It is you who are afraid to confront the obvious. Arabs are basically caucasian. So are inhabitants of the Indian sub-continent. Go and ask a "race scientist" if you do not believe me!!

You are tied to your tired Nazi lore and its stifling dogmatism. People like you hold back the progrss of revisionism by giving the false impression it is about bigotry and irrationality.

Wake up!

The Indians produced the number system we use in mathematics. It is so much more useful than the cumbersome system of the Romans. They produced the Taj Mahal. Indian 'classical' music is quite sophisticated, though not well understood in the west as it uses a different system of scales.

Look at the success of Indians in IT. Indians have a sophisticated system of traditional medicine. Indian religious systems have had a great influence up to the present day. "

Dear Joe,

Do you think the Parthenon was built by Martians perhaps? Are you telling me Indians could have built it? Maybe they could have built something to satisfy your own stunted aesthetic sense. Your opinions tell me about yourself and your limits as a westerner. I bought a copy of "They Live" by John Carpenter. It seems by accident he made a film with some strong metaphors for our present situation. The most interesting character is the human collaborator. He reminds me of actual journalists and freemasons I've met.

They Live

Yes you can talk of a caucasian group but it has little meaning in the actual world. Some even put aborigines into that group on the basis of their long heads. Most caucasians are mongrels and contain admixture. White genes are recessive and any real admixture is fairly evident as in the case of the turks. I suggest you read up more and get more books. I have taken the bother of scanning part of Carlton Coon's book on the origin of races which I was only able to get thanks to a supporter. I have not been able to scan the whole book. I suggest you need to read more of such books. Frankly if you were a rigorously logical thinker your instincts would have kept you away from journalism in the first place. One of my friends sleeps with a journalist and she suffers a lot because of the state of her profession. It is rather bad for her mental health. Racial science, to the extent that any exists, is influenced by political correctness. You know that so don't be facetious.

I don't think you are being serious with your garbage about the white race not existing etc. The non whites certainly believe in it. They pay big money to get their hands on the women of a superior race.

This English girl Lucy Blackman was reduced to selling her body to Japanese men and was chopped into pieces by one of them. The nonwhites are not apologetic for existing and they certainly have more reasons to be than us. Everything good on this planet is here because of us and inspite of them. Sorry. We would be enjoying ,who knows what, lifespan and other technological wonders if they had all kindly killed themselves a few thousand years ago. Thats just a fact whether you find it politic to say so or not.

The treasonous Irish political class needs to be sent to live amongst their equals

Media people are quick enough to believe in the white race when it comes to guilt propaganda. The media puts down the acheivements of the white race to humanity while the white race is momentarily brought back into existence whenever there is a need. I suggest you ask the BBC for their definiton or examine the use of the concept in practice in their propaganda.

"ISRAEL has expressed concern to the Irish government over a spate of anti-semitic attacks on Jewish sites in Dublin. Incidents include Nazi symbols being daubed on the Irish-Jewish museum and outside synagogues, and graffiti at a Jewish cemetery in Dolphin's Barn. The attacks began in November and have recurred every five to six weeks since.

Isaac Herzog, the Labor party minister for construction in the Israel government, expressed concerns about the incidents when he met Mary Hanafin, the minister for education, last month at a commemoration for Holocaust survivors in Poland. He has also raised the matter in a letter to Patrick Hennessy, the Irish ambassador to Israel.

The minister is the son of Chaim Herzog, the Belfast-born former president of Israel and a grandson of Isaac Herzog, Ireland's first chief rabbi.

He has been reported in the Israeli media as saying: I expect the Irish authorities to be more aware of what is happening so that these incidents of anti-semitism can be nipped in the bud."

In a reply sent last week Hennessy said: "I [have been] in touch with senior officials in our Department of Justice about these cases. They emphasised the personal interest of the minister Michael McDowell [who represents this part of the city in parliament] in resolving this matter, and in ensuring that the Jewish community receives all the assistance it requires. "

Isn't it interesting the double standard . Zionist killers are respectable while Justin Barrett is labeled a Nazi for visiting the German nationalists, and that's supposed to be bad.

"GARDAI are examining a general-purpose machine gun among 35 adapted or imitation weapons uncovered at the south Dublin home of a member of a bizarre right-wing group with links to religious fundamentalists based in Utah.

Four members of the small group, believed to involve young men aged from 15 to 24, were arrested when they were spotted dressed in combat fatigues and carrying haversacks while waiting in Dublin city centre for the 44 bus to Enniskerry last Saturday.

When gardai asked them to open the haversacks they were amazed to see an assortment of 10 imitation and adapted rifles, including replicas of the Heckler and Koch used by the Army's Ranger Wing and the British Army's SA80 rifle.

The 44 bus stop is at the rear of Pearse Street Garda Station and it is understood the group had been catching the bus at around the same time each Saturday while carrying the haversacks for several weeks.

In a subsequent search of a house in Crumlin detectives uncovered another 25 weapons including the tripod-mounted Browning general-purpose machine gun which is a copy of the weapon used by the Army as a "light support weapon". It is believed it might be a copy. They also found an adapted sniper rifle.

Details of the search were not released, it is believed, because of embarrassment at the fact that such a group of young fanatics could import what are perfect replicas of high-powered assault rifles as well as a machine gun that weighs around four stone.

They also found berets with Defence Forces insignia and literature relating to a fundamentalist church with references to Aryanism, the racist, anti-Semitic movement many of whose adherents live in communities in middle America, particularly Utah and Michigan.

What particularly concerned gardai was that the group was able to buy the weapons with ease over the internet and have them delivered to the Crumlin house without raising suspicion. Several of the weapons were adapted to fire steel ball bearings via a gas-powered system with lethal capacity.

There is concern at the proliferation of the gas-power weapons in the past few years and there have been a number of near-fatal incidents involving the gas-power ball bearing guns in the past year.

Five-year-old Darren Summers was almost killed when hit in the head with one of the pellets while playing in the grounds of his school in Enniskillen, Co Fermanagh last month. Earlier this year, there were two attacks on Garda vehicles in which ball bearings passed through a Garda van and another smashed the windscreen of a squad car at the Traveller site at Dunsink Lane.

A man and woman were injured in another pelletgun attack on a bar in Derry last month. And a nine-year-old boy was shot and seriously injured with one of the weapons in north Belfast last September.

It is not known if the group uncovered by the gardai harboured any sinister intentions but gardai said they were alarmed at some of the magazines and material found in the search of the house in Erigal Road, relating to the activities of 'survivalist' groups in America who have been associated with sieges and attacks on US Federal institutions, black Americans, Jews and liberal groups.

No evidence has emerged to link the group with the recent spate of Nazi graffiti being daubed on synagogues, the Jewish cemetery and the Irish Jewish Museum, all in south Dublin.

In a separate operation, gardai arrested a man after the small Orthodox synagogue and the Dublin Synagogue in Terenure were daubed with swastikas in the early hours of Friday.

The Drogheda man, who had been under surveillance, was later released from Terenure Garda Station and a file is being sent to the Director of Public Prosecutions relating to racial incitement and damage to property."

So they caught someone for vandalising in Dublin but I'm suspicious because they seem to sneak it in at the bottom and hope by association to make some link to Nazis in the mind of the public. They give no details about the suspect and so perhaps he doesn't fit the image they want to create. We will wait to see further developments. The south of Ireland is a mickey mouse neo-colonialist state where you can't even own a decent hunting rifle.

I also think it's not a coincidence that Fascism emerged in Italy. It was a continuation of the renaissance. A movement far more general than any one political movement. Oriental ideas must be pushed out.

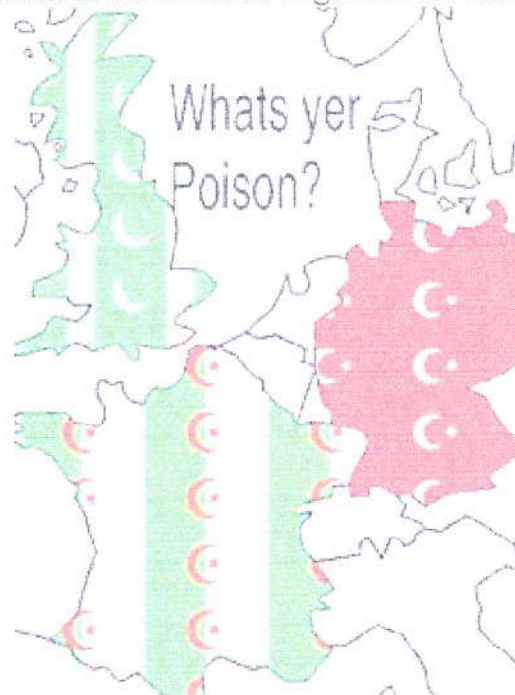

That is what Galileo was doing. You think the Jews would hesitate for a second in declaring the earth flat if they could profit from that? They do that with race, economics and everything for that matter. You need to root out the Jewish legacy in your mind . Fight your conditioning .Even our names David and Joseph show the massive impact they have had on the west .We all have this Jewish legacy we need to purge from ourselves.

I was talking to a Dutch man who left his country because its " no longer Holland" but he was no quite ready to put 2 and 2 together. These filthy monkeys come here and colonise your country and your afraid of offending them. What about us ? Nobodys afraid of offending us because we're too civilised to lash out . This is part of the paradox of the existence of good in the world.

I was walking in the street when I met a beautiful young girl with deep rings about her eyes begging for money. She was a heroin addict. Probably already with a few incurable diseases. Everyday you refuse to speak out you help kill people like her. I think people inside the system can be helpful if they help provide information and funds and so forth however. In a healthy Aryan society such a young girl would be a loving mother instead of being gobbled up in the Jews genocide machine. I talk to such people and give them advise and refuse to become cold urbanised and alienated like others allow themselves to become.

The Vietnamese are big coffee producers and exporters these days. I don't fancy drinking coffee grown on Dioxin rich agent orange covered land . Is the public ever asked?

The USA decided to give Hepatitis B vaccine to infants because they could not get Queer and other favored groups to take it ,this resulted in the deaths of normal babies because infants immune systems are weaker. This is par for the course in our inverted society.

I oppose the abortion of healthy children and the raising of Downs syndromes and other such defectives at the expense of the healthy. The hippocratic oath is being gradually sidelined with its prohibition of abortion its politically incorrect you see. Aids is a thunderbolt from the gods, nature in action .Homosexualism is one of the great scourges of our times but also a football used by fake conservatives .

People like the young drug addict girl are human sacrifices people like you thrown to the moloch of the Jews this beast who represents their racial hatred of a superior race .You can never thrown enough or fast enough. The marvelous land of Prussia was thrown to this evil vile people to appease them .Germans from the interior of Russia are now starting to regermanise East Prussia .The Germans are marvelous people .Most of the ones I've met speak at least four languages.The Dutch embraced multiculturalism with germanic efficiency and cut their own throats so efficiently .The motto of the white middle classes is "don't take me here take them".

The EU wants to destroy the fabric of Europe . We are stronger with our little countries ,each its own strengths and weaknesses. I advise you to read more .Lothrop Stoddard wrote a good book "Racial realities in Europe" . Thats a good intro. Christianity talks about turning the other cheek but paganism practiced it and so perished.Nazism preaches the values of paganism.Let the Nazis be proud for not persecuting their enemies (Read the memoirs of Rosenberg). Their enemies are proud to kill and then to lie about it. This is the fundamental tragedy of good versus evil. Your entitled to criticise Nazism . How much better are democrats and christians etc. who kill millions and then control all sources of information afterwards.

The gods of a people are normally a projection of the collective psychology of a people . Only a conquered people worship foreign gods. The Jews raged against the Roman gods . You can see this in the new Testament.Now the Jews have turned the tables and made themselves the masters.Race mixing is their version of "Carthage must be destroyed" .They are quite rightly, from their point of view ,making sure the conquered people can never be a threat to them and they are exterminating us. Runners after narcotic fantasies are useful idiots for them. I spent years in college even though originally I wanted to be a painter. Modern art revolted me first then I was finally too revolted to stay by the systematic falsification of history practiced in the colleges by the intellectual prostitutes there to please their demonic masters. The Jews "demonic" too much for you, how else to describe these people and what they do to Russian kids. The dead sea is the lowest spot on earth below sea level and Israel is the lowest moral point. The Aryans are the moral equivalent of mount everest in this analogy.

The present system creates racism and relies on that, like electric voltage there is a racial voltage set up by racial differences and these power the New World Order. The presence of millions of arabs in Europe is actually a disaster to those of us sympathetic to the arab cause in their own lands. Ilya Ehrenburg said he didn't believe in the "magic" of blood. The entire world economic system depends on race. Nicole Kidman is the nordicist image ZOG offers, not dusky albanian peasant girls. This is one thing ZOG has in common with Nazism. The Nordic is a singular type for both.

With the Nazis it was a vital part of the white race and seen rightly as endangered. With ZOG it provides a vital collaborator element and the chief harlots like Kidman. The turks drool over pictures of English girls. The arabs cover their women but its a pity the Jews don't cover their hideous Jewesses. That one bit of oriental culture that I'm in favour of in their case !Madeline Albright would do well to cover her hideous evil face. In the NWO the Jews provide the "culture" the east asians the electronics and the whites the sex slaves and the cannon fodder while future Issac Newtons and Shakespeares die of heroin overdoses unmourned in the london gutter. It takes a while to deprogramme yourself . You seem to have taken a step backwards .I advise you to read Kemp's book "March of the Titans" imperfect though it is .Many of those who collaborate with the Jew have no real affection for them and would as soon cut their throats. This is certainly the case with some of the university Historians I've met. They would be the most fanatic bigoted racists tomorrow and would disgrace any cause they sided with because they are morally inferior people. The worst kind of toadies. The production of them is one of the big flaws in institutionalised learning ,whoever is the boss. Try to do your bit every day for the west. The realisation of the idea draws men in its wake .Have you read Spengler?The statue of ZEUS shines ,excuding the idea of the west :what we can be ,once we free ourselves .The culture bearers fall into the role the state of the culture in their time dictates. Make history or be subject to it. The Jews tried to blind Faurisson in France. An action of the deepest symbolic import. One day we will make a film about that. Of course like taming wild kittens one has to be gentle with folks and not load too much on them straight away and gently lead them back to the truth. Too much too soon and they will withdraw into their conditioning. I've talked to thousands. But what I'm not going to do is lead them on some false trail to some liberal la la land. I don't believe in humanity. It's an affront to biological science to talk of a human species. No other animal groups interfertile or not would be grouped as the same species if they demonstrated such large differences as one sees between the major groupings of talking apes on the earth. The Jew and the Aryan are different species. It matters not that you can find white looking Jews and so forth. The mode of living is different as different as the mode of living of a Giraffe, a crow and a lions. These talking apes have indeed developed an ecosystem amongst themselves a predator prey relationship. The animals have their camouflage and the Jews have theirs, the Holocaust being their latest. The holocaust is ingenious and serves both as camouflage outside and solidarity building inside as many of the ordinary jews and part jews would as soon assimilate. Without the belief in the holocaust many Jews would reject judaism entirely. Plato talked of the Guardians, Yockey of the culture bearers. There is an aesthetic elite of the west. These are the people targeted the most by the present system. The mediocre whites are bribed to betray their own protectors and then exterminated in their turn. Frankly you journalists are hardly part of this elite I talk of. Men like Hitler, artists, people with an aesthetic sense. These men are the furthest away from the Jew. The Jew, whose god forbids images and whose second commandment is interpreted away by many christians. The Aryan in a sentence is one who builds images of beauty and the semite is one who destroys them. We see the final semitic iconoclastic crusade in the campaign to exterminate aryan beauty through race mixing. People in Ireland are searching for answers and many are unhappy and puzzled at the terrible change forced on their country without their permission. Hitler was a fine example of the western man at his finest: soldier, artist, philosopher, genius warlord and finally martyr. Cultural feelings are sharpest between us and them because, while most nations want similar things, between the Jewish civilisation and ours there is an existential clash of opposites. The Greeks statues at one pole of the aesthetic universe and the Jews and their Mark Chagalls lie at the other pole. It is not possible to imagine two species as different as the culture bearing Aryan and the Jew. Peoples like the Japanese, Indians and Iranians at least make art after their own manner. We at least have something in common with them but not with the Jew. What I need is resources to get the material out in adequate numbers. In captive Germany the jews put on desecrations of Wagner with the women dressed up as sluts. They put on anti wagner. If we could give a few thousand cds and dvds out it would have more of an effect than the leaflets. I suggest you read www.cwporter.com especially his satires. Many people in the third world are sincere opponents of neocolonialism and potential allies. I feel we could find legitimate uses for nonwhites such as acting as surrogate mothers to white implanted embryos. That would be a rational use of them. Instead they are being used as a pollutant and the victims of the system are hating each other while the masters laugh. The nonwhite colonisation is a symptom but the imperium of the Jew is the disease. We should return to normal relations between the races which means pursuing our own interests. I feel a new west could be very good friends with countries like Japan and Iran. Alexander adapted the religious forms he found and that would have been the sensible thing to do when the british had conquered india. If they had a pagan religion they could have done that easily. With some brains the caste system could have been adapted. When I was in hospital one of the chaps in the ward was a liberal who worked against aids in India. He was quite interested in the revisionism and it made immediate sense to him. All this talk of one humanity will only lead to a catastrophe on all and the death of civilisation. We are told we live in materialistic society. We don't, we live in a society where the Jew is god and where he demands human sacrifice. The slaves have their eyes put out with tv and are entitled to struggle for the scraps amongst themselves in a materialistic way on the floor in front of their masters table. If you want to change things help me out in a serious way. I don't expect you to come out and be as outspoken as me as you no doubt fear losing your job. Crosbie says 'there has been a big sea-change in parents' attitudes in the last 10 or 15 years - where people used to be ashamed, now they are proud. Down syndrome children are cool!' If niggers can be cool why not downs syndromes! This is the kind of human garbage we have running our press. It's cool to be a retard. Yes indeed it is the down syndrome is the ideal citizen of the new world order. Ireland would be better off without Crosbie and his retarded brat and his revolting journalists. The best thing for the whole bunch would be to invite them to go and live amongst their equals. All positive virtues are demonised. Beauty is reduced to pornography. Young girls pierce their faces like negroid savages the working class are targeted for negoidisation while the middle class becomes more and more Jewish in its manners. The free thinkers who are the engine of progress are demonised out of existence. The atavistic society can run for a while on past glories but its inner contradictions doom it. Look at military technology. The powers have been dining out on German inventions since the second world war. Technological progress has slowed. I think there is a need for a political party in Ireland. I heard David Trimble talking about how William of orange saved the protestants in the North. Williams actions might have saved the scots-Irish then but are dooming all Irish now. All that talk of a united Ireland but seeing as both sides in the north live in their own areas would not self determination be a much more realistic negotiating position? The unionists might agree to that but not the unconditional surrender demanded. There is clearly a need for a party in the south. Ireland died without a whimper after centuries of fighting for independence. This shows the terrible efficiency of the new imperialist methods. All these national democratic parties we see across europe are partly pc because they don't mention the Jews. By their own actions the Jews have shown themselves incompatible with western civilisation. A striving after truth is an indispensable part of our civilisation and the source of most of our wealth. Without respect for truth there can be no scientific progress.

The Jewish Magen David is truly the Death star. I suggest people refer to the symbol of the Jews as that in future. "The people of the star of death". I always think of Jabba the hutt when I see Ariel Sharon. Princess Leia chained up reminds me of the Russian girls enslaved there by the Evil Jews.

Revilo Oliver: "There is in us a weakness, perhaps a fatal weakness, that makes us not only listen to the babble of self-professed do-gooders, but to do whatever they tell us to do, and to do it as mindlessly as though we were in a hypnotic trance and had surrendered our will to that of the hypnotist.

Now I believe that this strange weakness, unlike so many of our peculiarities, is not a single congenital and hereditary idiocy. If that were true, we would not be here: our remote ancestors would have been eaten long before the dawn of history. It is compounded, it seems to me, of a perversion of seven different qualities; a perversion effected and fostered by certain misunderstandings in the peculiar circumstances that resulted from the prosperity, power, and world dominion we of the West achieved for ourselves and enjoyed in recent centuries. All of the seven elements of our mentality that I shall enumerate are good qualities, at least in the sense that they are born in us, that we could not eliminate them from our genetic heritage if we wanted to, and that we have perforce to accept them. We could comment at length on each of them, and it would be particularly interesting to contrast ourselves with other races at each point. But I must list them as briefly as possible, with only a word or two of explanation to make my meaning clear.

The first is imagination, which is highly developed in us, and vivid; an imagination which means, among other things, that we have a spiritual need of a great literature: both a literature of vicarious experience and a literature of the fantastic and marvellous that transcends the world of reality. But this gift bears with it, of course, the danger that we may not distinguish clearly between a vivid imagination and something that we can actually see in the world.

Second, the sense of personal honor which is so strong in us, and seems so fatuous and silly to other races. It is this, among other things, that gives us the conception of an honorable contest when men of our race meet as opponents in war. It gives us the knightly ethos that you see when Diomedes and Glaucus meet on the plains of Troy and in all subsequent history and story of our race. It also exposes us to the danger of behaving in knightly fashion to those to whom those standards are lunacy.

The third is the capacity for objective and philosophical thought, which is virtually limited to our race, and which enables us to put ourselves mentally in the position of others, but simultaneously exposes us to the risk of fancying that their thoughts and feelings are what ours would be.

The fourth is our capacity for compassion. We have a racial reluctance to inflict unnecessary pain, and we are ourselves distressed by the sight of suffering. That is, of course, a peculiarity that brings upon us the ridicule and contempt of the numerical majority of the world's population, who are beings differently constituted. The savages of Africa, who are now your masters in the sense that you have to work for them every day, find the spectacle of a human being under torture simply hilarious. And when they see a blinded captive with broken limbs squirm as they prod him with red-hot irons, they laugh with glee -- with a merriment, a real merriment, that is greater than the funniest farce on the stage has ever excited in you. You may search the vast and respectable literature of China in vain for any trace of compassion for suffering per se.

Fifth, our generosity, both as individuals and as a nation, which naturally brings on us the contempt of those to whom we give abroad.

The capacity for self-sacrifice is sixth; and that is, of course, highly developed in us, but it is a necessary basis for the existence of any civilized society. No people above the stage of unthinking savagery can survive in this world without some instinct or some belief which makes its young men give their lives for the preservation of the society in which they were born.

And the seventh and last is the sentiment of religion, which of course is common to all mankind, although here again it takes a distinctive form in us. For fifteen centuries the religion of the Western world has been Christianity, Western Christianity, and there is no other religion now known or even imaginable that could take its place. But it is simply an historical fact, which we must deplore but cannot change, that only a small part of our population today, 12 or 15 per cent., really believes that Christ was the son of God, that the soul is immortal, and that our sins will be punished in a future life. That means that the religious instinct, which is a part of our nature, finds in the majority of our people no satisfaction in an unquestioning faith; so that those frustrated instincts are available for exploitation by any halfway clever scoundrel, as the shysters and punks who now occupy the majority of our pulpits well know. When faith is lost, what Pareto calls the religious residue in a people becomes its most vulnerable point, its Achilles heel. It is the unsatisfied need for an unquestioning faith in a superior power.

Now, a perversion of all of these qualities in us operated during the centuries of our dominance to give us an utterly false conception of other peoples. We have imagined that by some magic we could convey to them not only our material possessions, but the qualities of our mind and soul.

And we have always succumbed to the flattery of imitation. The capacity for imitating behavior is common not only to all human beings, but to all anthropoids, as we all know from the proverbial expression, "monkey see, monkey do." An ape's ability to imitate is, of course, limited. But, with the exception of the Australoids, other races have the capacity to imitate us convincingly in externals. If they dress in our clothes, observe our social conventions, and speak our language, using the phrases which as they can learn by observation please us, and using those phrases even if they don't understand them or if they regard them as preposterous drivel and nonsense, the members of other races could imitate us so plausibly that we believe them converted to our mentality and to our conception of life. And any shortcomings that we may notice in the performance of the imitator, we generously overlook or regard as endearing naivete.

This capacity for imitation is possessed by savages, at least by the more intelligent ones, and it has deceived us time after time. The British are as gullible as we are. Hundreds and hundreds of times, at least, they gave scholarships to Blacks from Basutoland or Kenya or Nigeria or one of their other possessions, and the result was almost always the same. With the money given him, the savage bought himself a good wardrobe, attended an English school, learned to play soccer, attended Oxford, wrote a charming essay on Wordsworth or on ancient law, copulated with half-witted English women who thought him "romantic" and themselves "broad-minded," and when he got tired of living on English generosity, went home to his tribe where he had a well-roasted baby served up to him as a delicacy of which he had been long deprived by the stupid prejudices of the stupid British.

With some of the highly intelligent Oriental peoples, the capacity for dissimulation goes much farther than that and approaches genius.

That strange and unique international people, the Jews, who for all the time in which they are known to history have lived and flourished by planting their colonies in other people's countries, have owed much of their success to the chameleon-like ability to take on, when they choose, the manners and attitudes of whatever country they choose to reside in. They are a highly intelligent people, quite possibly much more intelligent than we are. But all observers, notably Douglas Reed and Roderick Stohlheim, have commented on the Jews' amazing ability to seem a German in Berlin, a Czech in Prague, an Italian in Rome, and an Englishman in London, shifting from one role to the other with the ease with which a man might change his suit of clothes. The Jews have, of course, the great advantage that their skins are white, and that many of them resemble, in features, members of our race, even to the point of being indistinguishable, at least to an untrained eye, and including persons with such non-Oriental characteristics as blond or red hair.

I am not sure, therefore, that the highest talent for dissimulation does not belong to a people that does not have that very great physical advantage: the Japanese. Their ability to gain our confidence and appropriate our technology and science is simply phenomenal, as is obvious from what they, living crowded together on a few poor islands, have accomplished. But their talent for dissimulation is equally great.

I always remember the experience of a friend of mine, who was in the late 1930s a professor of chemistry in a large university in what may be called a strategic area of this country. The outstanding students in his graduate classes were four young Japanese. And partly because they were so apt in learning the more abstruse forms of chemistry, and partly because they were foreigners and so excited in him the generosity that is normal to us, he invited them to his home; and in the course of three years he came, he thought, to know them very well personally. Their manners and their English were excellent. They professed the greatest admiration for America and its institutions. They spoke, of course, of "democracy" in terms of high praise. They deplored "militarism," and they fervently hoped for "world peace" and "understanding among all peoples." My friend was convinced that if only we could bring more young men like that to the United States, the policy of Japan would eventually change, and the two nations would live thenceforth in perpetual amity.

Then one day he found himself alone at a crossroads in the open country some twenty miles from the university, waiting for some friends to pick him up in their automobile. They were late, and since the day was hot, he went to a nearby orchard to repose in the shadow of the trees while waiting. He saw his four Japanese students come sauntering down one of the roads, evidently out on a leisurely hike. At the crossroads, they stopped, looked up and down each road, looked around and saw no one. Then they straightened up and stood back to back, each facing in one direction, produced a Leica camera, and photographed each road and then the surroundings on each diagonal and made notations on a map. They had, of course, come to our country not only to learn our chemical science for eventual use against us, but also incidentally to map out the territory around the university for future reference, should their army have occasion to invade us or should they have occasion to land a secret force on our shores. And they went about their work with the patient thoroughness of their race, doubtless chuckling inwardly at the naivete of the big White boobies who freely deliver all their hard-won knowledge to their natural enemies.

Our minds have been beclouded by an even more dangerous misconception long annexed to our religion. For centuries we have labored under the illusion that Western Christianity was something that could be exported, and only recent events have at last made it obvious to us how vain and futile have been the labors and zeal of devoted missionaries for five centuries. When Cortez and his small but valiant band of iron men conquered the empire of the Aztecs, he was immediately followed by a train of earnest and devoted missionaries, chiefly Franciscans, who began to preach the Christian gospel to the natives. And they soon sent back home, with innocent enthusiasm, glowing accounts of the conversions they had effected. You can feel their sincerity, their piety, their ardor, and their joy in the pages of Father Sagun, Father Torquemada, and many others. And for their sake I am glad that the poor Franciscans never suspected how small a part they had really played in the religious conversions that gave them such joy. Far more effective than their words and their book had been the Spanish cannon that had breached the Aztec defenses and the ruthless Spanish soldiers who had slain the Aztec priests at their altars and toppled the Aztec idols from the sacrificial pyramids. The Aztecs accepted Christianity as a cult, not because their hearts were touched by doctrines of love and mercy, but because Christianity was the religion of the White men whose bronze cannon and mail-clad warriors made them invincible.

That was early in the 16th century, and we of the West have gone on repeating that fond mistake ever since, as the missionaries whom we sent to all parts of the world wrote home with innocent satisfaction glowing accounts of the number of hearts they had "won for Christ." And it is only after the international conspiracy's campaign of "anti-colonialism" really got underway that most of us realized that what had won all those hearts was primarily the discipline of British regiments and the power of the White man. On many a shore of Africa, for example, missionaries eager to win souls ventured to land alone; and the natives, after having a lot of fun torturing them to death, ate them -- either cooked or raw, according to the local custom. What often happened was that a few months later a British cruiser hove to offshore, and lobbed a half a dozen 4.5-inch high explosive shells into the native village, and, if not in a hurry, perhaps landed half a company of marines to beat the bushes and drag out a dozen or so savages to hang on convenient trees. Unless the tribe was excessively stupid, they took the hint. The next bevy of missionaries was respected, as somehow representing the god of thunder and lightning. And if those men of God distributed enough free rice and medical care with their sermons, they were able to make many converts. They could teach a ritual, and they could perhaps inculcate a superstition that had some superficial resemblance to their religion; but as for teaching the spiritual substance of Christianity, they might as well have followed the example of St. Francis and delivered sermons to the birds. Although it is true that in some places in the former colonial possessions missionaries are still tolerated, if they pay very well, we have at last learned that the gospel follows the British regiments in the White man's ignominious and insane retreat from the world that was his.

All of these factors have contributed, I think, to our strange toleration of the "do-gooder" and our incredible obtuseness in never asking against whom he is "doing good." For it is unfortunately true that fully 80 per cent. of all those high-sounding projects of "uplift" and "social justice" are motivated not by concern for the supposed beneficiaries, but by greed or malice. But we never ask.

That is why we have so many "intellectuals" battenning upon us. They have discovered the safest and most profitable of all rackets. An "intellectual" is distinguished by two talents: a glib proficiency with words, and very sensitive nostrils. He can smell a twenty dollar bill in your pocket a block away, and within two minutes after that delicious aroma reaches his nostrils the "ideals" are drooling down his jaw. You know the jargon: "the underprivileged"; "equality of opportunity"; "Athe culturally deprived"; "underdeveloped nations"; "emerging peoples"; and the like, ad infinitum nauseam. And as you listen to his sing-song the chances are you won't even notice his hand as it goes into your pocket.

Now we may be rich enough to be suckers, but we cannot afford the more elaborate kinds of "do-gooding" that are inspired by malice and hatred. But yet we tolerate them with a collective masochism that is simply suicidal. We have accepted an incredible inversion of values to the point that we have declared ourselves to be an inferior species, fit only to be enslaved, beaten, and butchered at the whim of our betters. That is what the proposition amounts to, although, of course, it is daubed over with the viscid slobber of humanitarian drivel devised by our enemies and mindlessly multiplied by our own sniveling sentimentalists.

It is not a new thing. If I had time, I would direct your attention in some detail to the vast and irreparable calamity brought upon our nation in the last century by a tiny group of vociferous and crazed fanatics, the abolitionists, who forced upon the South its tragic war for independence. I am not defending slavery, Negro slavery, as an institution. I believe that Jefferson and Lincoln were right in regarding it as a system that was pernicious, for quite rational reasons, of which the most important were: first, that it maintained on our soil millions of persons of a race radically different from our own, and by our standards inferior; and second, that it resulted in some production of mongrels, pitiable creatures torn apart by the incompatible instincts they had inherited. As you know, it was the firm purpose of Abraham Lincoln to have all the Negroes either returned to Africa, or, in the interests of economy, to Central America. But the abolitionists were not rational. They were, I am sorry to say, most of them Americans, including such persons as Wendell Phillips, Professor Elizur Wright, and, of course, hysterical females such as Lydia Child and Harriet Beecher Stowe. Their leader was William Lloyd Garrison, who was an American too, though he was financed by Isaac Mack and other Jews. They were a tiny group, despised by sane Americans, North and South. But they ranted and raved until they got their way. They began to agitate in 1840 for dissolution of the American union, and for division of the United States, by secession, into two countries. And after twenty years of ranting, they finally persuaded the states of the South to take their proposal seriously.

It is most instructive to read the abolitionists. They spout quotations from the Bible, and they babble about "human rights" and "equality." But they cannot completely conceal their real animus and inspiration. Their venom is directed against the plantation owners of the South, most of whom, though by no means all, were ladies and gentlemen. The abolitionists had in their minds a picture, partly correct, of the Southern landowner as man far superior to themselves in education, culture, and humanity. And for that they hated him, implacably. They also had in their feverish minds a picture, totally false, of the planter as a man of unbounded wealth and leisure who spent his life lolling on a wide veranda and sipping mint juleps. And they envied him passionately. They had a picture, equally false, of the Southern lady as one who spent her days in fairy-like ease, waited on hand and foot by obsequious slaves. They had a picture, largely correct, of those women as being accorded by men a chivalrous respect that was almost unknown in the North. And so they yearned to humiliate and destroy that Southern lady. That was the real inspiration of their frantic "do-gooding."

You can take the true measure of what has happened to our national mentality by just remembering the name of that distinguished horse thief and homicidal manic, John Brown, who, financed by a conspiratorial group that called themselves the Secret Six, was sent into the South to start a slave revolt. As everyone admits, his purpose was to get all the White women of the South raped and butchered, and to get all the White men of the South barbarously mutilated and butchered. What does that make of him in contemporary opinion? Why, he was a "champion of human rights," "a martyr of freedom," and all that. He wanted to butcher, it's true, but to butcher White men and women. That is to say, White slime, like ourselves, as we wallow in ecstasies of self-abasement and self-hatred. And that suffices to make him admirable, to make him noble. And so his soul goes marching on -- over the hot coals, I hope.

I remind you that that little body of howling dervishes brought on us a terribly fratricidal war, inflicting on us an irreparable loss and impoverishing our nation and race forever by destroying the genetic heritage of our best men. And it also coarsened us morally, perhaps also irreparably. For after the assassination of Lincoln, which they certainly contrived, our hate-crazed "do-gooders" had their way. If there is any American who can read the history of all the suffering wantonly inflicted on the White people of the South during what is called "Reconstruction" without hanging his head in shame and feeling through his whole being an anguished remorse, I can only say that he is hard-hearted and sadistic beyond my understanding.

With that beginning, is it any wonder that we have reached today the point at which frenzied hatred of us is the certain way of attaining our veneration and our reverence? How the Americans have been taught to hate themselves!

Chinese Communists attack and capture one of our naval vessels, which we, perhaps by agreement between them and our enemies in Washington, refuse to defend although we had ample warning of the attack. But who cares? They're just White slime like us, born to work and die for their masters' pleasure. Now of course if they had been something really choice and noble, such as a mongrel syphilitic lousy homosexual Communist cannibal, why all of our liberal punks would be out screaming and howling in our streets from dawn to dusk and all night.

Every day, more and more of our young men are shipped to Vietnam and forced to fight under conditions carefully contrived to ensure the maximum loss of American life and to ensure eventual defeat. But let us overlook that. Let us assume that it really is a war and that it is being honestly fought. What is its professed purpose? To secure a naval or air base for the United States? To conquer a colony for the United States? To protect our blood brothers in Australia? Those would be rational purposes, although one might debate the strategic necessity of that particular location. No. The ostensible purpose, the declared purpose, is to save the prolific Orientals of South Vietnam from the horrors of Communism. Never mind that that purpose is transparent hypocrisy. Assume that it is sincere. What then?

We are Americans, White men of the West. And if we were sane, no truth would be more obvious and unquestionable to us than the fact that, so far as we are concerned, all the teeming population of Vietnam is not worth the life of one American soldier. But if anyone suggests that, why everyone is horrified: "Are we not the world's slaves to be used for do-gooding? Who cares about your son and mine -- they're expendable."

Now at the instigation of the promoters of that slaughter in Vietnam for political purposes, hordes of young punks come screaming from the doors of our hoodlum-hatcheries (which for some reason are still called colleges), and they protest the awful war in Vietnam. What are they protesting? The useless death of a brother? Or of a former classmate, a White man? No, they are yowling and yammering because some of the sweet Orientals in North Vietnam get hurt sometimes. If only we could find some plausible way of killing American boys without discomfort to the Orientals, those rabid protestors would be perfectly happy.

The Jews, who, as I have said, are a highly intelligent people, and who with perhaps five per cent. of our military resources knew how to finish in six days a war against opponents far more numerous and formidable than the Vietnamese, and who were intelligent enough to know that the only justification for aggressive war is the territory that is conquered by it, decided that it would be fun to kill some despised goyim on our ship the Liberty, and they did so -- with the result that the legislature of at least one American state rushed them an official message of congratulations. Our men were killed where we sent them, ostensibly in the service of our country, killed while wearing our uniform and flying our flag. They were the symbols of our nation. They would have been the visible embodiment of our self-respect, if we had any. But who cares? They're just White slime like us.

Down in Memphis, somebody shoots a Black automobile thief, noted Communist agent, and bloodthirsty inciter of riots and revolution against us. What happens? Half the White nitwits in this country snivel and sob and mourn, saying tearfully, "What a wonderful man he was. He wanted to kill White slime like us. Wasn't that sweet, wasn't that noble, wasn't that saintly, wasn't he just like Jesus?"

One could go on for hours listing more examples. But I have said enough, surely, to show you what is really the greatest single obstacle that we face: the perverted collective masochism that has been incited in so many of our people.

What I have been saying right now is not what I first intended to say to you. I meditated, and prepared a discourse that was intended to show you that we have passed the point of no return, and that we now face a future of violence that can result only in our total subjection to the status of livestock, or survival at the cost of great hardships, sacrifice, and loss of life. I intended to speak at some length about Francis Parker Yockey and his great book Imperium. It is a book which evidently has the power to give to sound and healthy young Americans an inspiration and a purpose. And I intended to comment on it as representing, probably, our only force that will help us emerge from our present plight.

But after that, I had two telephone calls from men whose names you would probably recognize. The patriotic movements in this country include some phonies and a number of double agents, whose mission it is to see to it that all patriotic endeavors are directed down blind alleys, where they must end in frustration and discouragement. But I feel sure that neither man who called me belonged to either of those groups. I feel convinced that they were sincere and earnest. One of them spoke to me very solemnly about our duty to protect and defend the people of Vietnam from the horrors of Communism. The other, in the course of the conversation, spoke very emphatically about our duty to give to the rest of the world an inspiring example of the blessings of free enterprise -- to the rest of the world, mind you. We are obliged to give them a model they can follow. So I discarded the discourse I had prepared and substituted this discussion, which has already been both too long and too cursory.

For I am convinced that we shall never be able to think rationally about our own survival until we have the courage to say, in our own minds: We are Americans, White men of the West. This is our country because we took it from the Indians. And we have an unquestionable right to this country so long as we have the power and will to defend it.

What do we owe the nations of Western Europe and such nations as Australia and South Africa? We owe them recognition of our blood relationship to the men of our race who remained in the lands from which we came, and with whom we have, to the extent that they recognize it, a common interest, since we and they together form a race that is numerically a minority on this globe, the rest of whose inhabitants hate us.

What do we owe the rest of the world? Nothing, absolutely nothing. "

The history book I had growing up was a "History of the world ". Liberal history is full of fallacies and exaggerates the achievement of the other races .To talk of a history of the white race is a historical evolutionary step. Europeans not only need to think of themselves as nationalities but as members of one race and culture which they have been but never appreciated. Now they must or perish .None of our countries can free itself its only by working together that any of us can survive. Poles and Germans ,Orange man and shinner.Remember you have grown up in a particular ideological climate and you must seek to purge yourself of your conditionisng if you want to think freely.Europeans are being exterminated at as fast a rate possible ,just beneath the reaction threshold.

Alfred Rosenberg :The Myth of the 20th Century

"When the first great Nordic wave rolled over the high mountains into India, it had already passed through many hostile races. Instinctively, as it were, the Indoaryans separated themselves from the dark alien peoples they encountered. The institution of caste was the outcome of this instinctive aversion. Varna means caste, but it also means colour. The fair Aryans thus linked themselves to an acceptable image of the human type, and created a gulf between themselves as conquerors and the black brown natives of pre Aryan India. According to this opposition of blood and blood, the Aryans evolved a worldview which, for depth and range, cannot be surpassed by any philosophy even today, although admittedly this was only after a long battle against the constantly intruding ideas of the racially inferior aborigines. The period, for example, which lies between the heroic songs of the Vedas and that of the Upanishads is one both of expansion and of a simultaneous struggle against sorcery and degenerate ecstasies. The sacrificial cult of spirits and gods had begun to infiltrate. The priest, with his sacred ladle and firebrand, was not immune to these magical ideas. Every touch of the hand, every gesture, acquired a mystical significance. As Deussen established, ritualism developed between the mythological and the philosophical periods. Prayer, which with the true Brahman was only a powerful elevation of the heart, became an incantation to compel the gods by magic. In the midst of this murky process, the Ātman doctrine appeared to light a ray of hope. It was not an act of psychological development, which would be utterly meaningless (even Deussen does not attempt to explain it) but represented a new awakening of the Aryan soul in the face of the superstitious and magical beliefs of the subjugated non Aryans. This interpretation is at once confirmed when it is established that the great doctrine of the personal value of the spirit -- devoid of magic and the demonic -- originated in the courts of the kings, and was diffused from the warrior caste. Although the Brahmans were later to become the teachers of the new idea of the essential oneness of the world soul and the individual soul, they were never able to conceal the origin of the new concept. Thus it comes about that instruction concerning Ātman is given by King Ajataśatru to the Brahman Gargya Balake; by the war god Sanatkumara, to the Brahman Narada; by King Pravahna to the Brahman Aruni. Thanks to this aristocratic reassertion, the un Aryan magic cult retreated further and further, and did not proliferate once more until later when racial decay overtook even the India of the Kshatriyas.

As a born master, the Indian felt his individual soul expand into the Ātman which pervaded the entire universe and lived within his own breast as his innermost self. The concept of an impersonal nature, rich and virtually all provident, could not divorce him from this metaphysical union. An active life, which was always demanded as an ineluctable duty of the world renouncing thinker, gave place more and more to the aim of journeying into the universe of the soul. This transition to the pure light of knowledge led to the noble attempt to overcome nature through reason. There is no doubt that many Indians, as individual personalities and aristocrats, were successful in this quest. But for later men only the teaching remained, devoid of its vital racial prerequisite.

Soon the rich, blood based meaning of Varna was entirely lost. Today it is only a division between technical, professional, and other classes, and has degenerated into the vilest travesty of the wisest idea in world history. The later Indian did not comprehend the threefold significance of blood, self, and universe. He saw only the last two. And he perished in the attempt at isolated contemplation of the self in racial pollution, whose modern products are wretched mongrels, seeking healing for their crippled existence in the waters of the Ganges.

After he had overcome the polarised ideas of self / universe by a rational choice in favour of the one part, the Indian monist also endeavoured to eliminate the antithesis between them, and violently to attain freedom through nature and master nature through freedom. He, therefore, was inclined to regard race and personality as being aspects of a higher concept and as illusory. The late Indian monist came to see nature as something unreal -- an evil dream. The only reality for him is the world soul (Brahman) and its eternal reoccurrence in the individual soul (Ātman). With this turning away from nature in general, the once clear idea and concept of race became ever more hazy. Philosophic dogma uprooted instinct from its earthly basis. If the only reality is the world soul, and if Ātman is essentially one with it, then individuality vanishes and an undifferentiated universal oneness is achieved.

The result was that Indian thought ceased to be creative. It grew rigid. The alien blood of the swarthy Sudras, who were now thought of as equally valuable bearers of Ātman, seeped in. Thus was destroyed the original concept of the identity of caste and race. Bastardisation was inevitable. Serpent and phallic cults of the aborigines began to flourish and spread. Symbolic interpretations of the hundred armed Shiva, like creeping vines in the primeval forest, begin to appear in a horrible, bastard art. Only at the courts of the kings were the old heroic songs still heard, and the lyricism of such as Kalidasa and other, mostly unknown, poets still honoured.

Çankara attempted a new refurbishing of Indian philosophy. But it was in vain. Through too deep an intake of breath, the arteries of the race were ruptured. Aryan blood flowed out and trickled away. Only here and there, where the dark soil of ancient India sucks it up, does it still fertilise. But it leaves only a cultivated philosophical and technical orthodoxy which, in its later insane distortion, rules Hindu life today.

We must not short sightedly assert that the Indian first polluted his race and then surrendered his personality. It is rather the case that a metaphysical process took place, and that this was manifested in a passionate yearning for the abolition of dualism as well as the reciprocally conditioning lower forms of polarity.

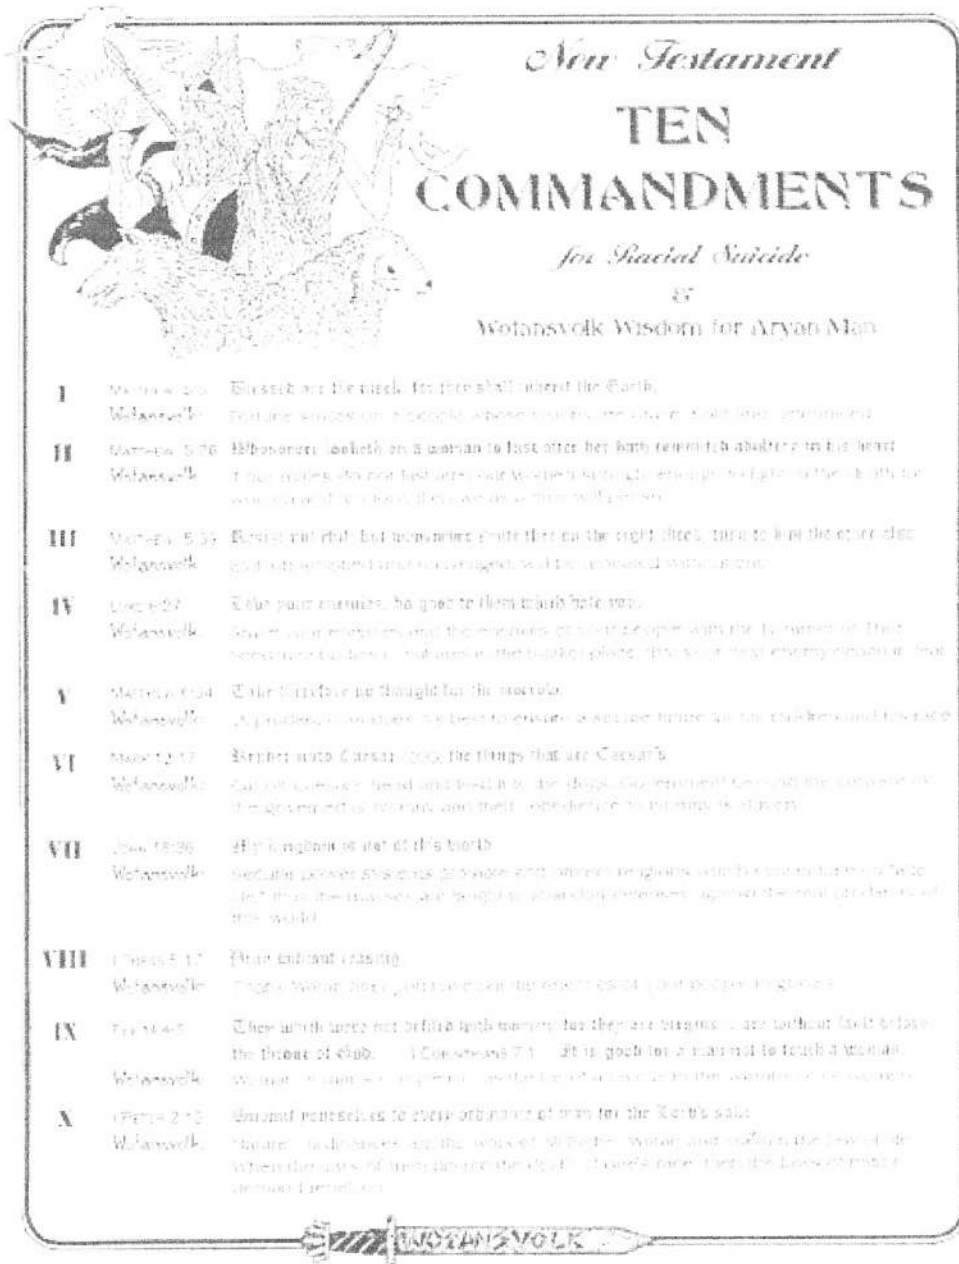

Viewed from the outside, philosophical acceptance of an equation of Ātman Brahman engendered racial decay. In other cultures, this decay was not consequent upon the establishment of a pervasive philosophy, but was, simply, the result of uninterrupted miscegenation among two or more races. In such cases the essential characteristics of the various races were neither elevated nor strengthened, but ended in mutual annihilation. "

What I want is help .I do all I can but we want to set up a bookshop and give out a large number of DVDs and CDs especially outside schools and universities.I have no funds to do that .Send me your details and I will post you the disks.

We have seen a little Wodanism but where is Zeus? Why are the southern Europeans just whining about the bias of Kemp's book and not writing their own books? Why must white nationalism be so nordicist when it's the Mediterranean whites who are so adversely affected? It's the Mediterraneans who will disappear first into the melting pot prepared for us all by the Jews. It's great to see so many Slavs getting involved. They are very tough. I eat regularly with a Russian. She is very blunt and has the fighting spirit we will need. The Jews particularly target Italians with series like the Sopranos and the use of Italian actors like Al Pacino to play Jews. The Jews plan to use the Italians as cover and to diminish the value of Italians. In my opinion men like David Lane are needed to create a syncretic neo-pagan religion. The word religion is a dirty word almost today but I'm sure that something philosophical can be created that does not insult the intelligence while at the same time giving the simple folk a faith. I will try to find the time to develop my thought on this in the future. I would like to travel to Greece and see what ideas work but I need funds. This is the area you can help out. If you think I will become of clone of the other revisionist you are incorrect. It will never happen. I am what I am which I totally politically incorrect and allergic to oriental memes. If our society became all white tomorrow. If all the Jews dropped dead and all the colored went home there would still be alot of work for men like me to do. When the media and Reds use the term "just because of the colour of someones skin " etc that really gets many mediterraneans in a rage. I know some Albanians and Sicilians who are 100% White Europeans who have extremely dark skins and are very fed up with being compared and confused with Indians ,Turks ,Arabs etc. Their quality of live has been substantially diminished by the invasion. Imagine you are an Albanian and you are trying to chat up a girl in a disco and next to you is some arab trying to tell people he is portugeuse, how would you feel? White is a term which is synonomous with "of European ancestry" or Aryan. Is that clear?

I also suggest that this struggle between Jerusalem and Rome will end like the film Godfather 2 ,with the Italian getting the better of the Jew. Remember that there are many mysteries about race and to have a certain respect for older peoples like the Italians and Greeks .I was very impressed by the focusing on the Greeks in Jean Raspail's book "The camp of the saints".

While whites and nonwhites can technically reproduce and make a nonwhite they cannot make a white. They are technically interfertile but not actually interfertile because they are not interfertile for making whites. Hence even by the weakest definition of species they are not a part of the same species. Whites have recessive genes and this speciation factor has kept a white race in existence despite countless racemixing events throughout history. The new factor is the lack of any preserved reservoir. White genes are recessive ,those for psychological traits surely also. Whites never have kinky hair . This is always a sign of admixture somewhere back. I have gone out of my way to meet whites of every nation and the differences are very small. We are the same race. Liberals and Jews try to split the white race. Ehrenburg tried to make out the Nazis called the Russians subhuman. Liberals and Hollywood try to make out that Sicilians are mixed with niggers (remember the Tarantino film: True Romance). Some nordicist white nationalists play into enemy hands and repeat unsubstantiated canards. The white race must close all fissures. In my opinion difficult issues like Polish-German disputes over territory etc. will be solved afterwards. Unity being the most important thing for both sides now. Issues will be settled after ,with the contribution of all sides to the overturning of the present setup an important factor to be taken into consideration .The clowns in the north on both sides do not understand Ireland or Britain. I was looking at the Republican and Unionist writings and its very poor stuff indeed. Both sides would unite quickly enough to attack anyone who went up there to teach a little common sense! I was out with a stunning Polish woman this evening .I find the Slavs physically and mentally healthier than our Western Europeans on average. A healthy German is something extremely impressive in action but at the moment we mainly have sick Germans. The white race is there ,created by nature ,in ways that are little understood, and perhaps stronger than people think and certainly its possible to unite it with a few men to do so. Without white nationalism intermarriage between European peoples simply produces people with less national feeling but no panracial feeling either. People of multiple european origins often make the best white nationalists because for one thing they have no choice :their race is their nation.

Don't talk nonsense about Nazi ideology. What Nazi ideology? Charles Darwin was never in the party although I would bet some of our brainwashed school kids might tell you that. What did a Russian German AntiCatholic atheist philosopher like Alfred Rosenberg have in common with "Christ is king" SS-General Leon Degrelle. Nothing much, other than the defence of a common heritage against Jewish attack. You need to read read read then you need to think think think and finally you need to act. While some individual Jews might seem white enough to a mediocre white ,from the air things look different. Their national character is that of the triracial mongrel. They have both african and asiatic admixture and lack art ,like the african, and demonstrate the extreme cruelty of the asiatic and the negro. Game theory can explain alot and I have not seen many good applications of it so far. Our universities are in disgrace. Inverted whites cooperate with the extra european social entity or "civilisation" (the word civilisation should only be used when referring to ours) because by defecting against their competing whites and cooperating with the external force they are raised higher in the social pyramid than they would be otherwise. The north pole of their magnet stick to the south pole of ours but so far we have not even begun to organise ourselves properly to do the same. Judaism was nearly wiped out when the Greeks created hellenised Jews. By forcing a life and death struggle on the Jewish culture the Greeks strengthened its barbaric elements and helped create an anti-civilisation to our western- largely greek cultured- one. The enlightenment was brought about by two different streams of thought. The Voltaire stream that Christendom was too semetic and the freemasonic illuminist one that it was too Aryan. Just as the Jews lost their sadduces and were strengthened we are in the process of losing those of us who are not "Maccabees for the west". Our civilisation, if it lives, judging by the example of the Jews interaction with hellenism will lose its xenophilic element and strengthen its Aryan polarity. Spengler didn't see this in his analogies. I love his writings and books like his and Rosenberg's should be debated over and written about. Yes we know there were no Gas Chambers. Intellectuals of the resistance do more balanced work! What's needed on the revisionist side is activism to spread the knowledge, like Zundel did with radio broadcasts and satellite TV and so forth. We need more men like Revilo Oliver. Iran would be better off spending its money on funding us instead of providing the ZOG with a cassus belli. Revisionism is the poor mans nuclear bomb. Spenglers analogies were off instead of literally becoming like the Jews our civilisation moved to know itself and not just "be itself". In Ireland the youth play hurley in the countryside but are not conscious of being Aryan. They are busy being it. The Jewish anticivilisation had selfconsciousness forced on it by the Greeks and Romans especially. Whites were divided into Roman and Germanic then. It's taken thousands of years to force whites together. The Germans today are arrogantly proud of their humility, but that will evaporate in an instant. The Jewish onslaught is forcing self consciousness on the west. The aryan civilisation's clumsy imperialism created its own antithesis and this feedback will either kill it or produce an exo-meme proof adult west. Sinn Fein have the same policy as Cromwell. No free speech or association for Irish and forced mixing with niggers. Just like the fate of the Irish slaves Cromwell send to Barbados. If the IRA were real nationalists they would not be giving up their arms but instead shooting their own political representatives! "Jewry Adams" etc. Most of the grass roots Shinnners I've met can be talked down, but Gerry has filled their heads with marxism and its often hard work.
