphasized that 'following orders' was no defense whatsoever, if our ZOG deemed such orders 'unlawful.' What is unlawful? Our jew presidente, Teddy Roosevelt, declared that "Might makes right." Hence, what is lawful is determined by who has the gun, at least in U.S. practice. This means that ZOG's Golem can expect no mercy from their opponents, not even if they wave a slip of paper with "Rules of Engagement" inscribed thereon. When faced with practical opposition, jew magic flops. That seems like justice to me.

row, Christianity was a rehash of pagan beliefs, just as pagan beliefs are rehashes of other pagan beliefs. One slippery factor is the multiple-personalities attributed to gods & goddesses. One Christ-cannibal said that Father, Son & Holy Ghost was a "sublime mystery, beyond human understanding." I said that I was a son to my father, so I am one person with two qualities, & when I croak, I may also become a ghost, but how 'holy' is debatable. If I am a father, then I am both father & son, but I am still one person. If we consider how many roles a mother must play, then the Trinity Hokum does not seem so mysterious.

I've read some of the Norse classics you mentioned. I recall reading "Beowulf" in a high school English class. Publishing is easier than ever, with the Internet. Of course, copyrights & payments are another matter, but I prefer to get the word out to our people. In your situation, I'd keep a copy of your manuscript for yourself & send one to a likely publisher, such as Ron McVan & THOR INK, both of which are located in Butte, MT.

One positive concept in "Might Is Right" is its praise for health, intelligence & strength. How refreshing to read the opposite of ZOG's touted virtues of sickness, stupidity & weakness, which somehow entitle the 'hero' to the good things in life. I recognized Satanism as a reaction to Christinsanity, as did another author, Jean Michelet, who wrote "Satanism & Witchcraft," which described the suffocating atmosphere of totalitarian church rule, & a popular rebellion against it, which sadly conformed to Christinsane doctrine, but in reverse, with prayers said backwards, crosses worn upside-down, &c. In my experience, Satanism is a kind of antidote for those who have over-dosed on Christinsanity.

In 1917 Russia, the Mensheviks were members of the Russian Duma or parliament. The Reds called them "Mensheviks," meaning "The Minority Party." The Reds were the real minority, but they called themselves the "Bolsheviks" (Majority Party), so we see how Lenin used propaganda. Our ZOG does likewise by referring to non-Whites as "minorities," when they are really the majority in the USA. Menshevik leader, Alexander Kerensky alias Kurbis, taught at my college in 1956. Russia's objective conditions for the 1917 revolution & civil war were the privations suffered by the civilian population after 3 years of war, which was seen by many as a no-win effort. Kerensky/Kurbis had to flee because his Provisional Government had insisted on carrying on the war, for the Allies, but the bankers had other plans for a new Red Russia, in which the blood of "smooth-handed Goyim" would flow in the streets.

Clearly, White Guilt & kosher conflicts amongst our race have put us in the proverbial back of the bus, as well as diminishing our numbers. Each of us must decide: "To be or not to be," in this Land of ZOG.

To return to the topic of why religions adopt doctrines, symbols & rituals from other religions, it's simply a racket aimed at attracting recruits. When the Christian conmen came to NW Europe, they kept the pagan holidays (holy days), but added kosher labels & symbols, hence "Christmas" & "Easter." The Yule Tree alias Christmas Tree is definitely pagan, but it survives. I've seen Yule trees in Spain, where there was no such tradition, as I have in Japan, where "Christmas" is deemed a commercial celebration in a non-Christian culture.

Voodoo is incorporated into Christianity in Latin America, as Santeria (Saintery) in which Voodoo loas or gods are deemed "saints," just as ^{pagan gods} were in European Christianity. Brazil calls its Voodoo Christianity "Candomble," if I recall correctly, but it is the popular religion, due to the heavy African admixture of its population. Santeria was introduced into Spanish-speaking Latin America by their Black slaves. Truly, demography is destiny.

What impressed me with Voodoo & its variations was its total lack of morality. There is no attempt to adhere to any virtues, values or codes of behavior. If you want someone to die, you just pay a witchdoctor or wizard sufficient for the job. In Africa, a Black who even thinks someone has put a hex on him usually dies, & he will take murderous action against anyone he suspects of putting a hex on him. You can pray for a successful bank robbery, for example. In Mexico, there is even a "narco-santo" or narcotic saint, named Jesus Malverde, which translates as "Jesus Badgreen." Bandits & drug dealers pray to him to bless their businesses. Apparently, the Catholic Church keeps its mouth shut, since it likely receives money from the narco-saint's supporters. A recent radio report on drug-smuggling from Colombia via Central America revealed how a church in a drug port had prospered. Is the priest concerned? Well, "It's an ill wind which blows no good," & he can "better provide for the religious needs of his community." I suppose the priest distinguishes "religious" from moral & spiritual needs. Jefferson wrote that a Christian must either be a fool or a fraud. Strength through Joy. ORION!
